The way the wind blows in the Omaha want ad field

The Bee last week made a gain of over 27 columns of paid want ads over the corresponding week of last year.

Of course, Omaha is growing, but more people are using Bee want ads, because they are read in most every one of the 42,000 homes reached by The Bee.

Our nearest Omaha competitor gained but 16 columns, giving them credit for their free help wanted, indecent advertisements, clairvoyant and other frauds excluded from Bee pages.

The reason why Bee want ads bring such tremendous returns is that The Bee goes to the homes, where people really read the papers. There are thousands of homes where The Bee is the only paper ever admitted, because self-respecting people want a clean paper.

Bargains in Farms.
Farm land all over the country is advertised under "Farm and Ranch Land." It pays investors to watch the offerings on the Want-Ad pages.

Not How Cheap, But How Good

Why should a man investing in a farm home look for the very cheapest land? An investment in a part of the big Brookmont farm at Odebolt, Iowa, means getting a piece of the best land in Iowa. "The FINEST FARM IN THE WORLD" is the title applied to it. Everyone who sees it admits it. No soil expert nor newspaper correspondent has ever passed a criticism on Brookmont. Buying an eighty or quarter of that big farm is to

Buy a Perfect Farm With Perfect Soil

One runs no risk in buying a part of Brookmont. It is not a farm which has been allowed to run down—the soil has not been robbed by careless tenants. Everything is in good trim—buildings in excellent repair, all painted, good fences, splendid roads. There are good neighbors now and there will be plenty more of them when this land is sold, as it will be in a few weeks.

Low Prices and Liberal Terms

make an investment in Brookmont attractive. Prices for improved farms, $135 per acre; without buildings, $125 per acre. The land is in such excellent state of cultivation as to pay a big interest on this investment, while the prediction is freely made that land in Sac and Ida counties will go to $200 per acre in a short time.

ALREADY SEVEN QUARTERS HAVE BEEN SELECTED

The indications are that the entire tract of 24 quarters will be sold in thirty days. If interested speak quick.
