"Pride of Omaha" FLOUR

Choicest yield of sun and rain. Cream of old earth's golden grain. The housewife greets with loud hurrah Her joy, the "PRIDE OF OMAHA."

Omaha, Nov. 29, 1909.

Uplike Milling Co., Omaha, Neb.

Gentlemen: Pursuant to your enclosed adv., I submit herewith three "jingles" on your "Pride of Omaha" Flour. Permit me to add that after using one sack of "Pride of Omaha," I became so enthused over its general excellence and superior qualities that, with such a product for my name, I found it easier to write three "jingles" on "Pride of Omaha" than it would have been for me to over-attempt such a task in relation to ordinary brands.

This will explain to you just why three "jingles" are enclosed herewith. Instead of one, as suggested in your advertisement.

Thanking you in advance for your consideration of what I herewith offer, and hoping that they—some or all three of them—will result in my securing a sack of "Pride of Omaha," I remain, Yours very truly,

MRS. ART W. GIRD,
1022 S. 25th St., Omaha.
