GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Receipts of Wheat Continue Much Heavier Than Last Year.

CASH PRICES GRADUALLY SINK

If Movement of Grain Continues and Winter Wheat Prospects Are Favorable Much Lower Values Will Result.

OMAHA, Nov. 2, 1909.

Receipts of wheat at primary points continue greatly in excess of last year. The cash prices are gradually declining to a lower level at all markets.

Should the heavy movement continue, which is likely, and the prospects for the present winter wheat crop continue favorable, very much lower values are predicted for the more distant futures.

Bearish reports are numerous concerning the returns on this year's corn crop and the market tone is decidedly weak at this time.

Wheat was easy and lower on weak cables and a slump in cash prices. Receipts are heavy and stocks are accumulating rapidly with the present movement. There is a poor demand for all grades and offerings tend to favor further declines.

Corn was soft and dullness characterized all the trades. Receipts are very moderate, but the deinand is very slack; buyers are taking only small lots for local consumption, and decided weakness followed all offerings.

Primary wheat receipts were 1,681,000 bu. and shipments were 571,000 bu. against holiday last year.

Primary corn receipts were 464,000 bu and shipments were 247,000 bu., against holiday last year.

Liverpool closed 5/@5/d lower on wheat and ½d lower on corn.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Lower cables, liberal primary receipts and a favorable outlook for the new crop caused heaviness in wheat today. At the close prices were ⅝c to ⅞@⅞c below yesterday. Corn, oats and provisions also closed at moderate declines.

Little activity was manifested in wheat. December sold between $1.03⅞@1.04 and $1.04⅝@1.04⅝. The market closed weak at almost the bottom, with December at $1.04@1.04⅛. Selling at the start was inspired by a ½d decline at Liverpool. As the session advanced the selling pressure was augmented by the domestic situation, including heavy receipts at all primary points, declines in cash prices and optimistic reports on the new crop in the United States.

Clear weather over the greater portion of the corn belt prompted persistent hammering of the corn market by leading bears, which resulted in a weak market nearly all day. Prices at the close were ⅛@⅜c lower.

Weakness of wheat and corn had a depressing effect on oats, which ruled easy much of the time. The close was easy with prices a shade to ⅛@⅜c lower.

Provisions were subjected to considerable selling pressure by packers who were prompted by a liberal run of live hogs in the west. Prices at the close were a shade to 10c lower.

The leading futures ranged as follows:

WEATHER IN THE GRAIN BELT

Fair Wednesday and Warmer, Says the Man Who Knows.

OMAHA, Nov. 2, 1909.

The disturbance that caused the rainy and unsettled weather over the central valleys Sunday night and Monday has moved over the upper valleys and lake region within the last twenty-four hours and is now central over the St. Lawrence valley. Rains were general since the last report from the Missouri river east over the upper Mississippi and Ohio valleys, the lake region, and east to the Atlantic coast, and rain is falling in the Ohio valley this morning, with generally cloudy weather prevailing over the eastern states. The wave of cooler weather has continued eastward and has spread over the upper Mississippi valley and upper lake region. Another area of low pressure has appeared in the extreme northwest and generally unsettled weather prevails in that section. An area of high pressure overlies the mountain districts and southwest. The temperature is much higher in the northwest, and generally higher everywhere west of the Mississippi river. The weather will be warmer in this vicinity Wednesday, with continued fair tonight and Wednesday.

Record of temperature and precipitation compared with the corresponding day of the last three years:

Wool Market.

BOSTON, Nov. 2.—WOOL—With the stock of domestic wool becoming still smaller in the local market, interest increases in the new clips in the southern hemisphere. A fair business in domestic, however, is maintained, with values very firm. Leading domestic quotations range as follows: Ohio and Pennsylvania fleeces: XX, 31c; No. 1 washed, 40@41c; No. 2 washed, 40c; fine unwashed, 27@28c; half blood combing, 30@31c; three-eighths blood combing, 26@27c; quarter blood combing, 24@25c; delaine washed, 40@41c; delaine unwashed, 33@34c. Michigan, Wisconsin and New York fleeces: Fine unwashed, 25@26c; delaine unwashed, 31@32c; half blood unwashed, 34@35c; three-eighths blood unwashed, 34@35c; quarter blood unwashed, 33@34c. Kentucky, Indiana and Missouri three-eighths blood, 34c; quarter blood, 32@33c. Scoured values: Texas fine 12 months, 75@78c; fine 6 to 8 months, 68@70c; fine fall, 58@60c. Territory: Fine staple, 75@80c; fine medium staple, 70@72c; fine clothing, 70@72c; fine medium clothing, 66@68c; half blood, 73@75c; three-eighths blood, 68@70c; quarter blood, 67@68c. Pulled, extra, 72@75c; fine A, 68@70c; A supers, 60@64c.

BOSTON, Nov. 2.—Although the stock of domestic wool held by local dealers is becoming very small, a fair business is being done, especially in territory and fleece wools. The buyers are said to be mostly smaller mills, as the large consumers are fairly well stocked up. Values remain very firm and local merchants are looking forward to a continuation of the high prices. Bids of anything below 35c for Ohio quarter-blood are refused, while Wyoming in original bags are moving on a basis of 25c to 27c. Montana shows 27c to 28c, with 73c to 76c for territory quarter-blood, cleaned. Pulled wool is quiet, but the foreign product is steadily coming to the front.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 2.—WOOL—Unchanged; territory and western mediums, 24@29c; fine mediums, 23@28c; fine, 14@20c.

CATTLE—Receipts of cattle this morning were the smallest that they have been in a long time for a Tuesday, only 236 cars being reported in. The quality of the receipts were also decidedly on the common order, there being a large proportion of trash.

The market as regards beef steers showed comparatively little change. At first the trade was a little backward in opening, but when once under way there was a fair movement so far as desirable kinds of cattle were concerned at prices no more than a shade lower. Inferior and trashy kinds are never very free sellers.

Cows and heifers moved off quite freely and salesmen as a general thing were quoting it as a good steady market at least. The bulk of the offerings changed hands in good season in the forenoon.

The better grades of feeders were in demand and were free sellers at steady prices. The supply was small and what few cattle there were of that description changed hands in good season. Inferior kinds, as a matter of course, did not move so readily, but still the market as a whole was in very satisfactory condition.

Quotations on cattle: Good to choice cornfed steers, $7.00@8.00; fair to good cornfed steers, $6.00@7.00; common to fair cornfed steers, $4.50@6.00; good to choice range steers, $5.25@6.25; fair to good range steers, $4.50@5.00; common to fair range steers and $3.50@4.40; good to choice cornfed cows and heifers, $4.00@5.00; fair to good cornfed cows and heifers, $3.25@4.00; common to fair cornfed cows and heifers, $2.00@3.25; good to choice range cows and heifers, $3.00@4.00; fair to good range cows and heifers, $3.25@3.85; common to fair range cows and heifers, $2.25@3.20; good to choice stockers and feeders, $4.75@5.25; fair to good stockers and feeders, $4.00@4.50; common to fair stockers and feeders, $2.75@3.75; stock heifers, $2.25@3.00; veal calves, $3.50@7.00; bulls, stags, etc., $2.75@4.50.

HOGS—Supplies were by no means liberal this morning, about 2,800 in all, but in spite of the rather moderate run, both packers and shippers openly declared at the start that they were out of the market at yesterday's figures. Outside advices were extremely bearish and early bids at this point were about a dime lower than yesterday's best time or easily a nickel lower than the close. In fact, it was generally a $7.65 market so far as bulk of bids was concerned, but very few sales were made early to accurately reflect the actual situation.

The movement was naturally very slow and it was well along in the morning before salesmen and buyers finally agreed upon a trading basis.
