

ELKS HOLD SERVICES SUNDAY

Memorial Ritual Will Be Observed at Boyd Theater.

PUBLIC INVITED TO CEREMONY

Impressive Rites Will Be Solemnized in Every Lodge of United States—Local Herd Has Lost Eighteen Men During Year.

Members of the Omaha lodge, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks and the general public will assemble at the Boyd theater Sunday morning at 11 o'clock to hear the memorial ritual of the order pronounced for the members of the antierd herd who have been called by death.

The memorial service of the Elks is one of the most beautiful and impressive ceremonies known to fraternal orders. It is a genuinely public service, with no element of secrecy about it.

As is generally known there is marked significance in the hour of 11 among the men who wear the antlers. This is not a matter of secrecy, for the badges of the Elks bear the familiar clock with the hands pointing toward the hour of 11.

The Elks' lodge is distinctly an American organization; it was founded by Americans in this country and has no foreign affiliation of any kind.

During the last year Omaha lodge, No. 20, has lost eighteen men by death. The total death roll of the lodge is over ninety. There are 1,000 active Elks in the Gate City, and these will gather at the lodge hall in the Water block Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and will march in a body to the Boyd theater.

H. Christiansen Gets a Verdict

Obtains $842 in Record Suit Against Omaha Ice and Cold Storage Company.

The record suit of the present term of district court came to an end this morning when the jury returned a verdict for $842 against the Omaha Ice and Cold Storage company in favor of Hans Christiansen.

The jury, which has been sitting under Judge Kennedy these weeks, took the case at 4:45 p. m. Thursday and deliberated all night. An agreement was not reached until 8 a. m.

The suit is a record one for the length of time taken in consideration with the comparatively small amount at stake. The plaintiff asked $1,000 for damages alleged done to his farm near Carter lake by overflow from a dam built by the ice company.

All East Omaha manifested an interest in the case and nearly all East Omaha citizens to give testimony. The attorneys set no possible point of law set by without a battle and went to the mat over the examination of practically every witness.

DR. HENRY IS NOT CERTAIN YET ABOUT HIS FRATERNITY

Says No More Business in Omaha at Present—Board Meeting in Few Days.

"For the present the Christian Fraternity will do no business in Omaha," said Dr. W. O. Henry, its founder and general chairman, who has returned from England.

Dr. Henry came direct to Omaha after ordering the company to close up its affairs in Omaha. He sailed from Liverpool on the liner Mauretania and after reaching New York took the first train for Omaha.

"What steps will be taken to adjust the affairs of our concern, I cannot state," says Dr. Henry. "I have not had an opportunity to confer with the Omaha officers and, stopping as I was thousands of miles from the real seat of trouble, I am not thoroughly conversant with the local situation."

"When Dr. Henry's cablegram to 'close up' reached State Auditor Barton, Mr. Barton, instead of complying, communicated with John W. Hannel, general manager, and the result was an effective protest against the 'close up' mandate. The insurance risks were transferred to the Security Mutual Life Insurance company of Lincoln and the Board of Control of the Fraternity met and decided to try to keep the old ship floating despite Dr. Henry's failure to supply the munitions of war—promotion funds. A meeting of the directors is expected to be held in a few days to determine future action.

HIS FAITH CATCHES A FALL

P. Lindsay Leaves $40 with the Wrong Man and Now He Can't Find Him.

P. Lindsay trusted a friend from Montana with his pocketbook that contained a certificate of deposit for $40 at the Omaha National bank while he went in a resort to hunt a friend. He thought by leaving his money on the outside he would not be subjected to the dangers of being robbed, but the Montana man was missing when he returned. He reported the matter to the police and asked them to find the stranger, but he was going south when last heard from.
