M'NALLY FOR PENTOCOST JOB

Old Omahan May Come Back to Rock Island Here.

FRISCO WILL QUIT THIS CITY

Maintains No Office Here as Result of Its Divorce from the Rock Island's Old-Time Consort.

J. E. McNally of Oklahoma City, for twelve years with the Rock Island in Omaha, is slated as the successor to E. S. Pentacost, who goes to Kansas City as assistant general passenger agent, as division passenger agent in this city. He left Omaha in 1902.

In the Rock Island offices at Kansas City there will be a vacancy January 1, owing to the resignation of G. A. Wright, who is to become general manager of the Wichita Stock Yards company. R. G. Brown of Minneapolis and C. O. Jennings of Chicago, both assistant general freight agents, are said to be candidates for the office of general freight agent at Kansas City.

Marital differences in the Rock Island-Frisco family have now fully extended to Omaha and the divorce of the two systems will mean the actual separation of the business interests of the railroads. This means that the St. Louis & San Francisco, the Chicago & Eastern Illinois and the Evansville & Terre Haute railroads will not for the present be included in Omaha.

In the freight department of the local offices there probably will be but one change. Although no appointment has been made as yet it is expected that freight business of the Frisco system will be conducted by a traveling freight agent. The Rock Island will handle Frisco freight only as a tributary line, the same as other railroads.

As a result of the dissolution of the Rock Island and Frisco interests it is said there will be in the neighborhood of 100 appointments in the ranks of operating officials. This will mean promotions for scores of men in the service of the two systems.

Cigarette Smoker is Run to Earth

He is One Man Not Allowed in the Corn Exposition, and Posses Gets Him.

Mike Dempsey, sergeant of police of Omaha and mighty chief of the National Corn exposition police and detective forces, led the search.

Detectives and policemen stealthily tipped down the aisles of corn and looked carefully under the stalls. They waited in quiet corners, gun and club in hand. The villain was like to be discovered at any moment.

A big detective strode out and laid his hands on the culprit at last. Caught red-handed!

Patience and perseverance had been rewarded and the cigarette smoker who defied exposition regulations had been run to earth. He was thrown into the expo battle and will never again see the "makins" or the light of day.

It was the first "pinch" at the show.

COUNTY BOARD WRANGLES OVER HOSPITAL SCANDAL

Bruning is Accused of Trying to Shift Responsibility—English's Office Represented.

The Board of County Commissioners again wrangled Saturday over the county hospital scandal. Resumption of the case by the commissioners and the official appearance of the county attorney's office marked the early development of Saturday. Friday afternoon, the board whitewashed and dismissed Miss Lena Higgins, Dr. Bert Torgusen and E. R. Seaton. This action was confirmed by vote Saturday.

Miss Higgins was a visitor before the board met at its rooms at the court house. She consulted with Commissioner Trainor and Grant, who are her earnest supporters. The verdict of Friday she would not discuss with any one else.

Commissioner Pickard was thoroughly determined that Miss Higgins shall not be reinstated. Lined up with him was Jeff W. Bedford, Jr. and Fred Bruning will vote with them on this point. Bruning cannot talk of this phase of the matter long, for he returns each time to his suggestion "that the whole matter be referred back to the medical staff," a proposition which he advanced at least twenty times Friday. His colleagues then told him he was trying to shift responsibility.

Commissioner Trainor's resolution, which was defeated 3 to 2, contained a statement that "the whole conduct of the hospital be more thorough and circumspect, that patients may not suffer from neglect and inattention."

County Attorney English said with reference to the scandal:

"We have been talking to the medical staff and Mr. Magney is devoting his personal attention to the alleged crime committed at the hospital."

DEPUTY SHERIFF THOMPSON IS ROBBED AT FLORENCE

Loses Some Fine China and Negro Suspect Arrested at South Omaha.

A deputy sheriff's badge is not a guaranty of security and this fact M. B. Thompson, one of Sheriff Bralley's deputies at Florence, has discovered. He found his own premises had been invaded and that his wife's valued store of china and been decreased by about half a barrel.

The china had been stored in barrels and placed in the barn, which was locked up. He was led to examine his own property by a message from South Omaha, where a negro named William Peterson had been arrested, having in his possession numerous pieces of china ranging through the whole category of dining room articles. The negro said he came from Florence. Officer Jake Small found him carrying the sack full of china about 3 p. m. Friday and landed the man in jail on suspicion.

Saturday morning, taking the tip that the man came from Florence, the South Omaha police warned Sheriff Bralley and he called up the Florence deputy and told him to make inquiry to see if any of the residents had lost china. He, knowing that some negroes who had worked on the cement gang had occupied the barn for a few days as sleeping quarters, went at once to examine his own property, and needed no further search. He and Mrs. Thompson went at once to South Omaha and identified the missing china, and a clear case is thought to be made against Stephenson. The barn was found broken open, so a burglary charge will probably be filed.

SWAMPED

The one word exactly fitting the condition confronting our tuners, polishers and teams during the past ten days.

Just now we are again where we can see daylight. Announcement in The Sunday Bee a week ago of our GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY PIANO SALE—stating our determination to clear our floors of every piano before Christmas met with such unexpected response from wide-awake-piano-buyers as to completely carry us off our feet and demoralize our regular arrangements for handling this—which is the largest piano business of the West. Instruments were quickly selected and purchased without delay. Inquiries and orders by wire and letter came from nearly every western state. We simply had to quit advertising our

Golden Anniversary Piano Sale

- until we were up with deliveries. Now we are ready for the final clearance. Extra men have been secured. Extra teams to make deliveries promptly. Every last instrument remaining in our salesrooms goes on sale beginning Monday morning. PRICES guaranteed to be from $100.00 to $200.00 below regular retail quotations. This sale is not to secure immediate profit. It is to move our stock. Our Pianos will be a better investment and advertisement for
- this company in the homes of our customers throughout Omaha, Nebraska and the West than in our salesrooms. As a result of this Golden Anniversary Sale we estimate that 1910 will be the greatest year in our history. And that's our policy, building securely and by honorable methods for the future. Here are samples of Piano Bargains to be seen and secured by calling at our salesrooms immediately. Don't delay, but come early tomorrow.

Fred Behm Fiddles for Uncle Joe—"Just say for me that Fred Behm is going to play the fiddle at the eightieth birthday party at the Rome hotel, don't put it up," said Uncle Joe Redman. "The sup starts at 7 o'clock p. m. and will run for two hours, Tuesday the 14th. There is going to be plenty of Walker Bros. of Florence native wine, and of Port Redman's native cider. That's why it's going to be a sup and not a supper. You might say something about the social time and dance. Say, and it isn't going to be any excited affair. I want everybody to come. It isn't often that a young fellow like me can celebrate his eightieth birthday."

Fruit Growers Meet—The Omaha Fruit Growers association held its annual meeting Saturday at the court house. D. Deyo, president of the association, could not be present on account of illness in his family, and Vice President W. L. Crosby presided. The principal business was the report of G. W. Reye, manager of the association. A new board of directors was to be elected at the afternoon session.

Funeral of Patrick Hanna—The funeral services over the late Patrick Hanna took place Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock from the family home, 1809 Webster street, and Holy Family church. Father Fitzpatrick officiated at requiem high mass. Interment was made in Holy Sepulcher cemetery. The pallbearers were Thomas McStravick, Thomas McAlender, John Kernan, John Lynch, Richard Thomas, T. Leary, Wilbur M. Lemon and Frank Hockgassing.

Can it Really Be True?—Complaints have been a-wa-aw out and warrants issued for the arrest of four local coal dealers, charging them with selling by short weight. The complaints were sworn out by John G. Pezz, city assessor of weights and measures. The accused are H. P. Hanson, A. Alpin, Morris Rosenblatt, W. T. Shakkelford and H. H. Dickey. The accused will likely be arraigned in police court Monday morning.

Great Dinner Postponed—Because of the failure of the first batch of pickle to "work" properly, the eighth ward goat feast, planned by Charley Shabat, has been postponed until Christmas time. Those who may gather tonight in response to earlier announcement at the Democratic club headquarters, Twenty-first and Cuming streets, will be treated to a taste of the unpickled portions of the goat's anatomy, just to whet their appetites for the big spread later.

Tips of Being Fugitive and Surrender
—Abel Howarth of the Eighty-second company, Coast artillery United States army, who deserted last April from Fort Totten, N. Y., surrendered himself to the adjutant general of the Department of the Missouri Saturday morning. He had tired of being a fugitive upon whose head was the offer of a $50 reward, and concluded to return to the army and take whatever was coming to him for desertion. He was sent to Fort Crook this afternoon to await further action in his case.

Court Revives Marital Love—A few weeks in county jail convinced Esto Hunt that he does really love his wife and baby. Mr. Hunt was once skeptical on this point. Skeptical to the extent of abandoning his wife, so that their son was born in the county hospital. When Judge Sutton in district court sentenced Hunt after conviction of wife abandonment, he told Hunt that when Mrs. Hunt came to the court and persuaded him that Hunt would do better, he would parole him. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt and the baby came to court Saturday morning and Hunt swore fervently that he would try to atone for past neglect if given the opportunity. The court then paroled him.
