Habeas Corpus Proceedings Brought by Artist's Wife Heard at Zanesville. ZANESVILLE, O., Nov. 27 .- The habeas corpus proceedings brought by Mrs. Mabells Thompson Christy, wife of the artist, Howard Chandler Christy, for the possession of their 10-year-old daughter, Natellie Christy, began today, Mr. Christy was present in the crowded court room, but the announcement was made that his wife was detained in New York and would not be here until next week. Mrs. Christy's counsel asked that the time for the hearing be extended, as Mrs. Christy was unable to be present. He continued by moving that the child, who was In court with her father, be placed in the custody of the sheriff. The court ruled . that the girl should remain in her father's charge, his lawyer promising that she would be produced in court when necessary. The court set the hearing for December 17 and 19 at which time it was announced that several witnesses would be present from New York to give testimony.
