INGRATITUDE STINGS

Rev. P. H. McDowell Shows How How Much I Spent on Pleasures. "On this day America pauses and says to God-Thank you," said Rev. P. H. Mc-Dowell, pastor of the Immanuel Raptist church, in speaking at the union meeting of the north side churches at Plymouth Congregational church, in which the North Presbyterian, the Plymouth Congregational, the First United Presbyterian, the Trinity Methodist, the North Side Christian and the United Brethern churches united.

"America has many causes to be thankful," said the speaker, "and I will speak today on the sin of ingratitude, for that and kicked a goal from the field. Y is the sin which has a real sting in it." The text was from Romans 1:21: "Knowing God, they glorifled Him not as God, part of the game and most of the ti Neither were they thankful."

"America is the most prosperous coun try on earth, and I give a list of the expenses of this nation for the mere pleasures of life, not taking into consideration the necessities. A nation that can afford all these luxuries surely has cause for Thanksgiving.

GREATEST BATTLE OF THE WEST

Coach Roper's Tactics Successful and Jayhnwkers Lose in Spite of Fierce Work-Record Crowd.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 25 .- (Special Telegram.)-For the first time in eight years Missouri defeated Kansas university's foot ball eleven in their nineteenth annual battle at Association park, this afternoon and administered to the Jayhawkers their first setback for two seasons. The Missouri Tigers, coached by that wizard from Princeton-Roper-by winning this final game, established an undisputed claim to the championship of the Missouri valley and finished the season with a clean rec ord-a feat which no Missouri team has done since 1896. Kansas was beaten cleanly, and to Rope goes the credit. Missourl's supremacy was shown in the first half, and even more orcibly demonstrated in the second period when most of the play was in Jayhawker territory. The Tigers surprised their mosardent admirers, and the heavy Kansans whose sixteen-pound average heavier weight was expected to demolish the Missour! line, were thrown back time and again. Roper's charges did not waste air they were speeding down the gridiron ful Observer, "where some pest insisted strength in the first part of the game, but rushed the ball to the Jayhawkers' thirytfive-yard line three times within the first tackle the Cornhuskers who were to re- "Many's the time," replied the Oldest ten minutes of play, and Hackney's left the ball in case Inhabitant. This ended the scoring of the half and the game and it was plain that Missouri was constantly growing stronger by the addition of new men.
