NEMESIS OF LAND GRABBER

Nebraska Plays This Role in Government's Fight in the West.

LIST OF 23 CONVICTIONS HERE

This is Out of Twenty-Eight Tried and There Are Yet Thirty of These Cases to Be Tried in Courts Here.

With the recent affirmation of the judgment of the district court for the federal district of Nebraska by the United States circuit court of appeals in the Richards and Comstock land cases, Nebraska comes squarely to the front as the nemesis of the land grabbers.

Twenty-eight defendants have been tried since the beginning of the land suits in October, 1906. Twenty-three of the defendants have been convicted, four acquitted and one discharged by order of the court. As a result of these trials there has been restored to the public domain in Nebraska 725,000 acres of lands. The aggregate days of imprisonment to which the defendants have been sentenced is 2,477 1/2. Total fines recovered and to be recovered are $13,885.

There are now pending thirty land cases to be tried in the district court under the criminal statutes, involving approximately 150,000 acres of land. The more important of these are: George E. Townsend, Benjamin M. Fox, George H. McClintock, W. F. Miles, indicted for conspiracy to defraud on lands in Sioux county, entries alleged to have been made for the benefit of the Western Land and Cattle company. Earl Comstock, E. C. Harris, R. Hudgell, for conspiracy to defraud and procuring unlawful filings on lands in Sioux county. G. T. H. Babcock, John Agnew, H. C. Furman, Burt Furman, conspiracy. R. H. Allen, R. Hudgell, D. Perdue, conspiracy to defraud and suborn perjury, in the matter of the Standard Cattle company. Chicago Ranch Cows.

Lawrence E. King, Patrick J. King of Chicago, conspiracy to defraud and suborn perjury in the Chicago Ranch case.

Charles T. Stewart, Stewart Walker, conspiracy to defraud and subornation of perjury and unlawful enclosing of public lands.

A. Suttell, for subornation of perjury and conspiracy to defraud.

There are a number of smaller cases, directly or indirectly connected with some of the foregoing cases, in which there are indictments for perjury or subornation of perjury in securing the filings.

These cases have been hanging fire for over a year, pending the result of the decision in the Comstock, Richards and other defendants' cases. It is the intention of the government to bring these cases to trial, possibly at the February term of the federal courts in this district.

A number of civil cases to compel the removal of fences are also pending. Several of these cases have been closed from time to time through the removal of the fences, and in other instances the fences have been forcibly removed by the government officers, and the costs assessed against the parties maintaining the fences.

United Theaters Prefer the Federal Court for Suit

Move to Transfer Injunction Proceedings to Uncle Sam's Jurisdiction.

Attorneys for the United Theaters company have entered a motion in district court for the removal of the injunction proceedings against it to the United States circuit court.

The injunction was sought Friday by E. L. Johnson and Bruno G. Bils, owners of the Galey (Burwood) theater to prevent Messrs Sullivan and Considine from interfering with their operation of the theater. The United Theaters company is one of the names under which Messrs. Sullivan and Considine do business.

The attorneys for the defendants represent in their motion that their clients are incorporated in Maine and legally reside there and that Messrs Johnson and Bils live in Nebraska. Therefore, says the motion, the contest is between citizens of different states and as such should be heard by a United States court. Another argument is that the amount involved is over $2,000, and this is ordinarily a good ground for removal in such cases. A bond for removal is likewise filed in the office of the clerk of district court.

The original injunction proceedings were to have been heard before Judge Estelle the coming Saturday.

WANTS CITY TO PAY HOUSE RENT LOST BY QUARANTINE

William Lampman Fights Up Nice Question of Law 16 the Legal Department.

William Lampman, an employe in the office of Treasurer Furry, has preferred a claim against the city for $52. Back of the claim is an interesting chain of circumstances.

Mr. Lampman some time ago made arrangements for occupying the vacant half of a double house at $25 a month. Before he could move in scarlet fever made its appearance among the people in the other half of the house. A quarantine sign was erected on the front of the place, in the natural course of events, by the health commissioner's men. Mr. Lampman became informed of this fact, and, having two small children, he hesitated to move in. While standing in fear of possible infection he found himself out a month's rent. This money he wishes the city council to reimburse him.

The Lampman claim raises a nice legal question, say the men of law. As one expert stated it:

"There is something new under the sun always cropping out in legal practice. Now here's a question the exact like of which probably has never appeared before any council or court in this section. There is a most interesting—"

"Let Furry pay it," broke in Councilman McGovern. "He's one of my constituents, and they are all good, liberal people."

Body of Crocker Goes to the Coast

Corpse of California Millionaire Will Pass Through Omaha in a Private Car.

In the private car "Mishawaka" the body of George Crocker, the California millionaire who died recently in New York City, is making a transcontinental journey to San Francisco for burial. The special car will reach Omaha Thursday morning over the Northwestern line and will leave the city over the Union Pacific railroad.

The growth of San Francisco is closely connected with the name of Crocker. This family represents much of the wealth of the Golden State and George Crocker had a national reputation as a capitalist. It was his wish that his body be interred in San Francisco.

CAUGHT BY HIS BONDSMAN

Fred Turner, wanted on bootlegging charge, is nabbed in Omaha by surety.

Fred Turner of Iowa, who was wanted in that state under a federal indictment for selling liquor without a license, was apprehended in Omaha Monday evening by one of his bondsmen and taken to the federal authorities in Council Bluffs.

Fred Turner is the individual who was wanted instead of Frank Turner, who was arrested in Omaha a few days ago through mistaken identity and was subsequently released. Fred Turner was at that time reported to be in Colorado, but his sureties had reason to believe he was in Omaha. Fred Turner agreed to go to Iowa with his bondsman, Hoyt by name, without going through the formality of a regulation.

CARRINGTON TO EIGHTEENTH

Father of Old Indian Fighting Regiment Welcomes It Back from the Philippines.

General H. B. Carrington, father of the Eighteenth United States Infantry, and who commanded the regiment during the Sioux Indian war of 1865 in the Big Horn country of Wyoming, sent the following message on Thanksgiving day to Colonel Davis, as that regiment entered Fort Mackenzie, near Sheridan, Wyo., a couple of weeks ago, upon the return of that regiment from the Philippines:

HYDE PARK, Mass., Nov. 25, 1909—Colonel Thomas F. Davis, officers and men of the Eighteenth Infantry, Fort Mackenzie, Wyo.

Welcome back to field of equal sacrifice and honor.

A prompt response came as follows:

PORT MACKENZIE, Wyo., Nov. 25, 1909.—To General H. B. Carrington: The Eighteenth Infantry gratefully acknowledges your kind welcome from More Land. We came to Wyoming to scenes of our early activity and find no frontier. DAVIS, Colonel.

Miss Higgins is to Be Vindicated

Seasongood Will Be Removed and Fate of Torgusen is Still a Question.

The inquiry into affairs at the county hospital probably will result in a vindication of Miss Lena Higgins; in the removal of E. R. Seasongood, the hospital druggist, while the fate of Dr. Bert Torgusen cannot be told now.

Members of the board said in private conversation that they thought nothing had been shown which reflected upon Miss Higgins, but that did not mean necessarily that she would be restored to her position and it is doubtful if she wishes to become head nurse again.

NEW ELEVATORS IN CITY HALL

Movement on Foot to Replace the Present Outfit, Which Has Become Obsolete.

Councilmen Brucker and Johnson have been investigating the probable cost of installing new elevators in the city hall, to replace the present antiquated outfit. It has been found that a new plant in all respects, of electric elevators, would cost as high as $11,000. They have another proposition whereby whatever is available of the existing machinery would be used and new cages furnished and put in good working order for something under $1,000.

WINE LEFT UNGUARDED BURSTS AND SCARES GIRLS

Fearsome Feminine Screams Shatter the Frosty Atmosphere and Bring Quick Aid.

Two young women sat alone in a residence near the Field club. It was of course a dark and storm-disturbed night, the kind of weather which gives young feminine things that creepy, eerie feeling.

"Are you frightened, dear?" they asked each other, and each denied it. Nevertheless as the storm howled they snuggled a little closer.

There came a lull in the storm. Then they heard all those strange soundings, mysterious noises of night time which so upset a nervous soul.

After a period of quiet came loud crackling sound like the noise of a discharged revolver.

The shot seemed to have been fired in the back of the house. Rushing to the front door they screamed together. The father-in-law of one of the young women heard the frightened cry from his home next door and rushing over valorously made his way to the back of the house.

A dreadful sight met his eyes in the kitchen:

A bottle of one-time unfurnished wine had been working and the ceiling and walls were now covered with what looked like gore. The cork had blown out.

GAS COMPANY PAYS TAX TO CITY UNDER PROTEST

Contribution of $4,750.19 Received by Treasurer Furry with a Cheerful Smile.

The Omaha Gas company is the second of the public service corporations of Omaha to present its check for the 3 per cent occupation tax at the office of Treasurer Furry. In turning over to the treasurer a check for $4,750.19, Tuesday, it was noted that payment is made under protest, on the ground that the tax is illegal. Apparently all corporations concerned have decided to do the same thing, if they pay at all. The Independent Telephone company has made simply a statement, showing it owes the city $46.52, as 3 per cent of its earnings since September 1. No money or check accompanied the return.

"Let them save their exceptions," says Treasurer Furry, with the utmost good nature. "This court is entirely willing that every company shall have its rights preserved. In the meantime the money will be salted down as by law provided in such case."

MAKING GOOD

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good"; and Dr. Pierce's medicines will exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards. A good, honest square-deal medicine of known composition is

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, less of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is as good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrapper—no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for. Don't buy

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for woman's special ailments.

It makes weak women strong, sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago.

As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve it is unequalled. It won't satisfy those who want "booze," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy.

DEMENTED SOLDIERS TRAVEL

Eleven Enlisted Men Will Go Through Thursday to Asylum from the Presidio.

Eleven demented soldiers will pass through Omaha Thursday afternoon in a special car, bound from the Presidio at San Francisco for the National Asylum for Insane Soldiers and Sailors at Washington. The men will be under the care of two army surgeons and will be under the surveillance of nine guardsmen.

Most of the group suffered insanity while stationed in the Philippines. They were brought to the states at the expense of the government. In the case of soldiers losing their minds in the hot climate of the Pacific it is a usual thing to completely recover by proper treatment in America.

MOTION TO DIRECT VERDICT

Stubborn Case Between Wisconsin Cattle Company and Harri-man Railroads.

A motion to direct a verdict is being argued before Judge Redick in the suit of the Wisconsin Cattle company against the Oregon Short Line and Union Pacific. The half dozen lawyers employed on the case have been airing their views at length and the forty or more witnesses who came here from Idaho are becoming hopelessly bored.

The case is of great importance to railroads and live stock shippers, for it will probably establish a precedent in the mat-
