

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Decline in Wheat is Checked on Local Exchange.

BEARS ARE LESS AGGRESSIVE

Farmers Not Willing to Sell Their Grain at Present Price and Are Holding On—Corn Holds Steadily.

OMAHA, Jan. 20, 1910.

The decline in wheat was checked for the time being this morning. Bears were inclined to be less aggressive, being satisfied with the results of a decline during the last few days. Farmers are not willing to sell wheat at these prices and are waiting for a better market.

Corn proved steadier with wheat and traders were inclined to believe prices had been discounted enough for the present.

What was firm in case of lower grades of wheat was firm in case of lower grades of corn. Cash prices for wheat were 1.00 to 1.05, and for corn 45 to 50 cents.

After a steady opening corn had a sharp rally and advanced steadily under heavy buying, both in options and the cash market.

Investment is unanimous that corn values are well worth these prices.

Primary wheat receipts were 72,000 bu. and shipments were 20,000 bu. against receipts last year of 300,000 bu. and shipments of 200,000 bu.

Clearances were 100,000 bu. of corn, 2,000 bu. of oats and wheat and flour equal to 25,000 bu.

Liverpool closed 1/4 cent lower on wheat and unchanged on corn.

Chicago Grain and Provisions

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—Grains advanced in price today, wiping out an initial decline which closed yesterday.

The wheat pit was the principal battlefield for speculators. A general belief that the increased northwest arrivals had been principally delayed train loads and might not continue contributed to the strength of the bullish sentiment.

Record of temperature and precipitation compared with the corresponding day of the last year.
