TRAINING FOR R-E-A-L SUCCESS

GOOD INTENTIONS," says Uncle Josiah, "are sible for some of de worst singing in de choir. The point of this is that the mere willingness to sing don't enable anyone to sing rightly. It requires T-R-A-I-N-I-N-G to Same case with success in becoming a success in the business world. You may have all the willingness and all the energy necessary-you may work hard day and night. But without SPECIAL TRAINING for a successful business career, you haven't as much chance to succeed in business as the common street laborer has to become a successful railroad contractor.

The business world is today offering greater financial rewards to successful, TRAINED business men than ever before in the world's history. But the rewards always go nowadays to the men who have received special preparatory training for the battle of business in such superlative schools as BOYLES COLLEGE

The Bookkeepers and Setnographers that we graduate are trained to the minute. Their expertness is so well established and known that the demand for our graduates is so great that WE CAN, RIGHT NOW AND HERE ABSOLUTELY PROMISE A POSITION TO EVERY COMPETENT GRADUATE OF BOYLES COLLEGE!

As for Telegraphers, the Union Pacific R. R. has for over two years and still continues to gladly guarantee Union Pacific Telegraphic Positions to every graduate of our Telegraph De-

Our Civil Service Courses prepare you for Railway Mail Clerks, Carriers, Departmental Clerks, etc. This is one of our busiest departments at this time, Our complete catalogue is free for the asking.
