

Nebraska SUPREME COURT TO ADJOURN

Number of Important Decisions Will Be Handed Down Today.

WINDING UP THE CAMPAIGN

Chairman Hayward Will Call a Meeting of the Republican State Committee Within a Few Days.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Nov. 7.—(Special.)—When supreme court adjourns tomorrow evening it is very probable some important cases will have been decided.

That the decision in the case involving the legality of the Normal board act will come down there is every reason to believe. When this case is decided the board which is held to be legal will at once take steps to let the contract for the construction of a $50,000 wing at the Kearney Normal school and to take over the Wayne Normal school, for which the state made an appropriation.

Secretary Barnard has private interests which demand considerable of his time just now and he has made the statement that being secretary of the state committee takes considerable time, so that nothing of the amount of worry and hard work without appreciation.

A man under the influence of liquor rushed wildly into the police station last night and demanded the arrest of two other persons, who he said had robbed him of $5 after he had plotted them to a drink shop in dry Lincoln.

During Saturday night the opponents of the new line sawed down every pole. Now the Johnson County company claims was simply going to string a line through the town and into the country. The fight is on to settle its right to do this.

Coach Barnette Has Made Winners Out of New Men. FORMER STAR ON OMAHA TEAM

Helped Take State Championship Here and Then Went to State University, Where He Played Halfback.

PERU, Neb., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—Football fans are much gratified that the normal has developed a team out of almost entirely new material, and that it has won many honors this season. This is due in no small measure to Coach Barnette.

Coach Barnette started his football career in the Omaha High School. He played there for four years and was a star in every game. During his stay at the high school he was captain and an experienced man on the team. He showed his football ability by developing a new team which won the high school championship of the state and which held the normal team down to eleven points. In 1909 he played on the freshman team in the University of Nebraska and in the fall of 1908 he was a member of the team which won the state championship.

Newton said he has kept a daily journal of what he considers questionable work done at the asylum and he is in a position, he said, to make the people of the state rise up in their wrath and force the resignation of the head of the institution.

Newton brought a story to the state house this afternoon which he told to show the loose methods of the management of the asylum. Relatives of Henrietta Sapp of Pappilon, he said, deposited money with the institution to pay for the removal of her body to her home, she being at the time very sick. After her death, he said, she was buried at the asylum. Three or more days later the relatives heard of this and asked the institution for an explanation. The body was disinterred and sent to Pappilon.

Busy Practice at Madison

Coach Barry Putting Team Through Stiff Drill Daily. ODDS ALL FAVOR GOPHERS

Madison, Wis., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—Long hours of the hardest kind of scrimmage has been the portion of Wisconsin's football team during the last week. The scrubs alternated with the freshmen in the attack. And so fierce has been the fighting that many of the varsity regulars have had to leave the field temporarily. Boyle has a shattered nerve on his elbow that bothers him considerably. He has been in the practice only two nights this week. Buser, who has been shifted to right guard since Oshoff has returned to the field, still carries his eye in a sling from injuries received at the Northwestern game. Moll's nose is tender from the smash it got at the same time, but he has been in most of the plays at that. Fucik seems to have recovered from the effects of a wrenched shoulder and is in good condition.

From the coaching this week it is evident that Sid Anderson, who started at Evanston, will surely play against Minnesota. The fans have it hoped that he will take one of the half positions but no one can say as yet. Anderson is one of the most popular men on the team and everyone is hoping he will be given a chance. He started as quarterback in the first game of the season, but was set back with a bad attack of stage fright and the team miserably being taken out about the middle of the first half. His play at Northwestern, where he scored two of the four touchdowns, more than redeemed him.

Team Weak on Tackling. As a whole the work of the varsity this week has been disappointing though it is true that some improvement was noticed the last few days. The men seem lamentably weak on tackling. Even letting the freshmen backs run through them for yards. It took three days for the line to solve the Minnesota plays as taught to the freshmen by "Meg" Driver. Whether they will be able to stop the originals is a matter of much speculation here at present.

There is no lack of good coaching. Besides his regular assistant, Coach Leary, Coach Barry has the services of "Biddy" Rogers, "Blam" Anderson and Dr. Dean, all star ends of former Minnesota teams. John Messner, probably the greatest exponent of the forward pass the west has ever seen, is also expected to put in an appearance next week, and other alumni have signified their intention of coming out. Dr. McCarthy is on the field every night working on a football, his hobby is speed. He thinks any team that can't run off two plays a second ought to retire to the tall grass.

It is also admitted that the material is the best in years, but the men do not seem to play together the way they should. One week more remains to remedy this. It will be a trying week for coaches, players and student body. The one ray of hope in the local situation is that, with McGovern out of the game, little fear is felt of dropped-kicked goals. If the Gophers score they will have to push the ball all the way over. Coach Barry has the services of no dependable kicker. Anderson will probably be relied upon to do the punting, since Captain Wilce is still bothered with a stiff knee. Bets Favor Minnesota.

A few bets have been registered on the game. The present odds are 2 to 1 on Minnesota. Unless there is some marked improvement they will probably be 3 to 1 by the time the game is played. The odds expected even than was at the Chicago Wisconsin game last year. Extra bleachers are being erected to seat a total of 20,000 people.

Although most of the fans believe the Minnesota game will settle the western championship, there are a few hopefuls at Chicago who see a chance for a triple tie in case Wisconsin defeats the Gophers and is later worsted by the Maroons. Coach Vegg, however, does not think the Badgers have a chance against the Northwestern. It is felt here that Wisconsin will easily defeat them and deliver the outcome of the Minnesota game may be.

A monster game meeting for the Minnesota game will be held in the gymnasium Thursday night.

CRESTON, Ia., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—That Creston is to have a Young Men's Christian association organization and building in the near future is evidenced by the enthusiastic meeting held here Saturday night at the Baptist church. This meeting was for the purpose of launching the membership campaign, and was participated in by a large number of men and boys, who were highly interested. The committee met to plan the campaign for raising money for the building fund. The ten-day campaign for raising money reported at this meeting and all were of the opinion that if Lincoln and Fort Dodge and other cities could raise such large sums, Creston surely ought to be able to raise the money for the building. After the membership is secured then will come the campaign for the building fund. Prospects are exceedingly bright for a realization of the promoters' hopes.
