

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Bernard Maslowsky is Held Up in Store and Robbed.

DR. A. H. KOENIG BADLY HURT

Numerous Petitions Filed with City Council Designating Material Wanted for Paving—Koniak Stabbed.

Bernard Maslowsky, Jr., was held up last evening in his father's grocery store and lost over $40 from the cash drawer.

Dr. A. H. Koenig was struck by a coaster on Thirtieth and L streets last night and received injuries which rendered him unconscious for half an hour and left a painful cut on his scalp.

Thomas Ryan died at the South Omaha hospital Friday. His age was 60 years. Mr. Ryan was fatally injured in a fire at the Rex hotel and was saved from immediate death by the heroic work of a 10-year-old girl whose name is Clara Kuchenhoff.

Petitions designating the material to be used in the new paving districts have been lodged with the city council.

The accident occurred about 4 o'clock, shortly after school had closed. The girls were sliding down Capitol avenue, both on the same sled, when their toboggan collided with the wagon just as it turned onto the avenue from Twenty-seventh street.

Services in the Churches. Communion service will be observed at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

Rev. Alfred G. White will conduct the holy communion at St. Edward's church at 8 a. m.

All the Episcopal Sunday school students are invited to be present at the rally to be held at Trinity church in Omaha Sunday afternoon.

Miss Mary Barlow, organist at St. Clement's and St. Edward's churches, has gone to the coast for the winter and while she is gone Mrs. Polcar and Miss Hazel Scott will have charge of her work.

More enthusiasm than usual is being shown in the public schools over the athletic meet proposed by the Young Men's Christian association of South Omaha.

When You Think

Of the pain which many women experience with every month it makes the goddess always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from pain.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter. All correspondence strictly private and absolutely confidential.

TOPICS OF THE DAY OF REST

Sunday School Institutes Announced for Next Two Weeks.

COUNTY CONVENTION JAN. 28-29

Rev. Frank L. Loveland Will Discuss "The Merry Widow," the National Corn Show and Condition of Society.

Annual Sunday school institutes of the Douglas County Sunday School association begin today and will continue for a fortnight.

What relation do play grounds and amusements have to a successful career? What condition of society is indicated in Omaha when "The Merry Widow" receipts at the box office in five days are $1,600 more than the receipts of the National Corn show in ten days?

The annual business meeting of Grace Lutheran church was held Wednesday night. The reports from the treasurers of the different organizations of the church were the best in its history.

The total amount paid by the congregation during the year was $2,154.62, or $14.65 per communicant member. The total offering of the Spinday school was $306.13, or an average of $6.04 per Sunday.

OMAHA MEN HAVE PART IN ALASKA COAL CASES

Mention of the Mullens, Well Known Here, in Alaska Coal Lands Deals That Have Center of Stage.

The Alaska coal land cases, which are at the bottom of the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy in Washington, are the subject of an extended report by John E. Lathrop and George Kibbe Turner in the January McClure's.

After the Heuburn law of April 28, 1904, and before the president's message to Congress in 1906, virtually all the Alaska coal claimants had taken the first action required; that is, they had located claims under the new law.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Utopian Literary society will be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

GETS ALIMONY AND CHILDREN

Mrs. Hannah Ritchie Allowed $50 a Month—Judge Redick Says Case is Despicable.

Judge Redick granted Mrs. Hannah Ritchie temporary alimony of $50 a month and the custody of the two children yesterday afternoon, following a hearing on a MOTHER'S FRIEND A LINIMENT FOR EXTERNAL USE. One of the most valuable qualities of Mother's Friend is that it safeguards the future health of the mother. It is a liniment to be applied externally to the body, the use of which lubricates the muscles and tendons, softens the glands and ducts, prevents lumps forming in the breasts, and relieves the pain, nervousness, nausea, and other troubles from which so many expectant mothers suffer.

BELLEVUE FOOT BALL MEN ARE HONORED AT BANQUET

Alumni Are Hosts to Gridiron Warriors at Paxton Hotel—Thirteen Players Present.

Old Bellevue was given many a husky cheer last evening at the Paxton at a banquet which the alumni of that institution gave to the foot ball team, which made such an enviable reputation on the gridiron last fall.

The guests of the evening were Manager Jones of the foot ball team and the thirteen players who won their "B" sweaters in the games played last fall. Short talks were made by Dr. Stookey and members of the alumni and the members of the team were called upon to tell some of their experiences of last fall.

UNIVERSITY OF OMAHA NOTES

Mock Trial is Held and Miss Katherine Ingalls Found Guilty.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Utopian Literary society will be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

The program consisted of a mock trial, presided over by Judge "B" Swaters. Miss Katherine E. Ingalls, defendant, was charged with a bodily assault upon a door-keeper in an endeavor to make a forcible entry into the senate chamber, where she sought to further the interests of the woman suffrage movement.

After suffering many years with a sore Amos King, Port Byron, N. Y., was cured by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. For sale by Beaton Drug Co.
