Campaign on Tuberculosis, as Waged in Iowa, Shown to Have Borne Fruit.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Jan. 19 .- (Special.)-That the campaign against tuberculosis is making headway is evidenced from the fact that there appears to be a general movement throughout the state towards securing public hospitals for the treatment of medical and surgical diseases in general ested in the suppression of tuberculosis that perhaps the most potent factor would be hospitals for the isolation and treatment of persons suffering with this disease. This is believed to be fundamental in any campaign for eradication.
