WOMEN'S SOCIAL GOSSIP. Mrs. J. P. Lord Introduces Her Daughter to Society.

The debut reception given this afternoon by Mrs. J. P. Lord to introduce to society her charming daughter, Miss Louise Lord, was one of the charming social affairs of the week.

The guests were received by Mrs. Lord and Miss Lord in the music room, which was filled with beautiful cut flowers sent by the many friends of the debutante.

Palms and ferns were also effectively used in the room. The hall, library and den were brightened with holly, poinsettia and huge red ribbon bows.

Miss Lord was becomingly crowned in white with real lace and pearls. She carried a large bouquet of American Beauty roses with ribbon of the same shade.

The senior prom last evening, which was given by the members of the senior class of the Omaha High school, was a decided success.

Harry D. Kelly gave an Orpheum party last evening in honor of Miss Grace Burbank, who is the guest of Miss Olive Baker.

BABY RESTLESS AND SUFFERING. With Severe Eczema—Spread from Face All Over Scalp—Developed into a Solid Scab and Her Ears Seemed Ready to Come Off.

My baby suffered about three weeks and she was in a very bad condition. The eczema commenced on her face and spread all over the scalp.

Some Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and I decided to give them a trial. I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment.

Baroness Leaves Belgium. Favorite of Late King Takes Hint from the Government.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 21.—Baroness Vaughan, whom Leopold made his queen in fact, if not in name, quietly left Belgium today.

The baroness packed up those magnificent furnishings of her chateau, which were the personal gifts of King Leopold, and forwarded them across the frontier.

She herself took a train for France. To the Belgians this good-looking young woman, with brown hair and gleaming black eyes, was always a great mystery.

She accepted her life like that, and the other women of the royal household, who were willing kings. They have thought for years of her residence beside the king's, of the famous floral bridge linking the two domains.

They have discussed with unconcern her absolute dominion over the king's private life. Yet, now, with the king dead, they have been driven to deep resentment.

They have been driven to deep resentment. They have been driven to deep resentment. They have been driven to deep resentment.

Shoot Officer Free, but Steal Fur Five Years. Social Events of Note at Which O'Keefe, P. M. and J. J. Took Part.

John Deleena, like the piloter, went once too often to the wall. Mr. Deleena was in the fountain of justice as it oozes forth in the district court of Douglas county.

Deleena is doubly known to fame. Once he took a pot-shot at Officer Cunningham of the Omaha police force and a tender-hearted juror found him guilty of assault and battery and recommended the minimum punishment—1 cent fine and one minute in jail.

Rash prophets then predicted that Deleena might some day get worse in district court. Subsequently Deleena forayed upon the Ainsburgh fur store and caught furhanded. To this he pleaded guilty—and has now received a five-year sentence from Judge Sutton.
