HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS GUESTS OF UNIVERSITY

Omaha Varsity is Scene of Merry Gathering—Prominent Educators Speak.

The University of Omaha held a reception to the seniors of the Omaha High school last night at the university building, 3612 North Twenty-fourth street. The reception was attended by a majority of the high school seniors and a number of the members of the faculty.

The reception hall was decorated in festoons which combined the colors of the high school dresses of '09 and '05 and the red and black of the university. The function figured as an introduction to the school for many who may become students in the institution and represented an effort on the part of the university to interest the young people of Omaha in its work.

A program which included addresses by W. M. Davidson, superintendent of the public schools; Dr. D. E. Jenkins, acting president of the University of Omaha, and Judge Howard Kennedy of the board of trustees, constituted part of the evening's entertainment.

Dr. Jenkins urged the importance of the university for the Omaha young people who would choose to complete their training without leaving the city and indicated the future significance of the school.

Among other members of the university faculty present were: Dr. H. H. Maynard, Prof. W. N. Hultby, Prof. E. H. Mitchell, Prof. Charles E. Herron, Prof. W. E. Leonard, Miss Mildred McLean and Mrs. C. P. Ross. The high school faculty was represented by Prof. E. U. Graff, principal; Prof. Nathan Bernstein, Prof. Carstenson, Miss Kewitt, Miss Penelope Smith, Miss Jane Smith and Miss Kate McHugh.

In the receiving line were Mr. Stanton Salesbury, Miss Pansy Williams, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Graff, Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Davidson, Prof. and Mrs. Currens, Mr. Grover Smith and Miss Zella Beebe.

SLAP OF PASSERBY ENDS SERIOUSLY FOR E. L. GIBSON

Gothenburg Man Staggers Against Stranger and is in Hospital with Fractured Skull.

E. L. Gibson of Gothenburg, Neb., was slapped by a man on the street and fell down, injuring his head, and it is thought, fracturing his skull. Gibson staggered against a passerby, who shoved him aside, and the former fell in front of the Mercantile hotel.

He was taken to the dispensary at the police station, where he was attended by Drs. T. T. Harris and Hinkely. They were unable to find the fracture, but the symptoms were apparent. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital for treatment.

John Bates and G. W. Thomas of Florence were found lying in the snow at Thirteenth and Pine streets, severely chilled. It is thought Mr. Bates' limbs are frozen and that he may have contracted pneumonia. Mr. Thomas was not in a serious condition.

Thomas was released on bail, which he forfeited in police court Saturday, while Bates was sent back for a day to sober up.

John Brown, also picked up Friday night to keep him from freezing to death, was discharged by Judge Crawford.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Year is Closing with Volume of Business Above Normal.

HIGH PRICES WILL CONTINUE

Commercial World is Adjusting Itself to New Conditions as Rapidly as Possible.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade today says:

The year is closing with the volume of business here to more than the normal point and with confidence fully restored. The prevailing high commodity prices indeed produce considerable irregularity and there is much discussion among conservatives of economic conditions as to their effect on the money market and the industrial
