

ONE NAME FOR TWOLITIGANTS

San Luis Company Fights San Luis Company Over Land.

ONE OF MAINE, OTHER NEBRASKA

Both Lay Claim to Land in Mexico Bought from Ambassador Thompson—Temporary Restraining Order.

The San Luis Land and Cattle company is suing the San Luis Land and Cattle company in federal court, at least has obtained a temporary injunction to restrain it from a meeting of its directors and officers to transact business.

All of which means that a company of this name incorporated under the laws of Maine and another company of this name incorporated under the laws of Nebraska are thus entangled over a piece of land in Mexico, which Ambassador D. E. Thompson sold to the Maine company.

The hearing on the application for a permanent injunction will be held November 22.

The suit grows out of a peculiar complication of affairs. It is alleged in the petition that prior to the organization of the Nebraska company in 1906, an agreement was entered into by J. P. Ravenscroft, M. J. Isler, and the defendants, W. N. Smith, W. N. Robinson and D. O. Eldredge, providing for the incorporation of the San Luis Land & Cattle Co., with a capital stock of $25,000 in shares of $50 each.

At a meeting of the Maine company in August, 1906, Robinson, Eldredge and Smith, then directors of the Maine company, resigned as directors of the company and were not re-elected.

Smith afterwards went to Mexico and, on behalf of the Maine company, acted as manager of the property on the direction of that duty by the Maine company on January 23, 1907, but refused to give possession, claiming that he was in possession of the property, as president of the Nebraska company. He denied that the Maine company had any right to the possession of the property or any of its goods or chattels.

It now appears that the Nebraska company had issued a call for the meeting of its directors to be held in Omaha at the Paxton hotel at 10 a. m. Tuesday.

D. M. Vinohaler appears for the Maine company, which lays claim to the same property, and in the petition alleges that the interests of the Maine company will be jeopardized by such meeting and asks that the Nebraska company shall not be permitted to hold meetings for the transaction of business until the case can be heard upon its merits.

DIAZ BAND IS NOW ENROUTE

Mexican Musicians Who Will Play at Corn Show Start from Monterey.

The famous Mexican band, engaged to play at the National Corn exposition in December, has just left Monterey, Mex., for Chicago, in charge of James Marks, traveling passenger agent for the Rock Island line. From Monterey to San Antonio, Tex., the musicians are carried on a special train, traveling the remainder of the way in special cars.

The band fills an engagement in Chicago at the United States Land and Irrigation congress from November 20 to December 4. On that date, F. P. Rutherford and G. S. Pentecost of the local Rock Island office, will go to the Windy City to accompany the band to Omaha.

CHILD LABOR INSPECTOR HERE

Miss Mattie Allen of Lincoln Will Address Associated Charities Meeting.

Miss Mattie Allen of Lincoln, a state child labor inspector will make an address at the regular monthly conference of the Associated Charities and Affiliated Organizations which will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the council chamber of the city hall. Miss Allen will speak upon "The Delinquent Child and Her Government."

The meeting is in charge of the State Child and Labor committee. It was arranged at Lincoln last spring by Miss Ida V. Jontz of the Associated Charities that the child labor committee should take the program at one of the monthly conferences.
