FUSION FORCES WIN IN NEW YORK

City Government Will Be in Control of Anti-Tammany Men After First Year.

GAYNOR IS ELECTED MAYOR

All Other Offices Are Captured by Reformers.

BOSS MURPHY MAY RETIRE

Rumor that He Will Resign as Head of Tammany.

GAYNOR DECLINES TO TALK

Mayor-Elect Refuses to Discuss His Statement that He Would Not Serve if Board Was Not Democratic.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The forces of fusion will be in practical control of New York City's government after January 1 next, although the democratic candidate for mayor, William J. Gaynor, was elected to that office yesterday by a plurality of over 73,000 votes.

With the exception of mayor, the fusion sweep was complete. Not a single democratic candidate on city or county tickets won success. The fusion forces, by electing their candidates for comptroller and president of the board of aldermen, together with the victory of fusion and anti-Tammany candidates for the presidency of all five boroughs will give the opposition to Tammany thirteen out of sixteen votes in the important Board of Estimate.

This board will have in its hands during its term of office the expenditure of practically $1,000,000,000.

On the county ticket the fusionists elected their candidates for district attorney, sheriff, county clerk, register and city court judge, which, with their other victories, will place nearly every bit of patronage in the greater city in their hands.

Complete Vote for Mayor.

Complete returns on the vote for mayor show the following: Gaynor, 73,573; Bandner, 17,627; Hearst, 153,942. Gaynor's plurality, 73,573.

Below mayor, the fusion candidates on the city ticket won by substantial pluralities, that of Frederickson, for comptroller, being approximately 35,000; that of Mitchell, for president of the board of aldermen, 1,000.

The borough presidencies all went to the fusion or anti-Tammany candidates. In Manhattan George McAneny was elected by a plurality of 25,631; in the Bronx C. C. Miller won by 3,801 votes; in Brooklyn B. Steers had a margin of 34,332; in Queens, Lawrence Cresser, independent, won by 4,453 plurality, while in the borough of Richmond, George Cromwell, the fusionist, had 232 plurality.

Fusionist's Marriage Attorney.

The seventh of the fusionist causes in New York county was indicated by the plurality of 22,000 votes, which Charles S. Whitman, the fusion nominee for district attorney, received over George Gordon Battle, the democratic candidate. John S. Shea, fusionist, was elected for sheriff by a plurality approximating 35,000.

The democratic candidate for the city court bench, George F. Roesch, was snatched away by 32,000 votes by his fusionist opponent, Richard P. Smith.

The board of aldermen will be composed of forty-two democrats and thirty-six fusionists.

From present indications the state assembly will have a republican majority of forty-three, a democratic gain of five. There was no election for members of the senate.

Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, would not discuss the report that in view of the loss to Tammany of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment he would resign as Tammany's leader at the December meeting of the county and executive committees.

Murphy Will Not Quit.

Later today when pressed for a statement regarding the report of his possible resignation, Mr. Murphy entered a point blank denial.

"I have no intention of resigning," he declared.

Mr. Murphy said he knew of no sentiment in the Tammany organization that called for his retirement.

Mayor-elect Gaynor would not discuss today, the probability of his acting on his pre-election statement that he would be disinclined to serve as mayor unless a democratic Board of Estimates were also elected.

"I have nothing to say to the newspapers today," said judge Gaynor, "except that I desire to express my warmest thanks and appreciation to you and the reporters of all the newspapers who have been calling daily at my house."

The mayor-elect disclaimed a published interview with him which credited him with charging the newspapers with garbling and distorting his campaign speeches.

Heney Defeated, Will Continue Fight, He Says

Prosecutor Defeated by Thirteen Thousand Votes and Union Labor Carries San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—San Francisco yesterday retired Francis J. Heney, who won national fame as prosecutor in graft cases here and gave union another chance at running the city.

Heney based on a count of 50 per cent the total vote are that Charles M. Fickert's majority over Heney will reach 13,000 and that P. H. McCarthy, the union labor candidate for mayor, was elected by a plurality of 8,000.

Returns from 256 scattering precincts out of 261, showing 24,297 votes counted out of a probable total of 67,000 give the following: For Mayor—William Crocker (republican), 6,399; Thomas H. W. Leland (democratic), 5,149; P. H. McCarthy (union labor-independence league), 16,973. For District Attorney—Charles M. Fickert (republican-union labor), 13,465; Francis J. Heney (democratic-good government-independence league), 8,437.

The union labor ticket ran well through the other city offices, and incomplete returns show that the next Board of Supervisors will be composed of ten representatives of this party, five republicans and three democrats.

Statements were issued by the candidates as soon as the results left no room for further doubt. McCarthy said: "I shall do all within my power to vindicate the name of union labor and to give San Francisco the best administration it ever had."

Mr. Heney said: "The election shows that the people do not appreciate the fight I have made for them and the present situation, but they will appreciate it two years from now. I have been fighting for a principle and this is not the time to quit."

Rudolph Spreckels, one of Mr. Heney's backers, said: "We will get together in the morning and organize for the next campaign. Now is the time for every man to come out into the open."

Car Runs Away; Three May Die, Sixty-Eight Hurt

Des Moines Street Car Jammed with People Overturms at Foot of Incline.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 3.—Three men were probably fatally injured and sixty-eight men and women were injured, some seriously, when a crowded University Place car jumped the track and turned on its side at the bottom of the Nineteenth street hill, following the coast down the long incline when Motorman A. A. Parsons lost control of the car at the top at 8 o'clock today.

The car was jammed with people who were going to the business section of the city to begin work for the day. Many of the passengers were department store clerks and school teachers. A large percentage of the injured were young women.

The accident occurred in one of the fashionable districts of the city. The injured were carried into the Fortward apartment house at the bottom of the hill, where physicians and society women worked side by side in alleviating their sufferings. A dozen were taken to Mercy and Methodist hospitals. Among the seriously injured was Eibert Warren, captain of the Drake university football team. He will live. The list of those probably fatally hurt follows:

W. J. Robb, Oklahoma City, employed at Stern Millinery company, ribs fractured.

J. P. Johnson, 308 Twenty-first street, manager of the Douglas Shoe company, hip broken, terribly gashed about head.

D. Smith, 2335 Hatfield avenue, skull fractured.

FAMILY MIXUP CAUSED BY THIS MARRIAGE

Men Weds Son's Mother-in-Law and Now Relationships Are Hopelessly Tangled.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 3.—When Henry Hooper of Jerseyville, Ill., married Mrs. Bertha Gray she became her son-in-law's step-mother. Henry Hooper, Jr., is now his wife's step-brother and the other grown children of the two families are brothers and sisters-in-law, as well as step-brothers and sisters.

This is because Henry Hooper, Jr., married Hattie Gray eight years ago. They have children, who are doubly the grandchildren of the older couple.

Henry Hooper, sr., is 71 years old and his bride is 65. He has two grown sons and two grown daughters and she has two grown sons and one grown daughter. He is a prosperous farmer and his bride was forced to the marriage a well-to-do widow of Otter Creek.

The wedding took place last evening at the parsonage of the German Evangelical church at Jerseyville. It was followed by a charivari which broke and records in that town.

Explorer Finds Falls in Labrador

Confident Discovery Will Prove Highest Waterfall on Continent.

OSHEKOSH, Wis., Nov. 3.—Edward Balch Barr, the explorer, who has just returned from Labrador, reports the discovery in the wilderness of that country of a huge waterfall, which he has contended will prove the highest waterfall on the western hemisphere.

The discovery was made while making a forced canoe trip up the Caster river. The fall is said to be larger than Grand Falls in Labrador, which is 288 feet high.

RACE QUESTION FOR THE COURTS

State Department Defines Its Attitude on Right of Syrians to Naturalization.

Ruling of Bureau Excluding Them Arouses Ottoman Charge.

THAT NATION LARGELY TO BLAME

It Has Steadfastly Refused to Make Naturalization Treaty.

SYRIANS ARE OF WHITE RACE

Experts of Smithsonian Institute Contradict Ruling of Richard K. Campbell that They Are Mongolians.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The question of granting naturalization to Turkish subjects for the determination of competent courts. This is the attitude of the State department as defined in a statement issued today and is taken to indicate that the department is not prepared to accept without question the conclusion of the bureau of naturalization of the Department of Commerce and Labor that Turkish subjects are not entitled to naturalization.

The recent ruling of Chief Richard K. Campbell of the bureau of naturalization that Syrians and their racial kindred, who are Turkish subjects, were yellow, not white, and that they were barred, therefore, from naturalization under existing laws, called forth a protest from the Ottoman government in a statement issued today and is taken to indicate that the department is not prepared to accept without question the conclusion of the bureau of naturalization of the Department of Commerce and Labor that Turkish subjects are not entitled to naturalization.

MURDER TRIAL ROUSES PARIS

Public Pays $200 for Seats in Criminal Court Room.

HUSBAND MURDER IS CHARGE

Woman Is Accused of Straying Spouse and His Mother in Order to Marry Another.

PARIS, Nov. 3.—Not since 1902, when Frederic and Theres Humbert were convicted of a $12,000,000 swindle, has a trial in Paris excited the intense interest exhibited in the case of Mme. Adolphe Steinhel, which was opened before Judge DeValles in the Seine-assise court today.

Mme. Steinhel is on trial for the murder of her husband and her mother-in-law, Mme. Jahey. The alleged motive is found in the defendant's hatred for her mother-in-law and a desire to rid herself of the husband in order that she might marry Maurice Bordered, a wealthy merchant who had become infatuated with her.

The talent and attractiveness of the woman, combined with the mystery of her career and her connections with persons in public life, have fed the popular imagination and led the public to believe that the most startling disclosures are imminent.

Judge DeValles had received 2,000 applications for seats in the court room, but he arbitrarily refused all with the exception of those made for members of the press, the bar and others directly concerned with the trial.

Big Prices for Seats.

To these were added the first 100 persons who, starting in line this morning, sought admission. The law provides for public admission to the trial of any case not heard in camera, and the admission of the 100 mentioned met this requirement of the law today.

In the hope of securing one of these coveted places, many men and women stood before the entrance through last night and places of vantage commanded as high as $20.

In refusing the many applications for seats, Judge DeValles declared that he did not propose to tolerate a repetition of previous scandals by turning the present proceedings into a music hall performance.

Most of today's session was occupied with the selection of a jury and the reading of the indictment.

During her examination, which was dramatic, Mme. Steinhel protested her innocence and declared repeatedly that her original account of the crime, to the effect that it had been committed by men dressed in long, flowing coats, with the assistance of a red haired woman, was true.

She explained the stories told by her subsequently, in which she accused various persons, on the ground that she was in a nervous condition at the time and the victim of auto-suggestion on the part of journalists, police officers and others.

Are Syrians Asiatics?

ABERDEEN, S. D., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—A number of Syrians who have taken out first papers and are nearly ready to prove up on homesteads in northwestern South Dakota are seriously perturbed over the ruling of the administration to the effect that they are Asiatics and therefore cannot become citizens of the United States. The Syrians are well-behaved, progressive and have made good farmers. One of them proudly declared that if the United States does not want them they will not stay; that they do not care to remain here unless they are granted the rights of citizenship.

Medal for Peary; Cook's Claims to Be Examined

National Geographical Society Finds Peary's Proofs Indicate He Reached Pole.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Commander Robert E. Peary was today voted a gold medal by the National Geographical society for having reached the North pole. The society adopted a resolution that the board of managers of the society at a meeting today accepted unanimously the report of its subcommittee of scientists, who had examined the explorer's records and proofs and found them to be corroborative of his claim that he had reached the pole.

The society adopted a resolution that the question whether or not any explorer reached the North pole prior to 1909, shall be referred to a subcommittee of experts with authority to send for papers or make such journeys as may be necessary to inspect original records. This indicates that the society proposes as soon as possible to pass upon the records of Dr. Frederick A. Cook.

New Record on Cotton Market

Report Patten Was Closing Out Caused a Break, Which is Recovered.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The most active business of this season and probably in the history of the trade was reported in the New York cotton exchange today. Prices made new high records at the start, owing to sensational news in English and southern markets, while New York was closed yesterday, but reports that Mr. Patten was selling out his interests at an estimated profit of nearly $3,000,000 caused tremendous realising all along the line and a break of nearly $1.50 a bale.

Around 14.7c for January and 14.9c for March, however, southern bulls led by W. F. Brown, entered the market as enormous buyers, and aided by claims that Patten had denied the story of his liquidation, prices quickly recovered their losses, January advancing to 15.0c and March to 15.1c, or eight to thirteen points above Monday's close.

Near Peak of Mount Kenya

J. Alden Loring and Major Means Climb Close to Summit of Mountain.

NAIROBI, British East Africa, Nov. 3.—J. Alden Loring, the naturalist, and Major Edgar A. Means, both of the government hunting party, returned today from their expedition to Mount Kenya. The climbers ascended the mountain to an estimated height of 16,500 feet, reaching the highest point which it was possible to attain without the aid of alpenstocks. This was within 700 feet of the summit.

They collected specimens of more than 2,000 birds and mammals and made many photographs of the mountain.

Taft Takes More of Dixie

President Captures Good Will of Another Section of South.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 3.—President Taft brought his twenty-hour stay in Birmingham to a close this afternoon and at 4:10 p. m. left for Macon, Ga. He stopped tonight for a short while at Opelika, Ala., and Columbus, Ga.

In his principal address, delivered at Capital park this afternoon, the president expressed again his good will toward the south. While doing so an old, gray headed man in the crowd called out: "God bless you; we all love you."

A broad grin came over the president's face as he turned and replied: "That reminds me of the old quotation, 'It may be all right to dissemble your love, but why did you kick me downstairs?'"

"But I have no fault to find on that score," added the president. "The fact that you had so little to do with putting me where I am makes me appreciate the warmth and sincerity of your reception all the more."

Support for Roosevelt Policies.

Turning from these pleasantries, the president asked for support in carrying out the Roosevelt policies to bring about better conditions of honesty and integrity in business and public affairs, without regard to party lines.

The president referred once during the course of his speech to the prohibition to amend the state constitution by providing in it for an indefinite continuance of state-wide prohibition. He promptly was asked how he stood on the question.

"I am not an Alabamian," he replied amid laughter, "and I am in somewhat the position of Brother Fox, who when he was called upon to decide a case between a lion and some other ferocious beast, protested that he had a bad cold and had entirely lost his sense of smell."

One of the prettiest incidents of the day occurred as the president was leaving the luncheon. The way from the clubhouse door to the waiting automobile was lined on one side by veterans of the Confederate army and on the other side by men of the Grand Army of the Republic. As he passed down the avenue formed by the grizzled old soldiers, Mr. Taft stopped to shake hands alternately with each one.

As he shook hands with one of the Confederates, the old fellow said: "Mr. President, you have captured the secessionists, the Kuklux and the cranky democrats, all of them."

"Well, that's a whole lot," smilingly replied the president.

Drops Dead Fighting Fire.

ABERDEEN, S. D., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—A. E. Flick, a business man of Moberge, aged 45, dropped dead of heart disease a few minutes after fighting a prairie fire which destroyed some of the buildings on his place. After fighting the blaze Flick complained of feeling ill and went to bed. As he arose to take a drink he fell over. When Mrs. Flick picked him up life was extinct. The dead man was a member of a land and loan firm at Moberge.

DAY SPENT IN BIRMINGHAM

NEW DISEASE, PELAGRA, IS SUBJECT OF BIG CONFERENCE

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 3.—Almost completely baffled as yet by one of the most mysterious diseases with which it ever confronted, and which already has assumed alarming proportions in this country and which has destroyed some of the buildings on his place. After fighting the blaze Flick complained of feeling ill and went to bed. As he arose to take a drink he fell over. When Mrs. Flick picked him up life was extinct. The dead man was a member of a land and loan firm at Moberge.

Every effort will be exerted to ascertain the cause of the peculiar disease and seek a method of treatment that will check it. Indicative of the profound interest that is manifested not only in this, but in foreign countries in regard to the disease, is the fact that from what was at first proposed as a purely local gathering of physicians for the discussion of pellagra, the present conference developed into one of national and international character.

The federal government is keenly alive to the importance of the conference, being represented by officers from the public health and marine hospital service and the navy.

VOTE IS CLOSE IN NEBRASKA

Returns from Nearly Half of State Show Candidates Bunched, and Favoring Republican Judges.

MORE COMPLETE FIGURES NEEDED

Nearly Half Vote of State Included in Totals Received.

SMALL DIFFERENCE IN VOTE

Judge Sullivan Now Holds Lead on Democratic Ticket.

BARNES HIGH ON REPUBLICAN

Remarkable Race Made, in Which Candidates Run Neck and Neck—Divisionists in Center Lose Out.

Returns from 738 precincts of the state on the judicial ticket reveal the candidates of both parties so closely bunched that it will probably take the complete figures to determine who wins.

The average loss per precinct, the precincts heard from in a full 15 to 15 to the precinct, which, if maintained in the balance of the state, which is a little more than half of the entire vote, would cast into the republican majority decidedly. But the statistics now reported are not likely to increase the percentage of loss and should lower it.

In the 738 precincts for which computation has been made Judge Barnes, republican, is the high man, with Judge Fawcett low on the same ticket, but separated by only about 600 votes. Judge Dean, democratic, is low for the opposing ticket, and Judge Sullivan high, but only about 200 better than the low man.

In these precincts Judge Fawcett has a plurality over Sullivan of 2,192, which is about the difference that has separated the high and low men in the face of his apparent percentage of loss.

There is an excellent chance that the republican ticket will pull through, though the margin will be extremely narrow.
