Competitions Here.

Competitions Here. Manager Gillan of the Auditorium is working in conjunction with the promoters of the big annual track meet, which is scheduled for Omaha for the middle of March. Other cities have set the pace for these and the colleges around Omaha have asked that this city stand sponsor for a big meet to which all the colleges of Ne-braska and western Iowa will be invited, Colleges and universities of Missouri and Kansas may also take part. Hen Cherring-ton, a student of the University of Ne-braska, is originator of the scheme and he now has the support of the athistic asso-olation of the university. Kansas City has been holding similar meets for some years and they not only draw athistics from all the colleges, but draw an immense crowd of interested spectators. It is planned to hold the meet in the Auditorium. REFORM SCHEME FOR 'FRISCO Committee Appointed by Mayor Sug-
