What Shall It Profit a Man?

Is it Well to Devote Oneself to Business to the Exclusion of Recreation? Does Not the Mind Require Food Even as the Body? Will Not "Specializing" Lead to Narrowness?

preferred the joys of the brisk, fresh air, to the comfortable seats inside; to one of these men, the youngest in the group, the writer said: "Are you still working day and night, and all the time, as you were Occasionally a specialist gets into the ight." Comment then ran along on the of those same diseases themselves, death of Mr. Harriman, and another of the We must not think too long, and too his business has crowded the other out. If we starve the flesh, we lose it. If we The same evening, a few of us were dis-starve the nerves, we lose them. If we cussing vacation trips, and the wife of the manager of great corporation, made. There are many men, business men, proner-use prostration.

commercial interests for many years, and son, slong some particular branch. asking him why he never did anything in He may have made a great success in thing like that.

at this senson of the year, when one in-dulges in retrospection, and when one thinks over the gains and losses (in busi- all the time, and making "his mind" ness parlance). "What shall it profit a tend to "his business," without ever maklooks over his stock, and tries to clear own mind?" things, so that he will not have to carry the new. And the busy man of affairs, as it profit him?"

Now there is not a successful business man to-day who has not proved, for himself, the statement that "Man shall not foolish as that I play bridge: I play a thoughts on other things than your busiRe-creation is what we need. Creating serse. They do not. There is not a bank words, "What shall it profit a man."

No one is more disgusted than a business man, with a person who simply thinks of his stomach. How often you hear the remark in contemptuous tones. "All he thinks of is getting his three meals a day." But man shall not live by bread alone. He needs bread. He needs also other things. The business man is not satisfied with a machine to work for him: he wants his helpers, his clerks, his bookkeepers to be intelligent: that means, they must think What does it profit a man if he works without thinking?

Many a business n.an, and many a pro-

But man shall not live by bread slone. He must have mind-food. When one gets to thinking long and earnestly and exclu-

On Ankle - It Was Very Bad and Only Got Worse Under Treat-

TWO ECONOMICAL CURES BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

ulcer was healed, by washing twice a day with the Soap and using the other remedies as directed. Before I used the Cuticura Remedies my sore was getting worse all the time under other treatments. Furthermore we have a baby boy here and we have found that Cutievery way to remove it but failed until we used the Cuticura Soap which re-moved it almost at once. George M. Hall, Brushton, N. Y., Dec. 24, 1908."

CURED FALLING HAIR

DING down town last Thursday sively on one thing, he is liable to become evening on the back platform fanatical on that subject. Our asylums of one of the new "No-pay-no- and our sanitariums are full of people who ride" cars, which require "cash have thought too much and too long and street car users, the musical editor of The Hee found himself in the company of an interesting group of business men who know many medical specialists who make last year?" He replied he was working babit of thinking all the time about his pretty hard. "Why don't you let up a bit, speciality, and what is the result? Well. and out try to do so much?" was asked. It is possible to answer that question in a The answer came-"After next year I'm very practical way. Last winter a physigoing to take it easier." To which the clan in Omaha who lectures to medical writer replied. 'That's what Mr. Harri- students told some of us who were discussing matters of this sort, that there Hercupon, one of the older business men were authenticated cases of men who were aconically suggested: "Well, he did, all great authorities on certain diseases, dying business men said-"Yes, and that's what earnestly, and too intently on one thing. Mr. —— said," mentioning a very prom- We must have mind-food. If we have been incut Omaha man who died during the giving all our thought to our business, we have made a mistake; we must feed our Now this younger business man used to intellects. If we have succeeded in a finanbe very much interested in musical doings, and is the possessor of musical talent. But the temeric that she knew that had she fessional men, laboring men, who today not institled on her husband taking a trip have lost their minds. And yet they are to Lice, with her, some time ago, he not in sanitariums nor in asylums. They would have been in a sanitarium, with have retained just enough of the shadow of intellect to be able to remain outside. About Thanksgiving time the writer was When a man is absent-minded, he has taiking to another business man whose lost a certain part of his mind, for the name is at the head of a big concern, and time: his mind is "wandering." When a who has been identified with Omaha's man is unreasonable, he has lost his rea-

a musical way, nor seemed to take interest a business way; he may have an automoin musical happenings any more, the an- bile or two; he may have a fine home, and swer was that a grown family, and bust-ness cares took all of his time. he may have a large bank account; but And so it goes. And each one is going ing his mental side; if he is starving his to take it easier "after next year," or some. intellect, if he never looks into his library once a week; (to say nothing of once a And the thought comes to one, especially day,) if he is not getting some mental ing it "his business" to attend to "his mind," then "What shall it profit a man This is the time of year when a man if he gain the whole world, and lose his

This is the pre-inventory time, the winding and when the catastrophe happens, they Ah, but the theatre? Yes, there some one chronicle of murders, suicide, bank robber-

he looks over the past months, and weeks | And then they keep on in the same old and days, is anxious to find out the an- way, because they think that their cases swer to this question, "What shall it profit are different; and anyway,-they are "going to take it easier after next year."

But some one says-"Oh yes, that's all and other minds have done for you. game of poker once in a while: I entertain ness; that is true: but the theater, bridge, anew, impulses; creating anew, those forces in Omaha doing business on credit! You

country saw in thele Joe the incarnation

Uncle Joe, being the same man and retake advantage of the first choice when the assortment is complete and the stocks are at their best. Visitors to Omaha and the Corn Show are cordially invited to inspect this grand display of Holiday Gifts.

Solid Brass Jardinieres, like Il justration, ranging in size

Muffin Stands, 811 to Ladies' Desks. $80 to Music Cabinets, $32 to Tabourettes, $10 to Pedestals, $29.75 to Magazine Racks, $8.50 to Shaving Stands, $20 to . .

Waste Baskets, $3.85 to Cellarettes, $82.50 to . .

Desk Chairs, $16.75 to .

Work Tables, $45 to . . $10.00 | Mahogany Trays, $13.50

8.00

6.25

to

Mahoganized Birch Rocker, like illustration, wit and seat, finely finished

Useful and Attractive Christmas Gifts

Miller, Stewart & Beaton

413-15-17 South Sixteenth Street

We are showing hundreds of pretty and inexpensive articles that will appeal to you-good furniture-stylish, well made, but not necessarily expensive; fine Oriental and Domestic Rugs, Curtains and Draperies; Bric-a-Brac of every description, all at prices within the reach of everyone. The whole store bids you a cheery, merry welcome-come tomorrow and 9.00

Our big store is brimful of new, choice, practicle CHRISTMAS GIFTS, and a visit through it will give you many suggestions for your holiday purchasings.

Easy Chairs, $50 to ... 11.00

Clocks, $210 to

Brass, Jardinieres, $3.70

$3.75 to

Brass Smoker Pieces-

Brass Candle Sticks-

Mirrors, $38.50 to ...

to

$2.25 to ...

Turkish Leather Booker, like illustration, made of best quality hand-buffe leather, with genuine leather

Parlor Cabinets. $200 to $25.00

Drop Leaf Tables, $30 to 18.00

Doll Go Carts, $2 to . .

boxes, $10 to

Leather Portieres, $11.50

Screens, $18 to

Shirtwaist and Utility

Pillow Tops, (craftsman)

Table Covers, 87 to Carpet Sweepers, $3.75 to Craftsman Rugs, $6,50 to Axminster Rugs, $5 to . .

Sofa Pillows, $2.50 to Hassocks, $2 to

Bath Rugs, $4 to 86.50 to

inch $1.80

Brass Electric Lamp, with fancy for reading table, with two for reading table, with very handsome in design.

own automobile. All these things take my thought, just an the business does. mind off my business. I get my rest and recreation that way."

Golden Oak Quartersawed Morris Chair

it is not feeding your intellect.

'need' is re-creation.

Some Things You Want to Know

The American Congress-Speaker Cannon's Career

What you need to do is to get your bank account, unless he keeps on deposit- men, we are losing our souls. thoughts "up." Get in touch with the men ing. Go slow. Go slow. Be careful. There is who think in higher things. Open the glass A man cannot keep on drawing on his world, in which to "lose" our souls. No one wants to lose his reason. No one a difference between re-action and re-cretime of year whon he looks over his ac- wants to lose his mind. No one wants to ation. Re-action, is what you are getting. thoughts of the many wise men who are ing health forces: a man cannot keep on There is no mental food in a game of there. Get away from the stock market drawing on his nerve account, unless he can; so that he will not have to carry any more than is necessary into the new year.

This is the west location of the control up of the old, preparatory to opening up say "What did it profit him? What did else has prepared the mental food for you, les, criminal cases, divorces, and what not. mind-food, thought-supply. You enjoy what is being presented, but Take out your Balzac, or your Dickens, or The banker is not satisfied with the your Thoreau, or Stevenson, or Kipling, statement that you will deposit "after next them here, it may be very much harder thought suggested on the back platform What you "want" is re-action. What you and forget things of the work world.

For what doth it profit a man if he phasizes the "Now"! You want to absorb what other intellects gain the whole world and lose his own mind?

my friends at the theater, and I run my and the automobile will localize your which we are drawing upon every day.

year. He says, "Do it Now"! And he em-

But, you say, that is a musician's nonsense. Banks do lots of business on credit: they deal in futurities. Do they?

may borrow, but you "pay," the moment

Nicaragua is one thing. That we are not belongs to the supper room, not to destitute is another thing. That we are superiority.

That we are rich does not count for so much. That means, we can have all the not know, is another siren which beckens I bread alone.

That we have learning is not enough. flight who are ignorant. But man shall not live by mind alone. Have we our own souls? That is "The"

Do our lives demand Beauty? Or are we content to be without ft? Do we love Good Music?? Or are we content to be without it? Do we love Flowers? Or are we satisfled without them? Do we love Poetry ?? Or are we content to be without it? Do we love our families? Our friends, she) gain the whole world with its prestige,

A man cannot keep on drawing on his Music, Flowers, Poetry, Pamily, Fellow a "series" of withdrawals, or losings,

We do not have to wait for another If we don't lose them here, we don't lose them anywhere. If we don't find them here, we don't

A merciful Providence may have a plant whereby we may find them again in some But will be find it again? other sphere. But if it is hard to refind to find them somewhere else!! So. What shall it profit a man, if he easier, after next year." gain the whole world, and lose his own

The Soul of Music is calling to our Souls today. It begins its song with the don't put up any collateral. Then, if that obey the soul's dictates.

Is so, you put up Yourself! You put up your Moral Worth, and that he assured is nicely the demon of avariee. But the additional results and includes the soul's distance of the soul of the season is more impatiently awaited. An excellent program opens with the "Vitella Worth, and that he assured is plosts."

Musicians must be superior, not supper servers; creators, not caterers. Popularity, even with those who do bread we want. But man shall not live by musicians. When this is sought, the sout becomes apprehensive and prepares for 2. What has been said is no reflection against either social standing or the purse. Social standing, and purses, have ever been just as accessible to the good and true, as to the meretricious and the untrue. Witness our churches and our hospitals, and the many musical organizations and institutions supported in other countries! Purses are philanthropic, and social 6. standing is susceptible, to the good, as well as to the ungood.

What shall it profit a musician if he (or Do we love our families? Our friends, outside the circle of bulness associates? and its influence, and its acknowledgement, Do we love our workmen, our servants, our fellow men, our so-called enemies? Our that the soul is never lost by one suprems plunge; it is never lost by one direct act of Right? Our Ideals? God?

If we have lost the faculty of, the need it is never lost by the death of a hody.

Schument: "Procession du St. Sacrement." Chauvet: "Chauvet: "Cha of, the demand for Beauty, Nature, Good It is lost, just like a bank account, by without any compensatory supplyings. A man may lose a fortune in a day. But > does he find it again in a day? A man may lose his health in a year But does he find it again in a year?

A man may lose his mind in a decade. But when does he find it again? A man may lose his soul in a lifetime of a street car: "I am going to take it

What shall it profit a man, if-? THOMAS J. KELLY.

Musical Notes.

Miss Hopper announces she is prepared to reserve and deliver tickets for the Schuyou "borrow." You pay what they call let us forget that we also can lose our concert (January 6, 1910), and suggests the fitness of these tickets for Christmas gifts, either in the family circle or among friends. Then, if that obey the soul's dictates Worth, and that, be assured, is nicely calculated at the bank; through dealings with the bank, or with parties known by the bank, you have established a moral worth and standing, which you label "Credit" and on that you borrow. It is a "Credit" and on that you borrow. It is a "Credit" and on that you borrow. It is a current saying among shrewd men, "If you want to keep a good credit, don't use it."

An utter stranger cannot borrow!

In conclusion. "Thanksgiving" has just passed. We have all had much to be thankful for. That we live in Omaha instead of Nicaragua is one thing. That we are not belongs to the supper room. That we live in Omaha instead of truth. Musicians should not cater. That we live in Omaha instead of truth. Musicians should not cater. That we live in Omaha instead of truth. Musicians should not cater. That we live in Omaha instead of truth. Musicians should not cater. That we live in Omaha instead of truth. Musicians should not cater. That we live in Omaha instead of truth. Musicians should not cater. That of perfection than this season."

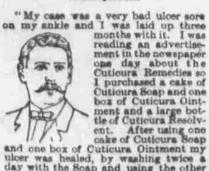

Mr. August Mothe-Borgium will preside at the plano. Mme. Schumann-Heink recently sang to an audience of 4.000 at Kansas City; in fact, this great artist has a reputation for capacity houses and no effort will be spared to make her coming known to every music-lover of Omaha. The eastern press declares: "This world-removed linger has never brought before the passed. We have all had much to be thankful for. That we live in Omaha instead of truth. Musicians should not cater. That

Es hat die Rose Massenet Ganz Schumann Aufschwung tude, Opus 10, No. 7..... octurne, Opus 15, No. 2... Valtz, Opus 70, No. 1..... Balakirew Barcarolle, Opus 50. Waltz-Blue Danube.

At their recital in the First Congrega-tional church Sunday, December II, 4 p. m., Martin W. Bush will play: "Suite Goth-ique" (complete), L. Boelmann; "Pas-torale," Franck; "Canon in B Minor." Schumann; "Procession du St. Sacrement."

LAID UP 3 MONTHS WITH AN ULCER

ments - Cuticura Soon Healed It-Baby's Head Freed from Stubborn Scurf by Cuticura Soap.

"Some months ago I suffered with a bad form of scalp disease. My hair was falling out and my head itched. I read about Cuticura and determined to try it. I bought a cake of Cuticura Scap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and used them. I continued using the Cuticura Ointment on my head daily and the result was truly wonderful. I still use it occasionally and I always have Cuticura Boap on hand. The cure is complete. Mrs. Amy Geissler, 2018 South Seventh St., Omaha, Neb., Sept. 23 and Oct. 8, 1908."

The contral figure in every discussion of he was a years old his parents moved to to congress in 1892, another democratic want to keep a good credit, don't use it." simply ask, "Is it right?" fessional man, and many a musician can the American congress today is the speaker Indiana, his father being opposed to slav- year, and has been coming back ever since. An utter stranger cannot borrow! cheerfully and honestly say:- Well, I of the house of representatives, Joseph G. ery. At 14 years old, Cannon went to work No public man in the history of the countries. And they do. But we all markets think." And they do. But we all probably think of one thing to the exclusion of all conclusion. "Uncle Joe" is a character. He for the purpose of studying law. When he attack by the press than was "Uncle Joe" passed. We have all had much to be thankothers. We think of our business, we plan is as much of a character in American was 20 he went to Terre Haute to read law Cannon in 1890. He was even then "Uncle for our business, we put our mental efforts politics as was the rugged Andrew Jack- in the office of John P. Usher, who was Joe," and that was twenty years ago. thto the one thing we are working at, for son, the terrible John Randolph of Roan- secretary of the interior in the Lincoln In that familiar name one finds a key oke or the imperious Roscoe Conkling, and cabinet. Later he went to the Cincinnati to his character and to his power. He is not dumb, deaf, blind, and crippled is anhe shares with those three interesting his- law school, where he was graduated in 1858, one of the plain people, a lovable old man, torical personages the distinction of being In the same year he removed to Illinois, whom his friends adore. Anybody would always positive, never negative. Uncle Joe living for a few months at Shelbyville and call him "uncle." Now there isn't a man is a republican, therefore he hates the thon going to Tuscola. In 1861, he was alive who would dare to address the sendemocratic party and all its works. If he elected state's attorney and was con- ator from Mnine as "Uncle "Gene." It likes a man he will go to any proper length tinued in that office until 1868. In 1872 he would be tantamount to contempt of the > persons who admire Mr. Cannon accord 1876 he removed to his present home in him a whole-souled and unquestioning loy- Danville and abandoned his law practice. alty which is akin to infatuation, and those Of the men who served in the Forty-third who do not admire him are apt to use the congress, the first of which Mr. Cannon entire supply of invectives in expressing was a member, but four others remain in public life. William P. Frye was then It appears that there are fashions in Can- the chief supporter of Speaker Blaine, nonism. The speaker can remember when Eugene Hale was a republican house ne was halled all over the country as the leader, Julius Caesar Burrows was "the ideal leader of the western republicanism- silver-tongued orator of the house," and that was before some of the "fair-haired Stephen B. Elkins was in the house as a boys of the uplift magazines" were born, delegate from the territory of New Mexico. He also remembers when he was denounced Now Frye and Hale represent Maine in by a large section of the press and by all the schate. Burrows is a senator from democrats as "dirty-mouthed Cannon." Michigan and Elkins is a senator from Still later the whole country adopted him West Virginia. There is not a man left as its "uncle." and embarrassed him with in the house who was there when "Uncle gifts of homespun suits and yarn socks and Joe" first took his seat. The names Frye, hand-knit "galluses," just to show that the

Hale, Elkins and Cannon prove the value, age of the republican party, one of the haif of those homely virtues which all Ameri. in congress, of long service. or those nomely virtues which all Americans affect to regard so highly. And now Mr. Cannon served his apprenticeship, as the Line Loc. being the same man and reall young congressmen have to do but it nembering all those things, is bring abused was not long before he was recognized by by most democrats and some republicans the leaders as a man of parts. He speedily because he is a "czar," and is alleged to climbed to a high position on the comhave decamped with the liberties of the mittee on appropriations, of which he was American people secreted in th same vest so long chairman and where he won wellpocket where he carries, ready for instant merited reputation as a "watch-dog of the use, cigars. Vermillion county. Illinois, the treasury." He was a candidate for speaker republican house organization and a per- in 1889 against Thomas B. Reed and Willfactly warm estimate of the usefulness to lam McKinley, and again in 1899 against society of Messre. Bryan, Gompars and La David B. Henderson. In 1963 his ambition was realized and he took the chair to pre-There are many men, no doubt, who are side over the house where he had so long able to give a perfectly impartial estimate served. of Mr. Cannon's ability and statesmanship, In the stormy days of the Fifty-first conbut there is none who will do it. Either gress, when Speaker Reed was revolution-Mr. Cannon is the good oid Uncle Jos who izing the character of the house, Mr. Canis standing bravely at the head of the con- non was the chief floor leader and whip servative forces fighting Bryanism, social- of the party in the consideration of every ism and the devil, or he is an antiquated question but the tariff, where Mr. McKintory striving to obstruct every movement ley led. In one of the hot debates on the me nor the other-he is not the only hope of members, Mr. Cannon replied to a reof the conservatism nor the only enemy of mark of Mr. McAdoo of New Jersey in progrets, for sometimes he is progressive language described at the time as unand sometimes he opposes the conserva- printable. The incident was the cause of always a republican.

And "Billy" Mason of Chicago that day, Mr. Cannon will be 7s years old when he and led to attacks upon Cannon in all the celebrates his next birthday. May 8. He opposition press of the country, notably was 65 when he was first elected speaker, the New York Sun, Cannon was renomithe oldest man ever called to the chair of nated for congress the very next day after the house. Yet he is as vigorous today in the incident occurred, and the matter was espable of putting up a very high grade campaign waged upon that incident, or from it whether it was the result of the general to show his affection. If he disapproves was elected to congress, where he has supreme court, treason and all high crimes of a man there is no language too severe served ever since with the exception of the and misdemeanors. Mr. Hale is in the to express his feelings. Consequently those two years of the fifty-second congress. In Senate what Mr. Cannon is in the house, the chief conservator of the traditions of the party. Yet their methods are as dif-

Mr. Cannon never encouraged the senatorial ambition. He never looked upon a transfer from the house to the senate as a promotion. Perhaps one of the most remarkable features of his long service is that he always has been jealous of the rights ments of the senate. It is true that Mr. Cannon's conception of the scope of the 'rights of the house' differs radically from that entertained by many persons, but it is nonetheless true that the speaker of the house guards faithfully what he deems his

Mr. Cannon is a product of the golden dozen men still in public life who entered politics as supporters of Lincoln in his first campaign. But the attitude of the Cannon mind is not so much that of the Lincoln era as of that epoch of fierce party strife which began with the end of eclipse of the democratic party during the last Cleveland administration. In those days it meant something to be a party man, and it was disgraceful to be a turncoat. It was the days of straight tickets, no scratching and absolute boss rule. The "Independent voter" had not appeared to disturb politicians and the "uplift" and its schemes and plans was unheard of Mr. Cannon is true to the traditions of his party and he has little patience with new-fangled notions, unless they will serve to advance party interests. Then he is as ready to take up a new idea as anybody in the interest of public progress and mod- question of the power of the speaker to is to fight. He knows how to deal heavy ern economics. Of course he is neither count a quorum and compel the attendance blows, he knows now to take them. In 1891 Mr. Theodore Roosevelt said: "We cannot escape from the fact that it was no credit to the republican party of the house tives. One thing, however, is certain. He a bitter personal guarrel between Cannon of its leaders." Yet it was not long until and "Billy" Mason of Chicago that day, Mr. Cannon returned to the leadership as Henry Sherman Boutell, has said of the speaker: "He has no cant or hypocrisy He never poses. He never flatters. He mind and Body as are most men of 50, and made an issue in his district. He was de- enemies must admit that there is never 30 is young in congress. He does not ap- feated that year, 1800, as were most of the any difficulty in finding out just where pear to feel the handleap of his years in republican leaders and all but eighty-eight "Uncle Joe" stands. He is again the cenany fushion, and he is ready at any time of the republican representatives in the ter of a political fight and the country to prove to the "insurgents" that he is house. Whether he owed his defeat to the may be sure that he will not run away

He was born in Guilford county, North democratic landslide, is a controverted Tomorrow - THE AMERICAN CON-Carolina, in 1838, of Quaker parents. When question. At any rate, he was returned GRESS—The Leaders of the Senate.

