ALL-STEEL COACH ON TRAIL

Nondestructible Car is Tested by the Union Pacific.

OTHER LINES MAY CARRY THEM

New Coach is Entirely Different in Construction and Equipment from the Old Types So Long Used.

An all-steel passenger chair car, absolutely immune from destruction by fire and collision, in which wood is an unknown quantity except in the window frames, is being tried out by the Union Pacific railroad. When the St. Louis-Colorado Limited pulled out of St. Louis Wednesday it carried one of these coaches on its maiden trip. It is expected that similar cars will be carried by the Colorado Special and the Chicago Special on the Union Pacific running between Omaha and Denver.

The new coach is radically different from the old type chair car. Besides being entirely constructed of steel it has many innovations in the interior finish. The seats may be raised by merely pressing a button, doing away with the levers and other mechanism in the old cars. Another feature of the new coach is the system of ventilation. The cars are heated by the vapor system and are brilliantly lighted by electricity and gas.

Fast Mail Keeps Up Record.
The Chicago-Omaha fast mail train No. 7 on the Burlington route still maintains its record for delivering the mails in Omaha on time. During the last ninety-two days the train has been late but three times upon its arrival at the transfer station at Council Bluffs. In October the flyer was late but once; in September it ran to the minute during the entire month, and during September it was delayed twice.

Between the Windy City and Omaha it has maintained an average speed of forty-one miles an hour, keeping up the daily pace for twelve hours five minutes at a stretch. The distance between the two points is 49 miles.

Nebraska Must Raise More Hogs, the Packers Say

Additions to Big South Omaha Plants Wait on Assurance the Region Will Supply Needs.

A slow hog market would be a novelty in South Omaha at present. The receipts of hogs have been so light of late that the packers buy all the supply which will make any kind of pork with alacrity. "No more building at the packing houses in South Omaha," say the packers, "until the market can supply more hogs than the Chicago market than ever before with the hope of encouraging larger shipments to South Omaha. The last two months have shown a gradual decrease over last year's figures."

While the condition is true in South Omaha, yet the market claims the smallest decrease of any of the markets of the country. Chicago has lost over 1,000,000 hogs this year. St. Joseph has lost over 500,000. The exact decrease in South Omaha over 1908 was 354,200. Compared with other markets, this is a great showing.

About once in four years the hog crop is a record breaker. This is due again in 1910. Nebraska farmers will produce many more hogs than ever in the next few years, since the feeding of alfalfa has become so general and so cheap. On alfalfa and an exceedingly small ration of corn, the finest hogs are readily produced. Cheap corn need no longer be one of the conditions of profit in the production of hogs.

HUSBAND BEATS WIFE FOR NOT EARNING MONEY
Mrs. William Rice Thrown Out of Home Because She Falls to Raise the Cash.

Mrs. William Rice, of 708 South Twenty-sixth street, was beaten and chased out of her home last night by her husband, who was in a rage because she did not have a family washing completed so he could deliver it and collect the money. Mrs. Rice explained that she has been working as a washerwoman for several months and has been earning more than $8 each week, until last week, when she was sick. On account of this she was able to turn but $4 into the family coffers. Upon arriving home last night, Rice found she had not completed a family washing he had previously ordered her to do so he might deliver it and collect the money. He beat her unmercifully and then chased her out of the house. With her 6 months' old child in her arms she reported the matter to the police. Rice was arrested and his wife was instructed to appear as a witness against him in police court this morning. Both are colored.

NAG AMBRUS LOSES HIS LIFE AT THE SMELTER
Motor Crushes Head While He Was Using Rail as Pillow—Inquest to Be Held.

Nag Ambrus, an Austrian laborer, was killed by being run over with an ore car at the smelter at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The man was lying on the ground, using the rail as a pillow, when the car, with a motor attachment, crushed the bones of his head.

Ambrus was not noticed by Pat Riordan, the motorman, who was on the rear of the car, until after the accident. The unfortunate man accepted employment as a laborer at the smelter about eight or nine days ago. He was about 25 years of age and could not speak English. He had been living at 301 1/2 Webster street. The body was turned over to Coroner Hefley, who will hold it until he makes an investigation.

BAD NEWS FROM HOME, WOMAN TRIES SUICIDE
Colored Girl, Followed by Officer to Prevent Act, is Saved from Death.

Sad news received in a letter from home caused Tobitha Hynes, a negro of 202 North Thirteenth street, to become despondent and attempt to commit suicide yesterday. She drank part of the contents of a bottle of carbolic acid, but a physician was summoned in time to prevent death. Miss Hynes, who is said to be 30 years of age, swallowed the acid while on Davenport street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets, about 6:30 o'clock. Officer Aughe had been informed she was contemplating suicide and was following her. He reached her immediately after taking the drug. Dr. Shranek, one of the police surgeons, was called. He administered an emetic and saved her from death. The nature of the news from home was not learned.

GRAIN EXCHANGE FIGHT HOT!

Big Dealers Will Discontinue Advances on Floor Purchases. MEANS BUYER MUST HOLD IT

A strike is on at the Omaha Grain exchange. The big dealers say they will discontinue the payment of advances on grain bought on the floor of the exchange and the commission men say they will increase refuse to sell grain to the big dealers except for cash.

A notice has been sent out by the four big dealers saying that after November 1 they will discontinue advances on grain bought on the floor. This means that if a commission man buys grain from a farmer and pays cash for it he must carry that grain until it is put into the elevators of the big dealers. This would require a large line of credit and the smaller dealers say it is a scheme to run some of them out of business. Others say it is a retaliatory measure because of the activity of the commission men over the election of directors for the Omaha Grain exchange.

Campaign Wax Warm.
As November 10, the date of the election, draws near the campaign waxing hot and Wednesday the commission men were out in automobiles campaigning the city to get some of the business men who have a vote on the exchange to withdraw their proxies given some time ago. They want these business men to appear themselves and cast their own votes.

Notice has been sent out by the secretary of the Grain exchange that members would be permitted, under the constitution, to vote cumulatively, that is, a member of the exchange may cast all three of his votes for one candidate.

At a meeting of the directors, M. C. Peers and Charles F. Davis were chosen as the nominees. The big dealers have put up E. P. Peck. The commission men now say that the big dealers are trying to elect Mr. Peck by the cumulative system. At any rate November 10 promises to be a very busy day on the Grain exchange because the commission men are all worked up over the two moves which have been made.

DR. EUGENE MAY WILL BE AT FALL OPENING OF Y. M. C. A.
Noted Preacher Will Speak on Paul, the Traveler and Roman Citizen.

The opening meeting of the fall campaign of the Young Men's Christian association will be held Sunday afternoon, when the first of a series of meetings or rallies promoting a discussion and study of biblical work will be addressed by Dr. Eugene May. Dr. May will speak in the assembly room at 2:30, on the subject, "Paul, the Traveler and Roman Citizen."

Dr. May is a noted preacher of the gospel, and was at first believed to be of a serious nature. Mr. Kaspar had just returned from a journey through Mexico and the southwest and was in a weakened condition.

The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at the family home, 149 South Seventeenth street. The Bohemian society, of which Mr. Kaspar was a member, the Soko Tys and C. S. P. S., will have a part in the services. The eulogy will be delivered by John Rosicky. Burial will be in the Bohemian National cemetery.

Mr. Kaspar spent his boyhood in Bohemia, the land of his birth. He was born in 1827. When a youth he came to the United States and for several years traveled about the country, sojourning at the principal cities of the east. Five years after his arrival—1875—he came to Omaha and became a pressman on The Bee. In 1878 Mr. Kaspar was appointed to the police force and in the year following was made a sergeant. He left the police force in 1883 and opened a hotel in what is now known as Kaspar hall on South Thirteenth street.

Varied Business Experience.
The hotel venture was the beginning of a varied business career for Mr. Kaspar. He organized the Diamond Match company of Omaha and figured as an important employer of labor.

The match factory at Seventeenth and Center streets burned and the business was abandoned. Mr. Kaspar bought the National Bohemian Weekly in 1888. This publication was the beginning of several ventures in the field of journalism. From it has grown the Bohemian Forokostad and the Hostodiar, a farm journal. For two years Mr. Kaspar was also interested in the brick manufacturing business and operated two yards here. His business activities from 1888 to 1900 were occupied with the affairs of the Omaha Pearl Button company, employing convict labor at the state prison at Lincoln. Since 1901 Mr. Kaspar has been engaged in the realty and coal business in Omaha. He was many years ago a member of the Board of Trade here.

Mr. Kaspar was a member of the city council for two terms, beginning in 1894 as representative of the Second ward. He was a member of the Board of Public Works from 1894 to 1898. He attained to political leadership among the Bohemian people of the city and was particularly active in affairs pertaining to them.

A large number of relatives in all parts of the country survive Mr. Kaspar. His wife died here in 1903. Eight children, Frank, Joseph, James, Mamie, Emma, Helen, George and William, survive their father. Frank, the eldest son, lives in Las Animas, Colo., and the others live in Omaha. Joseph V. Kaspar, a brother, lives at 1282 South Thirteenth street. Mrs. Mary Novotny is a sister.

ONLY NECESSARY TO TREAT THE STOMACH, SAYS COOPER
The new theory advanced by L. T. Cooper relative to the human stomach has attracted such widespread attention that the public in cities visited by him has been joined by many physicians in a discussion of his beliefs and medicines.

Mr. Kaspar spent his boyhood in Bohemia, the land of his birth. He was born in 1827. When a youth he came to the United States and for several years traveled about the country, sojourning at the principal cities of the east. Five years after his arrival—1875—he came to Omaha and became a pressman on The Bee. In 1878 Mr. Kaspar was appointed to the police force and in the year following was made a sergeant. He left the police force in 1883 and opened a hotel in what is now known as Kaspar hall on South Thirteenth street.

Possibly the most interesting feature of the attention Cooper has attracted is what his army of followers, whom he has converted to his beliefs through his medicines, have to say on the subject. The following unsolicited endorsement comes from J. L. Turk, living at 616 Locust street, Vincennes, Ind., whose statement is characteristic of thousands received from persons living in all parts of the country.
