Workman Gets Verdict Against Swift—

Stephen L. Brown is awarded $2,75 by a jury in district court which heard his suit against Swift and Company. Brown was a workman in the South Omaha plant and had his hand crushed by a truck. The jury went out at noon Monday and returned a sealed verdict at 10 p. m.

Pictures for River Congress—Dr. J.

Alexander Miller of Omaha has offered his large collection of Missouri river boat pictures as an exhibit during the meeting of the Missouri River Navigation congress in Omaha December 14, 15 and 16. He has a collection of over 200 photographs of boats which have run on the Missouri, some of which were taken more than twenty years

Those Daughter Before Wife—Charles

C. Logan of Florence has filed an answer and cross bill to the petition for divorce which was entered in district court by Mrs.

Minnie S. Logan. Logan admits that he and his 15-year-old daughter did leave the home, but says it was only after Mrs.

Logan had given him his choice between himself and Logan's daughter, Mrs. Logan's step-daughter.

Turkeys for the Jail Birds—Lieutenant of Police Hayes has given out information which should be cheering news to prisoners in the city jail and which may have a tendency to crowd that bastile over Thursday. It is to the effect that on Thursday, Thanksgiving day, turkey, "with all the trimmings," will be served. Preparations for the annual turkey dinner for the prisoners is now under way and if they fall to get their fill Thursday it will be because they are unequal.

Repairing Burned Jail—A force of men is engaged in repairing repairs to the barn and garage at police headquarters, gutted by last Friday night's explosion and fire.

The sum of $1,600, appropriated for the work, is believed to be sufficient for the time being. The emergency wagon patrol, stored in one of the fire stations at the time of the fire, has been brought to the police station and is ready for use. Until the new autos are bought the Drummond agency will serve as a patrol.

Barbers' Case Goes Over to Friday—The examination of the barbers, against whom complaints were recently sworn out by D.

M. Copas, charging them with breaking the Sabbath, set for Tuesday. In police court, was postponed until Friday. It was announced that the barbers would not dispute their being open on the dates alleged, in fact, that point would be conceded, but they proposed to raise a point of law. All of the barbers and witnesses were in court ready for trial in case it was decided to go ahead. The witnesses were notified it would not be necessary for them to appear Friday, as the indications are no testimony will be taken.

Commercial Club Diners—With W. G. W.

One crowded house of excitement

Statutes Man Who Shot Up Town of Millard

One glorious, crowded hour of life is enough for James Hansen, who upset the calm of Sunday at Millard by firing off a revolver on a public street just when pic-nickers were coming home from church with thoughts of the sermon and of dinner. In county court Judge Leslie found Hansen guilty of having a concealed weapon and fined him $10. Hansen had only $2.15 and has gone to jail. He told the court he would sell his revolver if he could and appropriate the proceeds to help pay his fine.

SONS AND DAUGHTERS TO DINE

Arrangements Complete for Celebration of Yorktown Anniversary.

SOCIETIES TO MEET TOGETHER

Mrs. Drayton Bushnell, Vice President General Daughters of American Revolution, among those to respond to toasts.

Arrangements for the dinner to be given at the Rome hotel Tuesday evening, November 30, in celebration of the 127th anniversary of the recognition of Great Britain of American independence, have been practically completed.

Several hundred invitations have been sent out to the Sons of the American Revolution and Daughters of the American Revolution throughout the state and many acceptances have been received.

The invited guests that those expect ing to attend the dinner send in their acceptances as early as practicable to John E. Flack, president of the City National Bank, Omaha.

A telegram was received from Mrs. General Frank Wheaton at Denver this morning announcing her intention to be present.

The program of toasts so far as arranged includes:

"The Daughters of the American Revolution," Mrs. Drayton Bushnell, vice president general, Daughters of the American Revolution.

"The President of the United States," General Charles F. Anderson.

"Yorktown and the United States of Today," John L. Webster.

"American Future," Rev. Frank L. Loveland.

The dinner is given under the joint auspices of the state organizations of the Sons and the Daughters of the American Revolution, and promises to be the most elaborate event of its kind ever held in the state.

YORKTOWN CLOCK TO BE FEATURE.

A notable feature will be the presence of the old colonial clock which has been in the possession of the Peters family since 1710, and which was at Petersburg, Va.

during negotiations relating to the disposition of the captured British forces at Yorktown. It is believed that it was keeping good time in the room where these negotiations were pending, there being present at the time General Washington, De Rochambeau, De Grose, Acting Secretary of War Richard Peters and Lord Cornwallis and other British officers. The final details of the disposition of the captured British troops were consummated at Petersburg, Va., a few days after the surrender.

The following committee have charge of the affair:

General Committee—Mrs. Oscar S. Ward, Lincoln; Mrs. Frank D. Peters, of the American Revolution; Mrs. John R. Webster, Lincoln; Mrs. W. D. Fitzgerald, Lincoln; Mrs. Constance H. Loveland, Lincoln; Mrs. Mary H. Henderick, Omaha, president Nebraska Society Sons of the American Revolution; Paul W. Kuhns, Omaha; John F. Flack, Omaha; William H. McCord, Omaha; Frank J. O'Neil, Omaha.

Reception Committee—Mrs. C. B. Letton, Lincoln; Mrs. A. K. Gault, Omaha; Mrs. Charles O. Norton, Kearney; Mrs. J. C. Powers, Fremont; Mr. H. B. Johnson, Lincoln; Mrs. Frank J. O'Neil, Omaha.

Invitation Committee—Mrs. Clara Hall, Lincoln; Mrs. Emily McMillin, Woodward; Mrs. Prince Olson, Ord; Mrs. J. B. Hart, Omaha; James Richardson, Omaha; James H. Adams, Omaha.

SHE WISHES VENGEANCE ON KAVILLE DENTIST

Tall, angular and insistent woman visits Justice Bachmann and leaves in a Huff.

She was tall, angular, insistent. Her incisive voice almost drew blood when she spoke.

"Well, they don't fit," she exclaimed, throwing set of false teeth on the table, "and I want to sue the dentist."

Justice C. M. Bachmann looked and smiled in his most suave grace and declined to eat the set of teeth.

"I don't doubt madam, that you have a cause of action against the dentist, but you say that it was made in Kansas City. Entirely outside of my jurisdiction, I am sorry to inform you."

She put the offending teeth back into her voice cavern and stalked out.

Back from Blair have come Judge Redick and attendants at court there harrowed up by the breach of promise trial between Mrs. Hannah Loosing and Henry Monk.

Mrs. Hannah Loosing, 60 years of age, avers that Henry Monk, aged 50, is a trifler, a deceives ever, who toyed with her affections, persuaded her that he loves her and finally threw her over.

But a Blair jury did not agree with the plaintiff and returned a verdict for Monk.

Judge Redick presided at this harrowing disclosure of confiding femininity and masculine perfidy—as narrated by Mrs. Loosing.
