

Council Bluffs
Minor Mention
The Council Bluffs Office of the Omaha Bee is at 15 Scott Street, Both 'Phones 43.

Council Bluffs
JOHNS CHAIRMAN OF BOARD
Supervisors Change Organization for Ensuing Year.

Council Bluffs
Mrs. R. M. Sprague
Re-Elected Head
Woman's Christian Association Selects Officers—Condition of Jennie Edmundson Hospital.

Council Bluffs
COUNCIL WILL NOT APPEAL
Not Enough in Licenses to Fight Dairy-men.

Thousand Men
Sent Northwest
Since Wednesday
Railroad Managers Say They are to Take Places of Striking Switchmen.

OFFICER SHOTS HEDGEPEATH
Ames Avenue Car Barn Robber Killed in Chicago.

Guaranteed!
The Waltham Watch Company guarantees its watches in the broadest way when they have been bought of a regular jeweler, but they cannot do so if obtained from a general store.

Minor Mention
Davis, drug.
Diamond playing the best vandeille.

Board Completes Preparation and County Officials Draw Names to Act for Month of January.
The Board of Supervisors for Pottawattamie county reorganized yesterday for the ensuing year by electing T. J. Johns of Center as chairman.

At the annual meeting of the Woman's Christian association held yesterday afternoon in the assembly room of the Young Men's Christian association building Mrs. R. M. Sprague was re-elected president.

The city council last night decided not to appeal from the decision of Judge Snyder of the superior court in the pure milk ordinance case, in which the court held that the city had not the right to require dairymen to pay for a license from the municipality to sell milk.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—It was announced here tonight by the railroad managers that more than a thousand men had been sent to the northwest to take the places of striking switchmen since negotiations for a settlement of the difficulties were closed last Wednesday in St. Paul.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—A man known to the police as Edward Heywood, who was shot and killed here New Year's morning by a policeman after he had robbed a saloon, was identified today as Marion Hedgepeth, notorious safe blower and train robber.

WALTHAM WATCHES
jewelers know how to regulate and put a watch in perfect shape for starting up.

Star chapter of the Arch of Honor, will meet this evening in regular convocation. After the regular business the master's degree will be conferred.

The division of the county for road and bridge work among the members of the board was made as follows:
Harris—Crescent, Garner, Lewis, Keg Creek.

The report of the president showed that the association had 101 members. The report of Mrs. Thomas, the treasurer, showed the receipts of the association for the last year were $7,512.32 and the disbursements $2,825.48.

Another effort will be made to come to some agreement with the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company relative to bringing the company's tracks on Avenue A to grade, and Councilmen Jensen, Bellinger and McMillen were appointed a committee by the mayor to confer with the company.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 3.—Marion Hedgepeth, killed by a Chicago policeman, gained his parole from the Missouri penitentiary after serving twelve years of a twenty-five year sentence, for turning over to the police H. H. Holmes, known as "the arch-murderer," later executed for his crimes in Philadelphia.

Hedgepeth, with three others, robbed a St. Louis and San Francisco train of $23,000 at Glendale, Mo., in 1894. He was convicted and sentenced to twenty-five years. While waiting to be taken to the penitentiary, he recognized a man in an adjoining cell as Holmes, an informant of Cooper, Missouri, in 1883, and served six years in the penitentiary. He was 45 years of age.

CHICAGO DOCTORS PRAISE RADIUM TREATMENT
WILL SURELY CURE.
Omaha Radium Institute Will Prove Its Success by Free Trial Treatment.

The preliminary hearing of Earl Fouts, charged with the theft of $300 worth of brass machine fittings from the warehouse of David Bradley & Co., was continued in Justice Cooper's court yesterday on motion of the defense. The hearing has been set for Friday next.

The division of the county for road and bridge work among the members of the board was made as follows:
Harris—Crescent, Garner, Lewis, Keg Creek.

The report of the president showed that the association had 101 members. The report of Mrs. Thomas, the treasurer, showed the receipts of the association for the last year were $7,512.32 and the disbursements $2,825.48.

Another effort will be made to come to some agreement with the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company relative to bringing the company's tracks on Avenue A to grade, and Councilmen Jensen, Bellinger and McMillen were appointed a committee by the mayor to confer with the company.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 3.—Marion Hedgepeth, killed by a Chicago policeman, gained his parole from the Missouri penitentiary after serving twelve years of a twenty-five year sentence, for turning over to the police H. H. Holmes, known as "the arch-murderer," later executed for his crimes in Philadelphia.

Hedgepeth, with three others, robbed a St. Louis and San Francisco train of $23,000 at Glendale, Mo., in 1894. He was convicted and sentenced to twenty-five years. While waiting to be taken to the penitentiary, he recognized a man in an adjoining cell as Holmes, an informant of Cooper, Missouri, in 1883, and served six years in the penitentiary. He was 45 years of age.

CHICAGO DOCTORS PRAISE RADIUM TREATMENT
WILL SURELY CURE.
Omaha Radium Institute Will Prove Its Success by Free Trial Treatment.

Star chapter of the Arch of Honor, will meet this evening in regular convocation. After the regular business the master's degree will be conferred.

The division of the county for road and bridge work among the members of the board was made as follows:
Harris—Crescent, Garner, Lewis, Keg Creek.

The report of the president showed that the association had 101 members. The report of Mrs. Thomas, the treasurer, showed the receipts of the association for the last year were $7,512.32 and the disbursements $2,825.48.

Another effort will be made to come to some agreement with the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company relative to bringing the company's tracks on Avenue A to grade, and Councilmen Jensen, Bellinger and McMillen were appointed a committee by the mayor to confer with the company.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 3.—Marion Hedgepeth, killed by a Chicago policeman, gained his parole from the Missouri penitentiary after serving twelve years of a twenty-five year sentence, for turning over to the police H. H. Holmes, known as "the arch-murderer," later executed for his crimes in Philadelphia.

Hedgepeth, with three others, robbed a St. Louis and San Francisco train of $23,000 at Glendale, Mo., in 1894. He was convicted and sentenced to twenty-five years. While waiting to be taken to the penitentiary, he recognized a man in an adjoining cell as Holmes, an informant of Cooper, Missouri, in 1883, and served six years in the penitentiary. He was 45 years of age.

CHICAGO DOCTORS PRAISE RADIUM TREATMENT
WILL SURELY CURE.
Omaha Radium Institute Will Prove Its Success by Free Trial Treatment.

Star chapter of the Arch of Honor, will meet this evening in regular convocation. After the regular business the master's degree will be conferred.

The division of the county for road and bridge work among the members of the board was made as follows:
Harris—Crescent, Garner, Lewis, Keg Creek.

The report of the president showed that the association had 101 members. The report of Mrs. Thomas, the treasurer, showed the receipts of the association for the last year were $7,512.32 and the disbursements $2,825.48.

Another effort will be made to come to some agreement with the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company relative to bringing the company's tracks on Avenue A to grade, and Councilmen Jensen, Bellinger and McMillen were appointed a committee by the mayor to confer with the company.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 3.—Marion Hedgepeth, killed by a Chicago policeman, gained his parole from the Missouri penitentiary after serving twelve years of a twenty-five year sentence, for turning over to the police H. H. Holmes, known as "the arch-murderer," later executed for his crimes in Philadelphia.

Hedgepeth, with three others, robbed a St. Louis and San Francisco train of $23,000 at Glendale, Mo., in 1894. He was convicted and sentenced to twenty-five years. While waiting to be taken to the penitentiary, he recognized a man in an adjoining cell as Holmes, an informant of Cooper, Missouri, in 1883, and served six years in the penitentiary. He was 45 years of age.

CHICAGO DOCTORS PRAISE RADIUM TREATMENT
WILL SURELY CURE.
Omaha Radium Institute Will Prove Its Success by Free Trial Treatment.

Star chapter of the Arch of Honor, will meet this evening in regular convocation. After the regular business the master's degree will be conferred.

The division of the county for road and bridge work among the members of the board was made as follows:
Harris—Crescent, Garner, Lewis, Keg Creek.

The report of the president showed that the association had 101 members. The report of Mrs. Thomas, the treasurer, showed the receipts of the association for the last year were $7,512.32 and the disbursements $2,825.48.

Another effort will be made to come to some agreement with the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company relative to bringing the company's tracks on Avenue A to grade, and Councilmen Jensen, Bellinger and McMillen were appointed a committee by the mayor to confer with the company.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 3.—Marion Hedgepeth, killed by a Chicago policeman, gained his parole from the Missouri penitentiary after serving twelve years of a twenty-five year sentence, for turning over to the police H. H. Holmes, known as "the arch-murderer," later executed for his crimes in Philadelphia.

Hedgepeth, with three others, robbed a St. Louis and San Francisco train of $23,000 at Glendale, Mo., in 1894. He was convicted and sentenced to twenty-five years. While waiting to be taken to the penitentiary, he recognized a man in an adjoining cell as Holmes, an informant of Cooper, Missouri, in 1883, and served six years in the penitentiary. He was 45 years of age.

CHICAGO DOCTORS PRAISE RADIUM TREATMENT
WILL SURELY CURE.
Omaha Radium Institute Will Prove Its Success by Free Trial Treatment.

Star chapter of the Arch of Honor, will meet this evening in regular convocation. After the regular business the master's degree will be conferred.

The division of the county for road and bridge work among the members of the board was made as follows:
Harris—Crescent, Garner, Lewis, Keg Creek.

The report of the president showed that the association had 101 members. The report of Mrs. Thomas, the treasurer, showed the receipts of the association for the last year were $7,512.32 and the disbursements $2,825.48.

Another effort will be made to come to some agreement with the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company relative to bringing the company's tracks on Avenue A to grade, and Councilmen Jensen, Bellinger and McMillen were appointed a committee by the mayor to confer with the company.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 3.—Marion Hedgepeth, killed by a Chicago policeman, gained his parole from the Missouri penitentiary after serving twelve years of a twenty-five year sentence, for turning over to the police H. H. Holmes, known as "the arch-murderer," later executed for his crimes in Philadelphia.

Hedgepeth, with three others, robbed a St. Louis and San Francisco train of $23,000 at Glendale, Mo., in 1894. He was convicted and sentenced to twenty-five years. While waiting to be taken to the penitentiary, he recognized a man in an adjoining cell as Holmes, an informant of Cooper, Missouri, in 1883, and served six years in the penitentiary. He was 45 years of age.

CHICAGO DOCTORS PRAISE RADIUM TREATMENT
WILL SURELY CURE.
Omaha Radium Institute Will Prove Its Success by Free Trial Treatment.

Star chapter of the Arch of Honor, will meet this evening in regular convocation. After the regular business the master's degree will be conferred.

The division of the county for road and bridge work among the members of the board was made as follows:
Harris—Crescent, Garner, Lewis, Keg Creek.

The report of the president showed that the association had 101 members. The report of Mrs. Thomas, the treasurer, showed the receipts of the association for the last year were $7,512.32 and the disbursements $2,825.48.

Another effort will be made to come to some agreement with the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company relative to bringing the company's tracks on Avenue A to grade, and Councilmen Jensen, Bellinger and McMillen were appointed a committee by the mayor to confer with the company.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 3.—Marion Hedgepeth, killed by a Chicago policeman, gained his parole from the Missouri penitentiary after serving twelve years of a twenty-five year sentence, for turning over to the police H. H. Holmes, known as "the arch-murderer," later executed for his crimes in Philadelphia.

Hedgepeth, with three others, robbed a St. Louis and San Francisco train of $23,000 at Glendale, Mo., in 1894. He was convicted and sentenced to twenty-five years. While waiting to be taken to the penitentiary, he recognized a man in an adjoining cell as Holmes, an informant of Cooper, Missouri, in 1883, and served six years in the penitentiary. He was 45 years of age.

CHICAGO DOCTORS PRAISE RADIUM TREATMENT
WILL SURELY CURE.
Omaha Radium Institute Will Prove Its Success by Free Trial Treatment.

Star chapter of the Arch of Honor, will meet this evening in regular convocation. After the regular business the master's degree will be conferred.

The division of the county for road and bridge work among the members of the board was made as follows:
Harris—Crescent, Garner, Lewis, Keg Creek.

The report of the president showed that the association had 101 members. The report of Mrs. Thomas, the treasurer, showed the receipts of the association for the last year were $7,512.32 and the disbursements $2,825.48.

Another effort will be made to come to some agreement with the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company relative to bringing the company's tracks on Avenue A to grade, and Councilmen Jensen, Bellinger and McMillen were appointed a committee by the mayor to confer with the company.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 3.—Marion Hedgepeth, killed by a Chicago policeman, gained his parole from the Missouri penitentiary after serving twelve years of a twenty-five year sentence, for turning over to the police H. H. Holmes, known as "the arch-murderer," later executed for his crimes in Philadelphia.

Hedgepeth, with three others, robbed a St. Louis and San Francisco train of $23,000 at Glendale, Mo., in 1894. He was convicted and sentenced to twenty-five years. While waiting to be taken to the penitentiary, he recognized a man in an adjoining cell as Holmes, an informant of Cooper, Missouri, in 1883, and served six years in the penitentiary. He was 45 years of age.

CHICAGO DOCTORS PRAISE RADIUM TREATMENT
WILL SURELY CURE.
Omaha Radium Institute Will Prove Its Success by Free Trial Treatment.

Star chapter of the Arch of Honor, will meet this evening in regular convocation. After the regular business the master's degree will be conferred.

The division of the county for road and bridge work among the members of the board was made as follows:
Harris—Crescent, Garner, Lewis, Keg Creek.

The report of the president showed that the association had 101 members. The report of Mrs. Thomas, the treasurer, showed the receipts of the association for the last year were $7,512.32 and the disbursements $2,825.48.

Another effort will be made to come to some agreement with the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company relative to bringing the company's tracks on Avenue A to grade, and Councilmen Jensen, Bellinger and McMillen were appointed a committee by the mayor to confer with the company.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 3.—Marion Hedgepeth, killed by a Chicago policeman, gained his parole from the Missouri penitentiary after serving twelve years of a twenty-five year sentence, for turning over to the police H. H. Holmes, known as "the arch-murderer," later executed for his crimes in Philadelphia.

Hedgepeth, with three others, robbed a St. Louis and San Francisco train of $23,000 at Glendale, Mo., in 1894. He was convicted and sentenced to twenty-five years. While waiting to be taken to the penitentiary, he recognized a man in an adjoining cell as Holmes, an informant of Cooper, Missouri, in 1883, and served six years in the penitentiary. He was 45 years of age.

CHICAGO DOCTORS PRAISE RADIUM TREATMENT
WILL SURELY CURE.
Omaha Radium Institute Will Prove Its Success by Free Trial Treatment.

Star chapter of the Arch of Honor, will meet this evening in regular convocation. After the regular business the master's degree will be conferred.

The division of the county for road and bridge work among the members of the board was made as follows:
Harris—Crescent, Garner, Lewis, Keg Creek.

The report of the president showed that the association had 101 members. The report of Mrs. Thomas, the treasurer, showed the receipts of the association for the last year were $7,512.32 and the disbursements $2,825.48.

Another effort will be made to come to some agreement with the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company relative to bringing the company's tracks on Avenue A to grade, and Councilmen Jensen, Bellinger and McMillen were appointed a committee by the mayor to confer with the company.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 3.—Marion Hedgepeth, killed by a Chicago policeman, gained his parole from the Missouri penitentiary after serving twelve years of a twenty-five year sentence, for turning over to the police H. H. Holmes, known as "the arch-murderer," later executed for his crimes in Philadelphia.

Hedgepeth, with three others, robbed a St. Louis and San Francisco train of $23,000 at Glendale, Mo., in 1894. He was convicted and sentenced to twenty-five years. While waiting to be taken to the penitentiary, he recognized a man in an adjoining cell as Holmes, an informant of Cooper, Missouri, in 1883, and served six years in the penitentiary. He was 45 years of age.

CHICAGO DOCTORS PRAISE RADIUM TREATMENT
WILL SURELY CURE.
Omaha Radium Institute Will Prove Its Success by Free Trial Treatment.

Star chapter of the Arch of Honor, will meet this evening in regular convocation. After the regular business the master's degree will be conferred.

The division of the county for road and bridge work among the members of the board was made as follows:
Harris—Crescent, Garner, Lewis, Keg Creek.

The report of the president showed that the association had 101 members. The report of Mrs. Thomas, the treasurer, showed the receipts of the association for the last year were $7,512.32 and the disbursements $2,825.48.

Another effort will be made to come to some agreement with the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company relative to bringing the company's tracks on Avenue A to grade, and Councilmen Jensen, Bellinger and McMillen were appointed a committee by the mayor to confer with the company.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 3.—Marion Hedgepeth, killed by a Chicago policeman, gained his parole from the Missouri penitentiary after serving twelve years of a twenty-five year sentence, for turning over to the police H. H. Holmes, known as "the arch-murderer," later executed for his crimes in Philadelphia.

Hedgepeth, with three others, robbed a St. Louis and San Francisco train of $23,000 at Glendale, Mo., in 1894. He was convicted and sentenced to twenty-five years. While waiting to be taken to the penitentiary, he recognized a man in an adjoining cell as Holmes, an informant of Cooper, Missouri, in 1883, and served six years in the penitentiary. He was 45 years of age.

CHICAGO DOCTORS PRAISE RADIUM TREATMENT
WILL SURELY CURE.
Omaha Radium Institute Will Prove Its Success by Free Trial Treatment.