Wheat Sells More Easily on Eve of Break in Cash Values.

MOVEMENT WAITS ON WEATHER.

Ameloristica of Temperature is Expected to Increase Receipts-Corn Going More Freely, Following Decline in Wheat.

OMAHA, Jan. 8, 1910. OMAHA, Jan. 8, 1910.

The action of the wheat market was easier. Trades were inclined to get out of the holdings, fearing a break in the cash situation which has been on the upturn for some weeks. A very liberal movement is expected when warmer weather sets in.

turn for some weeks. A very liberal move-ment is expected when warmer weather sets in.

There was freer selling in corn, following the decline in wheat. The cash market held steady, but the best trades saw signs of a reaction following this recent bulge.

Wheat was show and prices eased off as soon as buying censed. Speculators were selling and clearing up the weeks trades, not caring to carry their lines over Sun-day. Cash demand was dull and bids were lower.

day. Cash demand was dull and closs and lower.

The demand for corn slackened and values eased off on clearing up sales for the week end. Prospects are for a good heavy movement and further decilings are probable for the time, until the demand picks up.

Primary wheat receipts were 465,000 bushels and shipments were 195,000 bushels and shipments of 162,000 bushels and shipments of 162,000 bushels.

Primary corn receipts were 263,000 bushels.

and shipments of 162,000 bushels.

Primary corn receipts were 263,000 bushels and shipments were 290,000 bushels against receipts last year of 378,600 bushels and shipments of 234,000 bushels.

Clearances were 215,000 bushels of corn. none of oats and wheat and flour equal to 475,000 bushels.

Liverpool closed 46d higher on wheat and 46d higher on corn. Liverpool closed 4sd and 4sd higher on corn.

A few soft spots were paying right and at Wednesday recommendation were paying right and at Wednesday recommendation of the previous week for the previous week. The advance was squally noticeable on both sheep and lambs, but, of course, the better classes of killers were given preference over the common and medium grades.

Since Wednesday, nothing especially new has happened. Many shipments, beinted by the severe weather earlier in the week, have swelled the week-end supply to imposs were upparent in the week. Thirty-Five to Sixty has been broad and the movement brisk. A few soft spots were apparent in the sheep branch of the trade, but prices for the most part have held up about steady with Wednesday's close. Strictly prime lambs are quotable up to $8.75, but the best lambs here this week topped at $8.75. There has been little doing in the feeder branch of the trade, for the reason that killers have been taking the big bulk of short-fed offerings and the demand for stock to finish at this time of the year is susually rather stack as well.

ACTION AND ADDRESS OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROP

sas City and David R. Francis and Joseph W. Folk, the two latter ex-governors of Missouri, had previously been shown off as candidates for the United States senate to succeed William Warner, republican, whose term expires on March 3, 1911, and at the informal conference held before the big meeting was called to order, the race for senator was discussed freely. The Ballinger-Pinchot episode was injected into the gathering when Representative Champ Clark, minority leader in the house of opresentatives said:

The dismissal of Forester Pinchot is ne of the first steps in Roosevelt's candidacy for the republican nonination for
