CONCussions MILE AWAY

From the son of one of the missing miners, a young man named John Reid, the railroad president heard that a concussion of the earth had been felt by farmers half a mile south of the main shaft.

UNLIMITED FREEDOM DANGEROUS

"These people demand unlimited freedom of the press, teaching and speech, but this cannot be granted because of the things they lead to. No government could grant these things and live. It is apt to bring about such an upheaval in Europe that they will have military government."

LIST OF MISSING GROWS

The list of the missing was compiled today in the offices of the mining company and it reached the astounding total of 383, including the dead whose charred bodies were taken from the burning cage Saturday afternoon. It was declared to be probable that this list might be increased. One hundred and seventy men who entered the mine Saturday morning have been accounted for. This company had accounts of tracers who work was announced Saturday night and at nightfall the company officials admitted that the number of men in the mine was greater than they had at first believed possible.

AMONG THE SALVING ARE MANY AMERICANS

Who have lived for years and reared their families in the mining section of Illinois are often the scene of terrific tragedy. Though the majority of those who never may be found alive are foreign-born, yet all had their homes here or in the surrounding towns and villages and the grief over their probable fate has cast a pall over the community.

CHERRY TODAY HELD THOUSANDS OF PERSONS

They came with sad faces. Many, especially the women whose husbands are believed to have been buried alive, and the children who will be fatherless were weeping and moaning in the agony of their suspense in the mine's section. The St. Paul mine was surrounded by an almost uncontrollable mob.

FOREIGNERS DEAD IN FIRE

Three Unidentified Men Burn and Five Others Severely Injured in Pittsburgh Blaze.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 14.—Three unidentified men, all foreigners, are dead; five others are seriously injured and twelve men and women are suffering from bruises and shock, the result of an early morning fire in a lodging house on the river front today.

THE DRESS OF THE AMERICAN WOMAN IS LITTLE LESS THAN BARBAROUS

in the opinion of Baroness Shibusawa, wife of the baron who dictates to the Wall Street of Tokio. In her remarks on the subject, she said that she brought the honorary commission to Omaha the baroness spent the day in quiet retirement, while her husband and the business men in the party were busy with Omaha's industries. The other women of the party were occupied with social functions, but the baroness preferred a day of rest after the strenuous days that have just past.

CLAD IN A STRIKINGLY BEAUTIFUL KIMONO

which no mere man dare attempt to describe Baroness Shibusawa sat watching the rain beat on the car window. The American woman's garb, she talked in a low, soft voice, which rendered the strange accents of her language peculiarly pleasing. Her niece and companion, Miss Takamashi, acts as interpreter for the baroness.

HOW MUCH MORE COMFORTABLE, AND I THINK BEAUTIFUL, TOO, IS THE NATIVE GARB OF THE JAPANESE,

said the baroness. "The

JAPANESE WOMAN DOES NOT DEPEND ON THE QUESTIONABLE AID OF ARTIFICIALITY FOR WHAT SHE MAY CLAIM IN HER FLOWING

gowns she may, unhampered by stays and strings, display her torso. There is a natural beauty. She need not look as though 'made up' for the occasion.

"OH, THESE AMERICAN GIRLS THAT I HAVE SEEN! THEIR WAIST LINE SEEMS TO BE JOURNEYS AWAY. NOW IT IS UP AND THEN AGAIN IT IS DOWN."

"Why must the mode always be changed? Surely the rose blooms just the same every season and no one would say that the sweet blossom should have petals with a new curve or pattern."

THE BARONESS WAS IN A PLEASANT GOOD HUMOR

despite her rearrangement of the American woman's garb. She talked in a low, soft voice, which rendered the strange accents of her language peculiarly pleasing. Her niece and companion, Miss Takamashi, acts as interpreter for the baroness.

THE CITY OF LINCOLN INTENDS TO BE PREPARED WITH A NEW CHARTER FOR THE CONSIDERATION of the next legislature and to that end the mayor has already appointed a committee to draft the instrument. The committee is to get busy at once. When it has completed its work, then the people will have ample time to discuss the measure and reject or accept it before the legislature meets.
