MISSION WORK BY STUDENTS

Volunteer Movement Recruiting Agency for Foreign Field.

OVER FOUR THOUSAND TO CREDIT

Increase in Missionary Giving Another Result of Organization, According to Report of Executive Committee.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 30.—The report of the executive committee of the Student Volunteer Movement of Foreign Missions, at present in session in this city, sets forth that the primary and permanent function of the movement is that of a recruiting agency seeking to obtain a sufficient number of well-qualified volunteers to meet the requirements of the mission boards of North America.

Another test of the rising tide of practical missionary interest among students is the increase in their missionary giving.

At Nashville it was reported that the students of North America were contributing $50,000 a year to missionary objects.

The last four years have been a record-breaking period in the promotion of missions among students.
