DAN CUPID CLOSES THE LID Matrimonial Raid on Jersey Factory Girl Makes the Village Gasp.

The community of Bridgeton, N. J., will go as far as the next to encourage marriage and keep its native sons and daughters at home by lassoing them in couples. It indorses without reservation the benefits of matrimony, but when cupid comes along and corners the market, swats one of Bridgeton's most flourishing industries and makes the village gasp, it is time to preach moderation.

ANY WOMAN MAY LOOK WELL Prevailing Fashions in Evening Gowns May Be Worn by Any Figure.

The woman who cannot look well in an evening gown this season is a hopeless proposition, for the designers have offered an amazing latitude of line and period. To be sure, there is still the slender silhouette. The feminine insistence upon that point gave a slight check to the autumnal movement toward full skirts and materials of more body; but this insistence has brought about a happy state of affairs.

BOY COMES BACK OLD MAN Wanderer for Forty-Five Years Finds Father and Mother at Home.

His hair grown gray with the lapse of the years that passed from the night when as a boy he left his father's home, aged 22, to the night of his return, aged 67, John Frenshaw walked into the home of his father Christmas night at the old home stand near Nashville, Ind., and greeted the parents who had looked and longed and prayed for his return for nearly half a century.

Prattle of the Youngsters.

One day 5-year-old Bobby was severely chastised by his mother, who had previously told him of his prehistoric whereabouts. "Mamma," he sobbed, "I wish I had stayed in h-heaven."

How Pat Counted Them.

Racial pride is a kind of patriotism that lasts as long as any sentiment. The story is told of a stranger in Milwaukee, who, seeing an Irishman at work in the street, asked him what was the population of the town.

On the Branch Line.

The train on the branch road never went very fast. There were various reasons for this, all good ones. Nevertheless, travelers from more populous districts sometimes expressed forcible opinions on the subject.

Wireless Equipment on Ships.

The New Zealand house of representatives has empowered the committee to make regulations requiring passenger ships to carry wireless telegraphy apparatus. It is probable that some vessels trading between New Zealand and Australia will be fitted with the necessary apparatus within a few days.

Fairly Caught.

A college professor who was always ready for a joke was asked by a student one day if he would like a good recipe for catching rabbits. "Why, yes," replied the professor. "What is it?"

Getting Even.

Mayor Schuck of Dubuque, at a recent press banquet, recalled a quarrel between two Dubuque editors.

Reflections of a Spinster.

When kissing becomes a fine art it ceases to be a pleasure. "But Smith," he said, "morning is the badge of settled domesticity. For a kiss to mean anything it must mean everything."
