Bloom Wins Fight With Kid Jensen

Chicago Man Knocks Out Milwaukee Fighter in Tenth Round of Contest.

Maurice Bloom of Chicago won the decision at the close of a ten-round boxing contest with Kid Jensen of Omaha at Stank's hall, South Omaha, Friday. Jack Ford was referee and gave the decision, which was well received by the greater part of the crowd...

Bloom was in fine condition and had the better of the action throughout his long reach and very shifty fighting. He began leading his left at the tap of the gong and landed straight arm jabs on Jensen's cheek throughout the entire fight. He shifted constantly, dancing about the ring and dodging the attacks of Jensen. Jensen tried to come to close quarters all the time, but Bloom kept him at arm's length most of the time...
