

FAWCETT HAS STRONG LEAD

Late Returns Put Him 1,200 Ahead of Sullivan. DEMOCRATIC COUNTIES ALL IN Official returns from a number of counties from which no official counts had previously been made increased Fawcett's lead over Sullivan so far Saturday morning as to put him out of all danger.

Returns from eighty-three counties, complete or partial returns from two others give Fawcett 9,873 and Sullivan 8,717, a plurality for Fawcett of 1,156 votes.

The six counties still to hear from all gave republican majorities last year, when the state went democratic, and are expected to increase Fawcett's plurality.

THE WAY OUT. Change of Food Brought Success and Happiness.

An ambitious but delicate girl, after failing to go through school on account of nervousness and hysteria, found in Grape-Nuts the only thing that seemed to build her up and furnish her the peace of health.

"From infancy," she says, "I have not been strong. Being ambitious to learn at my cost I finally got to the High School but soon had to abandon my studies on account of nervous prostration and hysteria.

"My food did not agree with me, I grew thin and despondent. I could not enjoy the simplest social affair for I suffered constantly from nervousness in spite of all sorts of medicines.

"This wretched condition continued until I was twenty-five, when I became interested in the letters of those who had cases like mine and who were being cured by eating Grape-Nuts.

"I had little faith, but procured a box and after the first dish I experienced a peculiar satisfied feeling that I had never gained from any ordinary food. I slept and rested better that night and in a few days began to grow stronger.
