The New Year.

The year just closed was one of unusual activity in all directions.

For 1910 the outlook is most encouraging. The future beckons eternally, and the restless ambition of man's nature spurs him on to greater attempts and greater achievements.

Saloon License in Omaha.

Once more the annual nightmare for the Fire and Police board of Omaha is over.

The court of St. James no longer means London to New Yorkers, but instead Gagnon's country home over in Long Island, the Mecca for politicians during the holiday week in spite of snowdrifts.

New Year Songs

A Tear for the Old, a Cheer for the New, Vocalized in Tones Fitted to the Day.

Ring out the Old, Ring in the New. Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky; The flying cloud, the frosty light; The year is dying with the night; Ring out, wild bells, and let him die!

Ring out the Old, Ring in the New. Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky; The flying cloud, the frosty light; The year is dying with the night; Ring out, wild bells, and let him die!

NEW YEAR REFLECTIONS. Mr. Happy N. Y. has the floor. Swear off, if you must, but don't wrench the megaphone. Last year's resolutions, brushed up, will serve and save labor.

LAST YEAR'S SMILES. "These gamblers who prey upon the unwary in a great city are like the stars in the night sky." "In what respect, I would like to know?" "Don't they sin till late?" - Baltimore American.

NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS. Ten resolutions New Year's Day so fine: One got very thirsty, then there were nine. Nine resolutions, virtuous seeds; One smoked a pipe, then there were eight.

A Happy New Year. We wish to thank our friends and patrons for their generous patronage of the year just closed and hope for a continuance of same for the coming year. Wishing you one and all a Happy and Prosperous New Year. Browning, King & Co. CLOTHING, FURNISHINGS AND HATS, FIFTEENTH AND DOUGLAS STREETS, OMAHA. R. B. WILCOX, Manager
