The corn market is feeling the heavy run of receipts and little or no opposition is noticeable as values gradually ease off to a level.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Those concerned in the stock market had their attention diverted today from general causes affecting values to the collapse in Hocking Valley and the Rock Island episode in the market of December 27 and gave rise to the question whether investigation and discipline by the stock exchange officers were to follow as in the Rock Island case.

The violence of the fall in prices in Hocking Valley has been a surprise to many. The movement of two stock exchanges, Hocking Valley and Rock Island, has been a surprise to many.

EGAN TO BE OUT ON BOND

Court Allows Bail to Be Arranged for Armour Policeman. JURY FINDS VERDICT OF GUILTY Second Degree, Say Twelve Men, Who Recommend "Utmost Clemency" in Imposing of Sentence.

Stephen Egan, convicted last night of the murder in the second degree of Enoch J. Daily at the Armour packing plant, will be admitted to bail this afternoon.

The bond will be allowed by Judge Sutton in District court pending filing and hearing of a motion for a new trial. Judge Sutton has the bail in the sum of $2,000 must be secured.

The verdict against Egan was returned at 10 p. m. last evening. It read thus: "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty as charged of murder in the second degree. We commend to the court that your honor exercise the utmost mercy that is consistent with justice."

For the first time since he was arrested Egan last night went to jail. Egan's wife was unable to be by his side when he heard the verdict.

Deputy County Attorney J. J. Platt addressed the jury the afternoon previous. Elikoff sums up.

Mr. Elikoff made the longest address heard in District court for at least a year, speaking for one and a quarter hours.

There was one hot brush during the afternoon between Messrs. Elikoff and Mahoney. The former was commenting upon the "officiousness of the police in guarding young Hogan when he appeared in the court."

"Never," cried Elikoff, "has there been a scene in this courtroom like never such an ostentatious display of brass and blue cloth! And all to try to discredit the state's witness! Why, you say this big policeman even came up and take my chair."

ANOTHER SHARP BREAK IN COTTON FUTURES MARKET

Total Decline Since Beginning of Movement Nearly Fifteen Dollars a Bale. NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—The New York cotton market following the downward movement which began shortly after the new year, touched new lows today.

The recurrence of extreme weakness seemed to create more apprehensions than other recent breaks in price and at times the market was utterly demoralized.

At the low point of the day March options showed a decline of 7 1/2 points from the closing figures of last night, while May registered a loss of 2 points. In the latter case as compared with the high point of the season this is a drop of 14 1/2 a bale.

When these low levels were reached, however, an movement developed, the market was again buoyed up, and a strong influence toward sustaining the market.

With the day's liquidation it is estimated that since this tremendous selling movement began two weeks ago speculative holdings amounting to nearly 4,000 bales have been disposed of.

These contracts are supposed to have gone largely into the hands of trade speculators.
