FINDS $5 BILL IN THE PACKAGE

City Inspector Buys at Police Auction and Makes Money.

John Grant Pegg, city inspector of weights and measures, has all the other city officials in a jealous humor.

Mr. Pegg went to the police auction and bid in for $7.10 a package that netted him a large sum.

Assistant Gas Commissioner Butler was blamed by Pegg for putting up a job to attract his attention, which Butler angrily denied.

Friend Pegg, I herewith return your fine. I cannot imagine how I was tempted to take it unless I had in mind the presentation of a token from the democracy of Omaha to Governor Steiwer.

That's Flynn, said Pegg, when he read the letter. Still, it isn't his writing.

"I know you wouldn't steal any brass jewelry, Tom," said the mayor soothingly.

MONOPOLY VS. PROTECTION.

"Last winter many people felt it would be well to abate somewhat these activities, but those who had sought to dominate the American market were not satisfied with this and determined to go farther and still more strengthen their domination.

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE, OBSERVING THE PROCESS BY WHICH COMPETITION WAS BEING ELIMINATED HAVE BATTLED FOR THE LAST SEVEN YEARS FOR THE INDEPENDENCE OF THE AMERICAN MARKET.

THE REAL TEST OF TODAY, SO FAR AS THE TARIFF IS CONCERNED, IS TO PROTECT AMERICAN INDUSTRY, WHERE IT NEEDS IT, FROM FOREIGN COMPETITION AND AT THE SAME TIME PROTECT THE AMERICAN CONSUMER FROM THE UNJUST EXERCISES OF DOMESTIC COMPETITION.

AS BEARING UPON THE MAIN ISSUE, I REFER YOU TO THE RESTRICTION OF THE COUPON FEATURE BY THE TOBACCO TRADE, WHICH THE SENATE STRUCK OUT, BUT WHICH WAS PUT BACK IN CONFERENCE, WHICH COULD ONLY HAVE BEEN TO STRENGTHEN THE COMPETITION.

THE CORPORATION TAX BE DECLARED WAS AN INCOME TAX, HIGHLY DISGUISED, AND UNJUSTLY DRAINED, TAKING THE PROSECUTOR'S INCOME AND EXPANDING THE PERMANENT INCOME.

At present there is nothing like a guaranteed genuine communication from the land of those who have passed on to make a man prefer to keep on living.—New York Sun.
