

The Part You Don't See

in Clothes is the most important.

Style, fit, service and value depend on the quality of inside materials and character of inside tailoring.

The "inside" or foundation of Suits, Raincoats and Overcoats made by Rosenwald & Weil of Chicago are composed of the best hair cloth, canvas and felt, the whole being skillfully shaped by hand.

"R&W" Clothes maintain their original style and shape because the inside work is as honestly executed as the outside.

Thousands of men each season take advantage of "R&W" thoroughness.

The best time to start wearing "R&W" Clothes is now.

EDUCATIONAL WORK A FEATURE
Acting Secretary Pierson of Y. M. C. A. Tells of Plans.

Arrangements are now being perfected by Acting Secretary Pierson to make the educational department one of the leading features after the opening of the new Young Men's Christian association building the beginning of next month. Indications are the classes will be well attended and prove popular among the boys and young men of the city.

Mr. Pierson is taking a particular interest in this department of the association work and announced yesterday that he is now prepared to furnish full schedules, to arrange courses and to have fees and conditions. His office hours in the association building are from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., and he will be glad to furnish information to any young man desiring to enter one or more of the classes.

A feature of the educational work will be a course of lectures by prominent men. With the exception of the instructors, the vocal music and public speaking, all the teachers for the various branches have been selected for this department.

Following is a list of the courses to be taught and the names of the instructors:

Electricity—For beginners and those already engaged in electrical pursuits. Instructor, Prof. Thomas, high school.

Public Speaking—Classes for beginners and those advanced in these lines. Instructors, Mr. Fred K. Cox and E. P. Schoeniger.

Bookkeeping—Complete course and individual instruction. Instructor, E. P. Miller.

Business Law—including all subjects useful to men in the trades and in business. Instructor, Fred Juckhoff, A. M., Western Iowa college.

English—Including rhetoric and orthography. Instructor, W. A. Brindley, A. M.

Penmanship—Instructor, E. P. Miller, M. A.

Vocal Music—instructor to be appointed.

The old saying that there is always room for one more in a street car could have almost been applied to the fruit exposition at the Auditorium last night. While there were a few of the reserved seats in the gallery vacant, there was little room to spare downstairs in the main hall or in the annex. This means there was a big crowd, and the management of the big show felt greatly encouraged. If the weather man will keep on his good behavior there is nothing from this on to prevent the show being the success that it deserves.

The morning attendance was good and that in the afternoon broke the afternoon record so far for the week.
"This is all right," declared President W. S. Keeline last night as he surveyed the surging crowd from a vantage point in the balcony. If the weather had not been against us the first two days this year's show would have been a record breaker. As it is, if the weather keeps as good as it has been today, things will turn out all right. The people of Council Bluffs cannot fail to appreciate this splendid attraction we are offering this year in the Liberatori band. Look at these balconies tonight. There are only a few vacant seats. I hope it will be like this the rest of the week. Does Council Bluffs want to keep this show here? Look at the crowd here tonight. St. Joseph or St. Paul have another guess coming if they think they can get this away from us. Just watch our smoke next Saturday."

Liberati's Concerts.

The famous Liberatori band is undoubtedly a big drawing card and the concerts are becoming daily more popular. Yesterday afternoon, in honor of General Grenville M. Dodge, Signor Liberatori played a musical medley entitled "War Memories," which was enthusiastically received. In the evening the program opened with the Iowa march composed by Liberatori and souvenir copies of this piece were distributed among the women present.

The exhibit of apples and other fruits is a revelation to those who visit the exposition for the first time. Iowa is well known for the fore with its exhibit and attracts much attention. The Mincor exhibit from Hamburg is a sure enough refutation of the claim made by some that Iowa cannot produce apples equal to the fruit raised in Idaho, Washington and other fancy apple producing states. Experts say no finer specimens have been shown anywhere than the choice displays from the Mincor. ### Tales of Slugging

Nonunionists and Stories of Arson

Sensational Testimony in Trial of Alleged Dynamiters in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—The slugging of non-union men, the setting on fire of buildings because union carpenters were not employed upon them and the preparing of dynamite bombs were told of today in the testimony of Henry Verra, the principal witness for the prosecution, in the trial of Vincent and Joseph Altman, who were indicted in connection with a bomb explosion that partially wrecked the mills of the Standard Sash and Door company in May, 1908. It was Verra's confession that caused the arrest and indictment of the Altman brothers.

Verra first testified that he had been hired by Vincent Altman as a "slugger" and that he received $5 each for several jobs of "slugging." He then told of burning a garage with Vincent Altman because nonunion carpenters were doing work on the building. Verra then told of setting fire to a building owned by a policeman for the same reason. Another building at Harvey, Ill., was also set fire, according to Verra.

"Several months later, in April, 1908, I met Vincent Altman in a saloon," continued Verra. "He showed me three sticks of dynamite and said he was going to blow up some place. I was afraid of dynamite and said I would not go."

"Later I met him and he told me that he wanted to blow up the Standard Sash and Door company's plant. I said I would not."

Then Verra told of making a bomb at Altman's house.

"Vincent and Joseph Altman were there," Verra testified. "The bomb was made by winding seven eight-inch dynamite sticks with a fuse and inserting a cap in the center of it. The cap was reached by a long tape that was to be lighted to explode it."

Court Lenient with McKay

Boy Bandit May Be Returned to Jacksonville to Juvenile Court.

LAWRENCE, Kan., Nov. 18.—Willie McKay, the 15-year-old Jacksonville, Fla., bandit, was arraigned before Judge Means of the juvenile court here today, charged with robbing the Eudora State bank in company with Bullock.

Young McKay repeated to the court the confession he made following his arrest, to which he added the declaration that Bullock had threatened to kill him if he deserted.

"I would rather have been killed myself than to have killed someone else," said the youthful prisoner.

Fred Starr, the bank cashier whom Bullock shot in the jaw, appealed to the court for leniency for McKay, who, Starr said, wanted to go to his home when he (Starr) entered the bank, and he added it was his opinion that Bullock had not really intended to shoot him.

Judge Means finally continued the investigation indefinitely, until he could hear whether or not Jacksonville has a juvenile court. If the Florida city has such an institution the court intimated that he would turn McKay over to it.

In the meantime McKay was returned to the local jail, where he became a trusty.

CARROL, SHORES AND HARRIS COME FROM SEATTLE

Men Accused of Being Implicated in Mahray Episode Brought from West.

Old Marshall, alias Joe Carroll, of wrestling fame; Bert Shores, alias Bert Warner, and Winn S. Harris, who is well known to Omaha last night as alleged members of the Mahray gang who have been fleeing from Seattle, Wash., accompanied by Deputy United States Marshal Fred M. Latta and a number of special guards.

Harris was in charge of a grand jury in Council Bluffs on a charge of having been implicated with Cavanaugh in a fake wrestling match in New Orleans in which the Mike was beat out of $35,000.

Marsh and Shores have been indicted grand jury in Omaha, but will be taken to Council Bluffs to appear in court with Harris.

The three men have been at large for several months, but were apprehended in Seattle and brought here. The men will be taken to Council Bluffs this morning.

The deputy marshal was accompanied by Rev. Marvitt C. Foster and George Bergerstrom, who acted as guards. The prisoners refused to be interviewed and would say nothing in the presence of newspaper men.

ADOLPH SCHMIDT LOSES SIGHT IN STRANGE WAY

Unidentified Person Throws Ammonia in Eyes While at Bar—Robbery Not Motive.

After he ordered a drink in a saloon in Omaha, the name of which he cannot recall, concentrated ammonia was thrown in the eyes of Adolph Schmidt, 60 years old, and he was suddenly stricken blind. Mr. Schmidt came to Omaha from Lincoln three days ago.

After being served some unidentified person shot the ammonia in his eyes with an ammonia gun.

Four or five cases of this character occurred about a year ago, but the police have been unable to capture the perpetrators because the victims are suddenly blind and could not describe their assailants.

Record Price for Young Beef Goes to Central City Man.

RESULT OF BREEDING UP HEED

Returns Come First Year in Payment of $7.05 a Hundred—Campbell-Behnke Wedding—Church Fair.

Stock breeders about the yards Wednesday were given an object lesson in well bred stock when Alexander MacQueen of Silver Creek topped the beef market with thirty-six head of calves 1 year old. He got $7.65, which is counted a record price for young beef. These calves were raised on his farm near Silver Creek and were about half steers and half heifers. The calves represented the result of breeding seen-August stock.

The results began to show the first year and at present many of his cattle were counted thoroughbred, but not pedigreed.

In feeding these calves he gave them a ration of bran, shorts and corn as soon as they were weaned and pastured them in clover. The ration of grain was made short, as to not no strain on the digestive organs of the calves. They thrived from the start and when put on the market weighed close to 1,000 pounds.

The storm of the first of the week is still having its effect on the live stock receipts. Feeders are not as plentiful as expected and the cattlemen are buying receipts all shipments. A nice bunch of feeders sold at $2.30 yesterday.

Moore-Behnke Wedding.

Thomas Moore and Miss Florence Behnke were married Wednesday morning at St. Bridget's church. The ceremony was performed by Father O'Callahan in the presence of a large number of guests. Miss Ann Parks acted as bridesmaid and Tom Larkin as best man. A reception was given last evening at the residence of A. R. Bohmke, 1613 North Twenty-sixth.

Scores of guests attended this function and showered congratulations and presents on the bride and groom. Both young people are well known in South Omaha. Mr. Moore is employed at the Cudahy plant. They will make their home in South Omaha.
