If you think that perfect fitting and well made clothes cannot be made to order at moderate prices—call at my new shop and experiment at my expense.

If the garments I cut and make to your measure do not fit and satisfy you in every way, you need not accept them or pay one penny—I assume the loss, not you. I could little afford to make this statement if I did not have a force of expert Omaha journeymen tailors to back me up and make good.

My line of winter woollens includes all the new oyster greys and fancy blues.

At $25 to $40, my suits and overcoats to order are the best values ever offered. My low rent does not force me to rob you to pay the landlord.

Nebraska EXPRESS COMPANY DOES WELL

Report of Adams Organization Shows Little Loss.

IN SPITE OF CUT IN RATES

Colonel J. H. Ager's Name Appears on Frank List of Express Company—Home Given as in Omaha.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Nov. 18.—(Special.)—The annual report of the Adams Express company, filed with the State Railway commission, covering the year ending June 30, 1909, shows the company had done fairly well in Nebraska, considering the operation of the Sibley law. Its total income in Nebraska for intra-state business for the year amounted to $241,112, while its expenses amounted to $221,453. The total interstate and intrastate business forwarded and received amounted to $1,461,250. The company employs in Nebraska 457 officers and helpers, including agents working on commission.

Last of Local School Bonds.

The state auditor ordered Omaha school bonds to the amount of $100,000. This is the last batch of an issue of $300,000.

Another Investigation Promised.

The State Board of Public Lands and Buildings will be called upon tomorrow to investigate the Soldiers' home at Milford.

Commandant Rowden has fired Engineer Myers and Mr. Myers will appear before the board tomorrow and ask that certain things be investigated. He has announced that he is able to prove that the home has not been conducted properly and he will ask the board to give him a chance to make good on his charges against Colonel Rowden.

Soldier Remembers State.

Colonel Dave Rowden, commander of the Soldiers' Home at Milford, has enriched the cash fund of the home by a deposit of $405, which was given to him by A. A. Sharkey, a member of the home, who died Monday. According to Colonel Dave, Sharkey offered him the money, saying he had no relatives or heirs, and he wanted the commander to have it. Colonel Dave said he said, "No, sir, let the money go to the state. You have been furnished a home here for the last ten years by the state, and if you have any money to give let the state have it. I deserve it not." And so Colonel Dave brought the money to Lincoln and it is now a part of the cash fund of the institution.

Government to Send Money.

The governor has received a communication from Washington to the effect that the Treasury department will shortly send out a draft for $2,837.34, due to the state in the settlement of the Nebraska national forestry affairs.

Ager's Name Appears.

One of the surprises of the day was the name of J. H. Ager on the frank list of the Adams Express company filed with the State Railway commission today. The frank was given Colonel Ager, the report said, because he was a special agent of the Burlington. It was noted that Colonel Ager lives on a good sized farm in the suburbs of Lincoln and comes to town only once or twice a year so far as the general public knows, it was generally accepted as true that he had retired from active railroad work. Incidentally Colonel Ager's residence is at Omaha. Ager, Lee W. Sprattlin also appeared as a frankholder, because he is listed as a special agent of the Burlington. Neither frank is good locally in Nebraska.

Boy Killed by Accident.

HASTINGS, Neb., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—The 2-year-old son of James Ferguson, eleven miles southwest of Hastings, was instantly killed by the accidental discharge of a shotgun yesterday morning. While he was thus talking the man accidentally pulled the trigger and the gun was discharged, tearing the top of the boy's head entirely away.

Nebraska Body of Blackwood Found in Brush

Calhoun Farmer Falls Over Steep Cliff and Lies Dead Several Days Before Recovered.

CALHOUN, Neb., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—The body of William Blackwood has been found. It lay in a mass of tangled brush over a precipitous cliff, 200 yards northwest of his farm, near Calhoun. Evidently he had simply fallen over and the distance of the fall was sufficient to kill. At least this is the only theory of death advanced. His body was all but concealed from view in the brush. It was frozen, for he had been there several days.

ENGINE EXPLODES WHILE LEAVING LINCOLN YARDS

Fireman C. A. Meecham Killed and Engineer Pierce Perhaps Fatally Injured as Result.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 18.—The explosion of Burlington engine No. 286, pulling a forty-car extra freight west in the Lincoln yards caused the death of Fireman C. A. Meecham at 2:45 this afternoon and the serious injury of Engineer George Pierce and brakeman Upton. The injured engineer may die. The train was beginning to pick up its speed at the extreme western limit of the local yards when the explosion occurred. The boiler was thrown ahead of the engine drivers and trucks and the impact of the exploded boiler broke the rails ahead of the engine. The tender remained standing on the track and none of the cars were wrecked.

RESCUE HERMIT FROM STORM

Old Man Found Sick and Alone in Cabin Near Kearney.

KEARNEY, Neb., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—County Clerk E. A. Miller and Commissioner Charles Krassman had a rather unpleasant and stormy day today as they performed Monday afternoon that will perhaps be remembered by the name. An old hermit by the name of Larson has lived along the banks of the Platte river for years and has won his livelihood by a little truck gardening in the summer and odd jobs in the winter. Last season he exploded a boiler on an island in the Platte river and built himself a hut. He has never been had enough off to apply for aims at the court house, but had done a few odd jobs there. Miller and Krassman had missed him of late and during the storm Monday the two wondered in what corner he was in, and why he had not made his appearance.

Nebraska DUNN BENDS KNEE TO COURT

Belligerent Lawyer Pleads for Chance to Apologize.

SENDS CONNELL AS AN ENVOY

City Attorney Burnam Also Tells Court His Deputy is Now in Spirit to Apologize and Get Right.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—L. J. Dunn is sorry now. He wants to be reinstated as a practicing lawyer in Nebraska and he has sent word to the supreme court that he is ready and willing and anxious to apologize.

In his behalf W. J. Connell this morning filed a motion in the court asking that Mr. Dunn be permitted to apologize and be reinstated. In support of his motion Mr. Connell presented to each of the judges a copy of a brief which he had prepared for his own use when he thought Judge Sutton was going to disbar him. Instead Judge Sutton, he said, had looked up the law and found it was beyond his jurisdiction to do this, and he was simply fined, so the briefs were never used. Connell told the court he usually kept a bunch of this literature on hand for emergencies.

The Connell brief argues that contempt proceedings and disbarment proceedings are entirely separate and distinct. The power of a court to punish for contempt committed in its presence is summary and inherent. The power to disbar an attorney from practice is special and limited and cannot be exercised except upon notice and a hearing. The right of the court, he said, was limited to punishment by fine or imprisonment in such cases. City Attorney Harry E. Burnam appeared with Mr. Connell and informed the court that Dunn was sorry it all happened and was in the spirit to apologize and get right with the judges.

That the procedure taken by Dunn did not make a hit with the court was painfully apparent when Connell had finished his plea. The motion asked the court to vacate the order disbarring Dunn and then after the order was annulled permit Dunn to appear and apologize.

SCHOOL BONDS ARE CARRIED

Judge Hostetter Holds Them Valid at Lexington.

LEXINGTON, Neb., Nov. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—Judge Hostetter of the district court today gave a decision in favor of the school house bond proposition, in which a temporary restraining order had heretofore been granted by the court upon the application of Ira W. Olive and others. Two months ago bonds in the sum of $50,000 for two new school houses carried by a small majority. A petition was then filed in the district court alleging that several of the votes in favor of the bonds had been cast by illegal voters. A recount of the votes was had in this term of court, and by a majority of one vote the bonds were declared carried.

King of Memphis and eleven other stockholders from various portions of the country are plaintiffs and seventy-three persons who had subscribed for stock are defendants.
