Ninth—Lehman and Stapenhorst, curve and Bungalows roll tonight. The score:

Bessiln's Mixers took three games from the Hollys last night. The new pins got the Hollys, as their scores show. By taking these games the Mixers are in a good lead for first place. Derby Woolen Mills and Bungalows roll tonight. The score:

Night.

The old man and his boy will shine in that wrestling-boxing firmament at the Auditorium Friday night, Farmer Burns will wrestle Frank Gotch. Manager Gillan has received a telegram stating that Dr. Roller, who has suffered an attack of ptomaine poisoning, will not be able to keep his engagement to meet Gotch in Omaha that night and Burns has agreed to take the doctor's place. The Farmer is the man who put the finishing touches on Gotch that enabled him to become the world's champion wrestler; he knows everything that Gotch knows and does, and, if possible, Burns knows a great deal more than Gotch knows about the game of pinning a man's shoulders to the padded mat.

Of the old man Gotch, himself, once said to the writer, "You may talk as you please of the great wrestlers of the world-Muldoon, Lewis, Carkeek, McLeod, Jenkins, Hackenschmidt and myself-but for the most finished artist of them all you've 1.292 got to come back to old Farmer Burns." The Farmer has been "working" all winter and is going as fast as ever, despite

> New President of National League at Session of Commission.

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 5.—Thomas J. Lynch, new president of the National base ball league, appeared for the first time as a member of the supreme court of base ball at the annual meeting of the National commission here today. The meeting itself was more or less perfunctory, all the officers being re-elected and few cases being up for discussion. up for discussion.

The annual report of August Hermann, chairman of the commission, was read and the selection of a chairman and a secretary for the ensuing year followed.

Tonight President Lynch will be a guest of honor at a dinner given by Mr. Hermann and President Johnson of the American league—his associates on the commission.

About thirty perrons have been invited.
