

Nebraska WHEEDON FILES FOR SENATOR Lincoln Man Takes Formal Step to Enter Race.

COLONEL BATES KNOCKS SESSION Attorney General Decides Meeting of Capital Stock—Limit of Permissible Bonds on the Paid Up Only.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 22.—(Special.)—Charles O. Wheedon has filed his application to have his name placed on the primary election ballot as a candidate for the republican nomination for United States senator. Mr. Wheedon paid $50 to the county treasurer and brought his receipt to the office of the secretary of state this afternoon. Secretary of State Junkin accepted the filing and unless someone enjoins him the name will go on the ballot to be voted for August 14, the date of the state primary.

Some time ago Attorney General Thompson gave an official opinion that the primary law prohibited the nomination of candidates for the senate at the coming state primary and in this decision he was upheld by Arthur Mullen, who managed the legislation for the democratic legislature last winter.

In the law which fixed the filing fee to be paid by candidates, the committee for the senate must pay $50, so Secretary of State Junkin decided that he would accept filings from any candidate who produced a receipt showing he had paid to a county treasurer the $50 filing fee.

Act as Peacekeepers. Henry T. Clarke, jr., railway commissioner, has returned from Elgin, where he settled a dispute between the Antelope County Telephone company and its patrons to the satisfaction of both parties. This action saved a hearing and long-drawn-out litigation. Commissioner Cowling has also returned from Eustis, where he, too, played the part of umpire in a dispute between the telephone company and its patrons.

Colonel Bates of Plattsmouth, member of the late democratic legislature, was a caller at the office of the chief executive this afternoon, and while there he registered a protest against any extra session. Colonel Bates said he saw no reason for an extra session and he had never received any petition asking him to express himself upon it.

The Plattsmouth colonel has just returned from a trip to the west end of the state and shortly he expects to locate there and establish a democratic newspaper, leaving his sons to manage the paper at Plattsmouth. This change is made on account of the health of Mrs. Bates.

Decision on Capital Stock. In order to settle a long mooted question as to what really is the capital stock of a corporation, the Railway commission put the matter up to the attorney general. The question grew out of the application of corporations to issue stock for contract debts. The question asked the attorney general was:

"Can a corporation under this statute (section 413, Coburn's statutes) be permitted to issue its bonds or create an indebtedness in excess of two-thirds of the amount of capital actually issued?"

In concluding his opinion the attorney general says:

"I am lead to the conclusion and give it as my opinion that the term 'capital stock' as used in this statute, means the subscribed or paid up capital stock, and not the authorized, but not issued, stock, or the gross assets of the corporation, for this may fluctuate as the value of the property may fluctuate in which the assets of the corporation arising from its stock sales have been invested, and that a corporation incorporated under the laws of this state may not create an indebtedness in excess of 66 2/3 per cent of the aggregate of both its paid up and subscribed capital stock."

Friend Club Banquet. FRIEND, Neb., Jan. 22.—(Special.)—A banquet was given at the newly organized Commercial club of Friend by the genial host of the Hotel Del Coronado last evening. Eighty-one plates were laid, and the guests served with a splendid four-course dinner. Dr. George E. Henton acted as toastmaster and some eleven toasts were responded to by citizens. H. M. Bushnell of Lincoln talked on the subject of commercial clubs. Practically every business man of this city has joined this club and is prepared to push for the interests of Friend and Nebraska.

Rich in Cod Liver Oil OZOMULSON

The Distinguishing Feature of Ozomulsion is its CURATIVE QUALITY, Which All Other emulsions Lack.

Nebraska Otoe Farmer Tries to Get Divorce

Richard Glove Brings Startling Charges Against Wife, but Fails in Corroboration.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Jan. 4.—(Special.)—The greater portion of this week there has been on trial in the district court the divorce case wherein Richard A. Glove, one of the pioneer settlers of this section, has been endeavoring to secure a divorce from his wife, Mrs. Carrie Glove. The plaintiff went on the stand and was there for a whole day, telling his side of the story. He is 76 years of age and his wife 53. They were married in this city some twenty-five years ago, a year after he had secured a divorce from a former wife, whom he charged with being cruel.

At that time he was known as a large land owner and cattle raiser and after the first divorce he had 230 acres of land and a large number of cattle left. He now owns 830 acres of land, but his cattle is all gone and he testified that he had spent $15,000 on the Board of Trade in Chicago and lost it and his lands carried a mortgage of $15,000 as a result of his speculation. He charged his wife with having been intimate with a prominent South Omaha commission man and a prominent business man of Omaha. The latter came to this city and took the stand and denied the charge, while the South Omaha man offered to come and give testimony. He charged his wife with being intimate with a local grain man, but he proved an alibi. He had no testimony but his own, while the wife went on the stand, followed by a number of women, and denied all of his charges.

He also charged his wife and sister-in-law with trying to take his life by putting strychnine in his food, but that was denied by both of them. The case has caused considerable interest here and the surrounding country, because both of the parties are prominent in the community to almost everyone. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Glove was on the stand and made some statements which his sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Price, did not like, and she created a furor by bounding to her feet and denouncing him as a "liar" and started towards the witness stand, threatening to do him great bodily harm. She had to be taken from the court room, under instructions from Judge Travis, who promised to have her looked up if she did not remain away.

Mrs. Glove in her cross petition, first asked for a separation and for maintenance, but yesterday withdrew her petition and filed a petition asking for an absolute divorce. The case was argued and submitted to Judge Travis last evening, who promised to hand down a decision in the near future, but intimated that he would not give the husband a decree.

Relic of Boston Tea Party Burned

One of the finest private stamp and curio collections in the state was destroyed when the court house here burned. The collection belonged to Clerk of the District Court George Malr, and was worth, at a rough estimate, $1,000. Mr. Malr has been about forty years in making the collection and had stamps and relics from all parts of the globe, some of his rare stamps, which had never been catalogued, were from the British colonies in North America, various expositions, Montserrat, West Indies, Newfoundland and Hawaii. Any number of the stamps were worth from $2 to $15 a piece, while one sheet from the Hawaiian islands was valued at $150. He says he would not have taken $500 for the general collection of stamps, as they can never be replaced at this late date. Other curios that went with the ill-fated building were valuable Indian relics, autograph letters, political badges and tickets from the time of Lincoln, and the most valuable of all, one of the original sheets of the Declaration of Independence, which was burned when the building was dumped into Boston harbor during revolutionary days.

The Board of Supervisors went into session today for the purpose of taking immediate action on a new court house. Chairman Morris says the board will make a suggestion to the city council, then put it up to the people of the county at a special election. This ought to insure about $35,000, and that, together with the insurance, would probably build a $50,000 court house.

John D. Mines Is Dead

One of Pioneer Business Men of Hastings Passes Away. HASTINGS, Neb., Jan. 22.—(Special Telegram.)—John D. Mines, one of the early settlers here, and for forty years prominent in business and political circles, died last night of pneumonia, after a brief illness. Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 Monday afternoon.

Until the beginning of his fatal illness Mr. Mines was one of the most active citizens here. He was identified with many movements for the upbuilding of Hastings and in whose best efforts he assumed he put forth his best efforts. He was a member of the Hastings Athletic club, although always a busy man, Mr. Mines found recreation in and promoting outdoor sports. He was one of the founders of the Nebraska Speed association, a pioneer in base ball activities and one of the first to give material support to foot ball here.

Corn Thieves Are Captured. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Jan. 22.—(Special.)—Early Friday morning three men were taken into custody by Sheriff John M. Williams, southwest of the city, and took a load of corn therefrom. His son saw the men going away from the place and his suspicions were aroused, and he notified his father who followed the men to the city and found them with the corn. It is charged, he snatched up all of the corn in the section and some of whom were on duty each night watching the roads leading to and from their neighbor-hoods.

Girl Too Young, Elopers Foiled

Father Orders Arrest of Couple When Clerk Phones Him for Consent. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Jan. 22.—(Special.)—Fred Hugo, aged 27, and Miss Rose Toles, aged 16, were arrested this morning and came to this city to secure a marriage license. The clerk of the county court telephoned the father of the girl for his consent to their marriage, and he ordered their arrest and detention until he arrived. But they made their escape from this city, taking a train to Auburn, where they were arrested. The father went there and brought the daughter back and refused to prosecute the man, who was a neighbor. The young people promise to outwit the parents and get married. Both are members of leading families of that part of the county.

REPRESENTATIVE THIESSEN MAKES MONEY ON HOGS

Realizes Profit of $1,108.41 on Twenty-Two Animals in One Season in Jefferson. FAIRBURY, Neb., Jan. 22.—(Special.)—A profit of $1,108.41 on twenty-two sows in one year seems almost like a fairy tale, yet that is a record that Representative John B. ThiesSEN of Jefferson is prepared to substantiate. Mr. ThiesSEN is a methodical farmer and carefully keeps a debit and credit account on all the stock he handles, which enables him to tell what department of the farm is paying him the best. While the case in question has yielded him considerably better than the average, yet he says he hopes to do as well next year, provided everybody in the country does not go to raising hogs after reading this article. Following are his figures, which will certainly be interesting, at least to those who are engaged in the hog business: In November, 1908, he bought twenty-two old brood sows. He had unusually good luck with the offspring of these animals, which contributed very materially to the profits of the venture. In April they had 170 pigs, and of these 133 survived, or an average of nearly seven pigs to a sow. Recently he shipped a carload containing 100 of the young hogs to the St. Joseph market. These hogs weighed an average of 125 pounds each and brought $5.00 per hundred, or $1,608.00 over and above the cost of transportation and other expenses connected with the shipment.

TO PREVENT DANDRUFF

Dandruff is not always a forerunner of baldness, but if dandruff is permitted to remain on the scalp it affects the roots of the hair, making the hair dull in color, dry and likely to come out when combed or brushed. Any good shampoo removes dandruff but it will form again in a day or two if the scalp is not in healthy condition. To give the scalp and hair health and vitality it is necessary to use a good hair tonic once or twice a week. To make an excellent hair tonic at home, get from your druggist one ounce of beta quinol and one-half pint alcohol; mix with one-half pint water. If preferred, the ounce of beta quinol can be mixed with a pint of bay rum. It is the beta quinol that nourishes the hair follicles, and makes the hair long, abundant and glossy.—Adv.
