NO ENDORSEMENT

Possibility Now that No Candidate for Place Will Be Endorsed When Session Takes Place.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 15 .- (Special.)-The selfstyled progressive insurgents of Lincoln are liable to lose the meeting after all and have it go down in history under the title as are Frank Harrisson and Paul Clark. T. J. Doyle and others are advertising the insurgent movement for all that's out, and it will be no fault of the democratic leaders if that meeting is not about equally divided between Bryan sympathizers and would-be republican officeholders. In the evening papers here yesterday Mr. Flansburg, who failed to land the job of federal judge, the place having been given to Judge Munger, gave out for publication some letters which he had received, showing how the state had gone clear wild over the efforts of his crowd to save the country. One of these letters was from Dr. Hallett of McCool Junction. The doctor was very much interested and wrote a letter Family Trouble is Given as Reason of encouragement to the bunch, insisting that the meeting would be the very thing to save the government. The letter, of course, was given out to the public under the guise of having been written by a republican. Dr. Hallett for Bryan.

Those who know Dr. Hallett are not sur-Hallett has been for Bryan for president so long that his oldest friends do not recall when he was for anyone else. In fact, the attempt trouble in his family. His mended, being a graduate of the Western the written documents show that awhile father is a doctor and resides in Hastings. Reserve university of Cleveland and has back he predicted that a certain republican would yet be "boosting for Bryan."

Another letter from Mr. Barton of University Place, whooping up the meeting and urging all the people to insurge, was also given publicity. Mr. Barton is an oldtime populist. He formerly lived at Curtis, and from out there comes the informainsurge any old time the movement is against the republican party.

There are persons here who believe that some republicans have really written to the committee in charge of the meeting. but so far they have not been given pub-
