TRADE FOR AN IRRIGATED FARM

Would you like to get hold of a nice piece of irrigated land, close to railroad, not far from Missouri river markets, plenty of water, soil that will grow corn, oats, wheat, potatoes, sugar beets and alfalfa? If you have, we can offer you a good trade in Lisco, a new town in a new county in western Nebraska. Lisco is in Garden county. You will find it a garden spot. The prices are low for irrigated land, ranging from $25 to $65 per acre—not much more than the cost of water in many places. It is an opportunity to get hold of a good piece of land early, before the rush, which is sure to come next spring. If you have something which you can trade, we will consider it. Do not delay long, as we have sold a number of tracts and will sell some more on our excursion next Tuesday. Come go with us and see what we have to offer.
