New Candidates for Political Places Appear Each Day.

G. S. KENNEDY FOR CITY CLERK

P. J. Barrett, from Other Side, After Same Office-Clapp Wants to Be Commissioner-Polish Singer Appears.

Each day several new candidates file for political nominations. The latest recruits are P. J. Barrett for city clerk on the democratic ticket and George & Kennedy on the republican ticket.

Several have filed for the office of coun-Among them were: Frank ilman. Aleksiewicz, democratic candidate in the Fifth ward; John Hasburgh, democratic candidate in the Fourth ward; Thomas Lisec, republican candidate in the Second ward; Luke Gaughan, democratic candidate in the Second ward; Fred Fefflinger, democratic candidate in the Fourth ward. C. M. Clapp filed as a candidate for the office of fire and police commissioner on the republican ticket.

Aiready some feeling has been vented on account of the new ward boundaries. The "outs" are objecting because, it is alleged, some of the "Ins" fixed the ward coundaries so that they should remain in the same ward in which they were elected before, and it has happened that some of the ambitious candidates in certain wards find that they are now in a new ward. Such trouble was expected, however, by the council when the boundaries were

Extensive Alterations

We are going to make extensive alterations and improvements in our store in pursuance of our policy to always have the most up-to-date store in town. Instead of our regular semi-annual 20% clearing sale we are going to give a 25% discount on all our winter weight clothing for men, boys and children, so that our stock will be quickly reduced to make room for the workmen February 1st. This sale starts Friday morning.

We have also put in this sale all the broken lines of light weight overcoats, raincoats, full dress, tuxedo and Prince Albert suits.

The clothing bearing the name of Browning, King & Co. is in a class by itself—quality is guaranteed by the name.

In clothing, as in everything else, there's a right and a wrong.

The wise man knows that he must pay for what is worth while; and that the deceptive price covers a multitude of promises. Plenty of clothing pretends to be what a lot of it isn't.

The Browning, King & Co. clothes are all that is claimed for them. We clean up our stock each season without the aid of "Half Price" and "Slaughter Sales."

You are not asked at the beginning of the season to pay, in whole, or in part, for the clothes that some one else may buy at half price at the end of the season.

When we cut prices it is for a good reason—equally good for you and for us—we both save money by the process.

ALREADY GETTING ESTIMATES

Figuring on New Department, Care of Plant and Ten Million-Dollar Bond Issue, with Few -Other Such Trifles.

The coming departure of John L. Webster for Washington to argue the water works case, which is expected to be up within the next ten days or two weeks, will give city councilmen cause for deep Mayor Dahlman makes little secret of his belief the award of the engineers will be upheld and the city compelled to take over the plant at the appraised valuation. Leaders on both sides in the council look for the same outcome and informally they have begun talk about what arrangements shall be made to care for the new department of city government. Estimates have been secured by at least two councilmen on the probable amount that will be required to construct new settling basins when the city owns the water works. The amount of $100,000 is the lowest that is figured on for this purpose, with a possible $250,000 more for a new main from Florence. A bond issue of $19,000,000 or more is now talked of tenatively by city officials, to make provision for proper water supply for Omaha. Such an issue would leave something over $3,000,000 after the award is paid to be used for general extensions, which are badly needed in certain sections of the city. As an instance, the people living on Went Thirty-seventh street, south of Hanscom park, have a beautifully paved thoroughfare, but have no water main. The home of former Councilman Alma Jackson is 700 feet from a fire hydrant, and his case is typical of many fine residences that are continually being built in that part of town. There are other places where a like condition exists as to lack of water supply It is known, too, that some influent'a city officials hold the belief that a source of supply other than the Missouri river will soon have to be arranged for. When the case is decided by the supreme court, and if the city finds the unloaded plant of its shoulders, the first question tackled by
