Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world of it. I suffered from female trouble and fearful pains in my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in addition to my female trouble, and advised an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. Emma Isaak, 383 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

SCOTCH WOMAN LAUDS WEST

Eminent Teacher Who Visited Omaha Enthusiastic Over This Section.

LIKES THE PEOPLE AND CLIMATE

Miss Kate F. Bremner of Edinburgh Sends Dr. Davidson Pamphlet Praising, Among Others, Women of West.

Kate F. Bremner, "Infants' mistress," Albion Road school, Edinburgh, Scotland, was one of the teachers from Great Britain sent to the United States by Alfred Mosely a couple of weeks ago. She was in Omaha on Monday afternoon, and called on Superintendent Davidson's office a little pamphlet containing her impressions of "the states."

She was one of the very few who came west of Chicago, and says of her fellow travelers: "The western people are hoping that they did not turn back in the belief that civilization ended there. As I went on, a specially warm welcome awaited me as being the first representative of the enterprising 200 countries of the world."

"The western people are hoping that they did not turn back in the belief that civilization ended there. As I went on, a specially warm welcome awaited me as being the first representative of the enterprising 200 countries of the world."

Fort Crook Army Will Give a Big Charity Ball Soon

Sixteenth Regiment Officers Plan Grand Finale on Most Elaborate Scale.

A charity ball will be given at Fort Crook. This will be the grand finale and the largest and most elaborate affair planned since the military ball of last season.

The women of the Sixteenth Infantry, with Mrs. Cornelius Gardner as chairman, will have charge of all the arrangements. Half of the proceeds will be given to the Army Relief society and half to some worthy charity in Omaha as a memento of the regiment. It will be a ball and supper and all of the decorations will be military.

The Sixteenth Infantry band will furnish the music and supper will be served the latter part of the evening. The ball will be given at the Fort Crook gymnasium, which is also an excellent ball room.

The date has not been definitely decided, but will probably be the night after Thanksgiving or some time during the last week of November. The Army Relief society is the national army charity. This society lends necessary assistance to the orphans and widows of officers and soldiers, often educating and finding situations for the children of deceased heroes. The Omaha charity which will receive a part of the proceeds will be decided later. The committee in charge will make arrangements for special cars to run to the garrison. The officers and women of the Sixteenth regiment have proved themselves admirable hosts and hostesses and the Omaha people will welcome this opportunity of assisting with the success of the charity ball.

Of her observations in this section, which she speaks of as "out west," the Scotch teacher says:

MAN SUSPECTED OF WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC OUT ON BAIL

G. E. Penn's Mother Deposits Bond of $500 that is Good—Girls Are Being Guarded.

That no formal complaint had been filed against G. E. Penn, charged by the police with transactions with young girls upon which charges of "white slavery" may be based, was discovered when he failed to answer to his name in police court Wednesday, although he had deposited a bond of $500 for his appearance.

The prosecution of the case now lies largely in the efforts of the juvenile officers, who state that two separate and distinct cases may be brought, owing to the difference in the testimony of the girls they have located. The young women connected with the case are being carefully guarded to prevent any influence being brought to bear on them to change their attitudes.

When it became apparent that no complaint was standing against Penn at the time his bond was furnished and that there was a possible misunderstanding in regard to the time set for his appearance in court, C. M. Bachman, police judge pro tem, held the case until the defendant had been notified.

The officers for the prosecution caused the issuance of a warrant charging vagrancy, by which they hoped to hold Penn, had he appeared.

The bond filed by Penn is a certified check on an Omaha bank, drawn by Mrs. Phoebe Penn, his mother, in the sum of $500, payable to Bryce Crawford, police judge.

A. J. Fields and his wife Luverna, negroes, who were arrested in a raid on their home at 1563 Cuming street, because of a complaint that they held a young negro girl in immoral bondage, were discharged in police court after a long and tedious hearing.

Frances Elligan, 14 years of age, and Cecile Irvin, 17 years, were found in the place. The raid was made on the instigation of the Elligan girl's relatives.

NEEDLEWORK GUILD TO MAKE ANNUAL COLLECTION FOR POOR

It Will Receive and Distribute Garments and Invite General Co-operation.

The annual collection of garments and election of officers of the Omaha branch of the Needlework Guild of America will be held Thursday at First Christian church, the distribution and reception for the exhibition of the garments will take place Friday.

The Needlework guild is one of Omaha's most practical aids to charity and has come to be depended upon by the hostesses and the several other charitable and philanthropic institutions for a substantial part of the annual supply of new clothing, bedding and like necessities provided during the year.

The gift of two new garments each year entitles anyone to membership in the guild and is the only obligation. These garments may be sent to the First Christian church at any time Thursday or Friday.

There they will be sorted according to the needs of the organizations to receive them. They will be served from 2 to 5 o'clock Friday afternoon and a musical program given. Mrs. Edward Rosewater has served the guild as president during the last year.

HORSE KICK PROVES FATAL

Injury Sustained in August Taken Life of Noah Ward, Farm Hand.

Complications arising from injuries received from the kick of a horse last August caused the death of Noah Ward, a farm hand, Wednesday morning at Immanuel hospital.

Mr. Ward was employed on a farm near Union. He was hitching up a tractor horse when it kicked him on the shin. The apparently trivial injury developed a disease of the bone which forced him to come to Omaha for treatment. His wife lives in Iowa and is expected to arrive soon to make arrangements for the funeral. Mr. Ward was 32 years old.

STATE CAN'T SEE ROMANCE IN CHARLEY JOHNSON MURDER

It Can Only See Cold-Blooded Slaying of One Man by Another.

Opening statements by the prosecution indicate that the state takes little stock in the beautiful story of the first between Gus Silvers and Charley Johnson at the rear of "Strawberry flats," when Johnson met death from a bullet fired by the other man. The state is, forsooth, in the position of an imbecile, for "twas a beautifully dramatic tale, with the two men measuring off twenty paces and the fair casus belli herself dropping the handkerchief for a signal to fire.

Alas, romance lives not in the breast of A. G. Ellick and G. A. Magney, deputy county attorneys, who are prosecuting Johnson. The duo, with its glorious thrill is dead for them and any attempt to make a Hamilton-Burr or Decatur-Barron episode out of the murder is resented by these material-minded persons who assert their predilection is for the cold and unpoetic facts.

According to the state it was just a little ordinary shooting down of Johnson by Silvers, the two being colored men and the woman in the case being Caucasian.

The state's version is that Silvers demanded payment of a debt of 25 cents of Johnson and that Silvers pulled a gun when Johnson began to edge out of the room.

PHYSICAL DIRECTORS MEET

Y. W. C. A. Leaders of Several States Gather in Omaha.

Called by National Board

First Conference of the Kind Ever Held in This Country and Important Work Will Be Done.

A conference of physical directors of the Young Women's Christian association has been called for the Omaha association building November 13 and 14, the call being issued by Dr. Anna L. Brown of the national board, secretary for the Department of Physical Education. It is expected physical directors from several states will be in attendance. This will be the first conference of this kind ever held in the country. During their stay in Omaha the visitors will be the guests of the local association.

The annual Nebraska state convention of the Young Women's Christian association will be held at Hastings, November 12-14. Miss Edith M. Dabb, national secretary, will be present, also secretaries from the Omaha and Lincoln associations and the state university. Miss Florence Parmelee of Omaha is visiting the college associations assisting the state committee in making plans for the convention.

The membership committee of the local Young Women's Christian association is rejoicing over the greatest membership in its history, there now being over 250 members. As the year ends the last day of December, the committee is hoping to close the year by reaching the 300 mark. This is more difficult than it seems as there will be 100 expirations between now and the last day of December, so that in order to reach the 300 in the year, it will be necessary to get 100 members in the next two months. This, of course, includes renewals. The membership committee issues a challenge to all other committees that it will secure more members in the given period than all of the other committees put together. The association offers a banquet to the winning team, which is to be served by the losers.
