Look for yourself and see whether you think I am in condition to fight. I weigh Tifteen pounds less than I ever did while traveling on the road, although I have picked up a few pounds since leaving the Bullard south, as the bad weather and the continual jumps on the trains make it hard to do any road work, and I have done little lately except the work in the exhibitions." , Jeffries looked the part, with his ruddy H, complexion and spiendid condition. He has F. Jeffries looked the part, with his ruddy worked away all the large stomach which worried so many of his admirers when the fight was first talked of.

Burns Will Feed 'Em All.

"This is the greatest combination of world champions ever put together," said Farmer Burns, as he awaited with his automobile for the two hig champs. 'Mother has rixed up a little German botted anner at the house and I am going to take the boys out to get something good to cut, but you must not say anything haous that in the paper. We have not Timed up just who will wrestle tonight, but and the boys will wrestle some one, and the people will see a great show." The Farmer lives in Omaha.

Jeffvies said the show combination would continue for about a month and then he would begin more strenuous work in anticipation of his bout with Jack Johnson

Jeff is still a man of mystery as far as most of the tight fans are concerned, be-cause it is recorded that heretofore no Weish man who has been retired as long as the big fellow has been able to come back to his former condicton. His actions tonight will be watched with great interest by those who have seen him in his great Burke battles, or even by those who have seen Figgerald him on the stage in his prime. The pessi- Francisco mists still refuse to believe that Jeffries can come back and win laurels from the present champion.

Those who doubt his physical condition are pretty apt to change their minds when they see the big fellow in action tonight for he looks to be in the best of health and condition.
