COOPER CONVERTS INCREASING

Stream of Callers Keeps the "Stomach Man" Busy All Day While They Tell of Benefits Derived.

The Cooper "stomatologist," who has been in Omaha meeting the people for several weeks, has so far managed to stir up an immense amount of discussion about himself and the remedies he is introducing here. A continuous stream of callers kept him busy all day yesterday. When seen he merely said:

"Here are the statements of a few Omaha people that might interest you."

A few, taken at random and condensed, were as follows:

R. J. RAYBOW, 308 Sahler street, found his "stomach man" was very sick and suffering from a number of years, suffering from stomach trouble. He had no desire to eat, suffered constantly from gas on the stomach, headaches and constipation. Friends persuaded him to try Cooper treatment. His appetite now entirely restored and he feels, for the first time in many years, that life is worth living.

H. J. RAYBOW, engineer on Northwestern Railroad, victim of stomach trouble and nervousness, was unable to eat, could not sleep and was terribly despondent. Railroad man friend induced him to try Cooper treatment and now he says his health is entirely restored.

CARLTON F. HUTCHINSON, banker and broker of Boston, offices 18 Congress street, suffered twenty years with nervous dyspepsia, spent thousands of dollars with doctors in the United States and Europe without relief. Heard of Cooper's treatment in Boston and decided to give him a trial. His recovery was so astonishingly successful that he says he can hardly believe it himself. Is now enjoying a sound stomach and perfect health for the first time in twenty years.

MISS LILLIAN G. FORD, residing in South Omaha, suffered for years from what seemed to be a most peculiar complication of diseases, appetite came in fits and starts and she seemed to be growing abnormally nervous. Would have fits of temper and periods of awful mental depression. Suffered from pains in back and sides, dizziness and headache. Consulted many doctors, but never seemed to get any better. Took course of Cooper treatment and was relieved of symptoms in a few days. Her health is now complete.

J. H. McCANDLESS, yardmaster Union Pacific Railroad, Omaha, was laid up with severe attack of rheumatism year ago. Tried everything possible to relieve his condition, but seemed to grow worse. Twinges and aches and pains never gave him a moment of peace and he feared he would be forced to retire from his work. Friend who had been helped in remarkable manner by Cooper's treatment, persuaded him to try stomach man's remedies. Result positively magical, he says. Within a week felt immensely relieved and at conclusion of full course of treatment declared himself entirely cured.

Miss GILLY'S ANDREWS, 718 South Twenty-ninth street, three months ago her complexion was wan and sallow, dark rings under eyes, eyelids were dull and lusterless, hair was dry and kept falling out so fast she feared she would lose it all. Lacked ambition, was all run down, tired and half sick all of the time. Had fainting spells, nervous headaches and constipation. Thought herself nervous wreck, but Cooper treatment restored her to blooming good health and remarkable girlish beauty within a month.

"BILLY" JORDAN, famous "Let 'er go" man of American circus, suffering from catarrhal stomach trouble for more than a year, with all the symptoms—constipation, gas on stomach, indigestion, indigestion and chronic debility. Tried every remedy he heard of without relief, then took full Cooper treatment and now is a well man.

The "stomach man" announced yesterday that owing to requests of many persons engaged during the day who were unable to call on him during his regular office hours he would stay at the Brandeis Stores until 9 o'clock Saturday night to meet all who called.

CRESTON, Ia., Jan. 21.—(Special).—Post-office Inspector J. S. Ranger of this place, who trailed three alleged members of the Mabray gang, M. Cali, Johnson and Warner, to Little Rock, Ark., when these men were released from an indictment charging them with operating as members of the Mabray outfit, and who carried a warrant for their arrest issued from the Des Moines federal court, was much discomfited when he had to step aside and see the men taken in charge by the sheriff of Garland county, Arkansas, and taken to Hot Springs on a charge of grand larceny.
