DEFENDING LAWYERS TALK

MacFarlane and Ficharty Open for Alleged Train Robbers.

ASSERT ALL ARE INNOCENT

Depositions Are Read and Father of Grigware Goes on Stand to Tell of His Son's Early Life.

The government rested its case against the alleged train robbers at 3:30 Monday afternoon.

Before this Court Arms company of Hartford told of the methods of packing arms for shipment from the factory to customers, and Postal Clerk Sears told further of the fragment of a piece of casting that had been shot away from the window of the postal car the night of the holdup by one of the bandits as he first looked out of the car window.

The torn letter that Bill Matthews was writing in the Buhl hotel at the time of his arrest, and which he sought to destroy, was read. It was very brief and was evidently written to some one in Omaha who Matthews had intended to send him copies of the Omaha papers.

Mr. MacFarlane, attorney for Grigware, Woods and Golden, then asked that certain of the government witnesses be retained for rebuttal.

Judge Munger said: "The government is not bound to keep all its witnesses here merely for further cross-examination. The government witnesses are discharged by the district attorney when the government is through with them. You should have asked for the retention of these witnesses before."

District Attorney Goss was of the opinion that a limit should be placed on the recall of the government witnesses.

Attorneys Outline Defense.

Mr. MacFarlane followed with the statement of what the defense proposes to prove. He began with an eulogy upon the character of Frank Grigware and a history of his life prior to the time he left Spokane early in the present year. He stated further that he would be able to prove by competent witnesses that Lawrence F. Golden was not a participant in the robbery, and that all other of his clients were guiltless of the crime charged against them. He intended that all of the accused men would be placed on the stand and would be able to give a truthful account of all their doings while in Omaha, thus completely clearing them from any guilt in the robbery of the Overland Limited on the night of May 22.

Mr. Ficharty, in behalf of his client, William Matthews, stated that evidence would be forthcoming clearing him from any participation in the holdup, either directly or indirectly, and that he would be further able to show that Matthews had but a brief acquaintance with any of the accused men. The initial testimony for the defense was the reading of depositions taken at Spokane affirming the good character of Grigware, while Mr. Goss read the cross-examinations taken in the same depositions at the same time. All of the depositions gave Grigware a fairly good reputation and were by a number of business men of Spokane, who had at various times employed Grigware since his boyhood, and covering a period up to about January 1 of the current year.

The cross-examinations did not materially

SOME HARD KNOCKS

Woman Gets Bid of "Coffee Heart."

The injurious action of Coffee on the heart of many persons is well known by physicians to be caused by caffeine. This is the drug found by chemists in coffee and tea.

A woman suffered a long time with severe heart trouble and finally her doctor told her she must give up coffee, as that was the principal cause of the trouble. She writes:

"My heart was so weak it could not do its work properly. My husband would sometimes have to carry me from the table, and it would seem that I would never breathe again."

The doctor told me that coffee was causing the weakness of my heart. He said I must stop it, but it seemed I could not give it up until I was down in bed with nervous prostration.

"For eleven weeks I lay there and suffered. Finally husband brought home some Postum and I put coffee and started new and right. Slowly I got well. Now I do not have any headaches, nor those spells with weak heart. We know it is Postum that helped me. The Dr. said the other day, 'I never thought you would be what you are.' I used to weigh 92 pounds and now I weigh 135."

"Postum has done much for me and I would not go back to coffee again for any money, for I believe it would kill me if I kept at it. Postum must be well boiled according to directions on package. It has a rich flavor and with cream is fine."

Read "The Road to Wellville" found in Postum. There's a Reason."

Never read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

GOVERNOR FOR NEW CAPITAL

Executive Thinks Next Legislature Should Make Big Appropriation.

THREE MILLIONS NOT TOO MUCH

Railway Commission Turns Down Report of Citizens Railway on Ground It is Manifestly Wrong.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Governor Shallenbarger believes the next legislature should take steps to secure a new capitol for Nebraska.

"The next legislature should make an appropriation to start the new building," said the governor. "We could secure a magnificent building for $3,000,000 and there is no reason why a portion of this amount should not be appropriated by the next legislature, value to the state."

"I am opposed to spending any $500,000 for a building to house the State Historical society when the state so badly needs a capitol. That is why I vetoed the appropriation for the historical society building. To my mind that historical society building is what Joe Cannon would call 'an ulcer on the body politics.' The society wants $25,000 this time, $50,000 the next time and so on. As a matter of fact, with the construction of a new capitol there could be made a place for all the records that the society will ever collect which will be of real value to the state."

"The time has certainly arrived for a new state house. This building has outlived its usefulness. It is too small, in bad condition, unsanitary and not worthy of the state."

Rowden Still "Boss."

Dave Rowden is the boss of the Soldiers' home at Milford. Colonel Dave says so himself, notwithstanding he had a matron over him who has his bull's eye three times when he heaved dishes at a cook. Some time ago one of the women employees complained to the governor that she had not received all the money due her from the commandant. Evidently the governor wrote to the commandant about the matter, as the answer from Colonel Dave this morning set out the following information: The woman got all the money that was due her. "When she says I am boss out here she says what is true. I am boss. I admit I swear sometimes, but no Jim crow woman or Jim crow man is going to run over me." The latter made a hit with the executive department, when Colonel Dave called on the governor this morning he was informed he was all right.

Railway Report Wrong.

The state railway commission has refused to accept the annual report of the Citizens' Street railway company filed November 2, because of grievous errors contained therein.

The report shows a net revenue for the period it covers of $7,280.41, while an investigation of the figures shows that in reality there is a deficit of $3,524.61.

The report shows the income from passengers paying fares has been $22,316.97, from passengers buying tickets $22,229.19, and from advertising $157.50. The officials of the company carried these earnings out to a total of $55,612.79 when the total should have been $48,557.89. This makes out the company to have been a losing concern rather than a money-maker.

Whether any stock was sold on the totals in the report the commission does not know at this time, but County Attorney Tyrrell has the figures and will use them in his suit against the merger of the two companies.

The report is signed by W. E. Sharp, president and J. H. Smith, treasurer. The railway commission will make a thorough investigation of the matter and Rate Clerk Powell is at work checking over the report to see if there are any more discrepancies. It is possible the result of the investigation will have a bearing on the litigation now pending against the two companies.

Money from Corporations.

Corporations have paid to the secretary of state under the occupation tax law a total of $6,470.96. Of this sum, $17,735.50 was paid without protest together with $10.40 penalties on this sum, $15,859.90 paid under protest as was $7.40 penalties.

W. H. Smith, secretary of the senate, has completed his journal and copies have been delivered to the secretary of state. The publication contains 1,773 pages, against 1,611 in the journal of two years ago. One of the interesting items in the journal that shows unfinished business was the resolution by Senator Ollis demanding an investigation of the statement in a newspaper that the senate railroad committee was subversive to the railroads. The journal shows that resolution was introduced and then went over one day, "objection having been made." There is no reference to that resolution. Mr. Ollis and his democratic henchmen in the senate waked up to the fact that they were dealing with a live wire and had the investigating committee ever met, the statement in the paper would have been proved by a statement by Senator Ollis himself.

It was to the effect that he desired the stock yards cut out of his physical valuation bill, because if that item remained in the bill the corporations would not permit it to pass the senate. Representative Taylor said about this resolution, "objection having been made." There is no reference to that resolution. Mr. Ollis and his democratic henchmen in the senate waked up to the fact that they were dealing with a live wire and had the investigating committee ever met, the statement in the paper would have been proved by a statement by Senator Ollis himself.

Newton went out to help Horace Bishop.

Servers Veins with Razor and Bleeds to Death Struggling with Guard.

NORFOLK, Neb., Nov. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Breaking away from attendants guarding him on a walk with other inmates, Martin Barrett, inmate at the Norfolk insane hospital, from Atkinson, rushed back to the dormitory, broke open a bureau drawer, seized a razor and cut his throat. An attendant followed him and tried to prevent the suicide, but Barrett, a big, powerful man, fought off the guard, and, later, when the attendant attempted to tie the severed veins, Barrett fought him and stood still again, bleeding to death in the scumming. The tragedy occurred Saturday, but was suppressed by the hospital authorities until today.

F. E. CARTER SHOOT HIMSELF

Arpaahoe Manager of Beatrice Creamery Company Ends Life.

ARAPAHOE, Neb., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—F. E. Carter, one of the most popular business men in Arpaahoe committed suicide this morning by shooting himself. The motive for the deed is thought to have been dependency over financial and personal affairs. He left no word to explain his rash act.

Carter was manager of the Beatrice Creamery company at this place for several years. For several days he has been despondent. The deed was done while his wife was at a neighbor's, she discovering the body in an unused upstairs room shortly after noon.

Carter left the house early in the morning and it was not known when he returned. His wife and friends were looking for him when his body was found. He had been married three years and leaves a wife and two children. He was a member of the A. O. U. W. lodge here and they will conduct the funeral.

His aged parents and nine older brothers and sisters live in Ontario. One sister lives here.

Doctor Killed Making a Call; Auto Turns Over

Dr. E. T. Rickard Found Dead Under Car at Bottom of Bank.

WEeping WATER, Neb., Nov. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Dr. Edward T. Rickard was killed this morning about 1:30 o'clock while making a call in the country. The doctor started in his automobile and when out about a mile and a half the auto ran off a bank, turned turtle and the doctor was caught underneath. His body was not discovered until 6:30 this morning, when Theodore Davis, a farmer, was going out to the field. Appearance indicates that the doctor was instantly killed, as the machine lay on its back and the doctor's head was much bruised. Dr. Rickard had the best practice in the town. He was very popular, was mayor of the town a few years ago, had served in other capacities and was a leading member in the Methodist Episcopal church. He leaves a wife and two sons, one 21 years and one 6 months old. He was 45 years old. The body was brought to town and placed in the E. Ratvans & Co. undertaking room.

Pole Line Set Despite Court

Workmen Extend Telephone Wires Through Crab Orchard in Darkness of Night.

CRAb ORCHARD, Neb., Nov. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—The latest development in the telephone fight here came to light this morning when people awoke and saw the extension of telephone poles with strung extending clear through the town. The work was done in spite of an injunction issued Saturday by the district court at Tecumseh. Workmen put to work after midnight removed the stumps of the poles sawed down by the city authorities Saturday and reset the line with new poles.

The injunction was issued against the Johnson County Home Telephone company, but the manager of that company asserts it had nothing to do with the setting of the poles. He asserts the work was done by the Automatic Telephone company of Lincoln, which was not named in the injunction and that the home company at no time has had anything to do with the building of the line.

Some time ago a local telephone company located here sold out to the Bell company and the Johnson County company saw an opportunity to work in an independent line, Saturday morning the men started to set poles, but were stopped by Alexander Spencer, village president of Crab Orchard. He went to Tecumseh to get a restraining order from the court, and while he was gone twenty-five poles were set.

During Saturday night the opponents of the new line sawed down every pole.

NANCE COUNTY MAN ASSAULTED

Found by Neighbors Unconscious, but Will Not Die.

FULLERTON, Neb., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Wednesday night Sherman Baker, a farmer living in the western part of the county, left town for home about five o'clock. About eleven o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Hirst, a neighbor of his, living about one and one-half miles from his home were awakened by groans and upon investigation found Baker mangled, bleeding and unconscious at their door and his team in the yard securely tied.

About two o'clock in the morning Al Moore, Herman Aye, Carl Carlson and Frank Miller appeared and gave to Hirst Baker's gun, saying he took it from him as he had tried to shoot him. Baker regained consciousness about noon Thursday and said that when nearing his home his team stopped and upon getting out of the wagon he found that a gate usually standing open was closed and securely wired. Willis endeavoring to loosen the wire he was struck in the back of the head with a hammer. He attempted to crawl under the fence to escape but was pulled back, his clothes being badly cut in the barbed wire and he was beaten until he became unconscious. Moore, Aye, Carlson and Miller have been arrested and placed under bonds to appear on the eleventh inst. for a preliminary hearing. Ed Burke of the firm of Kent & Burke (lumber and cattle dealers) became surety for Al. Baker and these men have been having trouble for sometime ever trespassing on each other. It is thought there may be another man engaged in the affair. Baker has regained consciousness and it is thought he will recover.

BEAVER CITY, Neb., Nov. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—The lifeless body of Doctor Russell, an old man 75 years of age, was found last evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. Anderson, near Beaver City, with whom he has lived. The family had been absent at a neighbor's during the afternoon and on their return in the evening the body was lying on a bed dressed. Death had evidently occurred from natural causes and the coroner's inquest returned a verdict to that effect.

Half-Minute Store-Talk

This is one of the very few stores in Omaha where one man's money will buy as much as another's. We make no discrimination between total strangers and our most intimate friends. Our merchandise is bought right and it is priced right. We don't do fancy business in order to get on the safe side if some one insists on a price-concession. The following incident will illustrate how fair our methods are to all. A man bought a suit here the other day. He said: "Last spring I went to a looking for a suit. This one I have on was priced at $21.50. I hesitated. I made reference to who I was and the salesman said I could buy the suit for $20.00 and I felt for it. But I was suspicious of that store afterwards. I've just bought a better suit here at $18.00 with my specially priced spring suit."

COOPER'S FOLLOWERS GIVE REASON FOR THEIR BELIEF

With a theory that human health is dependent on the stomach and with a medicine which he says proves this theory, L. T. Cooper, has built up an immense following during the past year.

Cooper has visited most of the leading cities of the country, and in each city has aroused a storm of discussion about his beliefs and medicine. Wherever he has gone, people have called upon him by thousands, and his preparation has sold in immense quantities.

The sale of this medicine has now spread over the entire country, and is growing enormously each year. In view of this, the following statement from Mrs. Nettie C. Harris, living at 15 E. South Carolina Avenue, Atlantic City, N. J., with reference to her recent recovery from a severe affliction, will be of uncommon interest. Mrs. Harris says:

"For the past five years I have been a sufferer from acute indigestion, nervousness, constipation and hemorrhoids. On December 22nd, 1906, my husband, thinking I might at any time die in one of the spells of indigestion took me to London, Ohio, in order that I might be near my relatives. While there I had twenty-seven attacks, in each of which my life was despaired of by the doctors."

"Finding that the change had not been beneficial, and that he could afford me no relief, my physician advised us to return to the coast. I could find nothing that would help me, and almost gave up in despair. On reading in our daily papers of Cooper's New Discovery, I sent for a bottle in order to try it.

"Before taking half of the first bottle, I felt better. Believing it was doing me good, I continued taking it. I am now on the fourth bottle, and am improving rapidly. I can now eat food that I have not been able to eat for years without bringing on one of those terrible spells of indigestion.

"I have also been a great sufferer for many years from aching in my lower limbs, caused by nervousness and preventing me from sleeping, but I have had no distress in that way for the past few weeks, for which I give the New Discovery credit. The hemorrhoids, which were very distressing, have not troubled me since using the Cooper medicine.

"I feel so much better in every way that I am confident this medicine will completely restore me to good health. Words fail to express my gratitude for the benefit I have thus far received. I consider it marvelous."

Cooper's New Discovery can be obtained from all druggists.
