

Monday Starts the Last Day of Our Wonderful Clearance Sale

This has been the most remarkable sale in our business history. When it opened we had in stock over double the amount of merchandise. To get rid of the immense stock seemed almost impossible, and in order to carry out our policy of never carrying over a single garment from season to season, we opened a wonderful sale, offering all our coats, suits, dresses and furs at ridiculously low prices. Tomorrow will start the last week of the greatest clearance sale Omaha has ever known.

This Week Clears up all the Slightly Used Pianos Offered in our January Sale

That is sure. Buyers the past few days, fully realizing the great values offered in high grade, slightly used instruments at the never before heard of prices, have called—examined the pianos—and purchased.

You can make no greater mistake than to buy without examining these instruments offered in our present January Clearing Sale. These were taken in exchange during December. Many have been used only a short time, but were turned in as part payment on higher priced instruments. Here are a few of the values we submit for your prompt attention:

$140.00 Columbus	$65.00	$500.00 Harrington, art	$275.00
$400.00 Davis & Sons	$125.00	$500.00 Chickering, new	$375.00

Organs.....$10.00, $15.00, $20.00 and Up.
Packard, Mason & Hamlin, Story & Camp, Kimball.

The saving of so much money on the above mentioned bargains is surely the greatest inducement for an immediate purchase—but coupled with this saving these terms:

No Money Down—Free Stool—Free Scarf Thirty Days Free Trial, Then $1.00 a Week

Then—you have the combination that makes the possession of a guaranteed, beautiful, sweet toned Piano an immediate possibility.

Just call tomorrow and select your piano. Do this before your instrument is gone. Otherwise some one else may select that particular instrument you want so much.

DAHLMAN MEN WAKE UP

Friends of Local Leader See Light on Extra Session Move.

TO GIVE GOVERNOR A CLUE

With Initiative and Referendum on the Statute Book Shallenberger Backers Feel They Would Have Better Chance.

Friends of Mayor Dahlman are beginning to evidence some anxiety as to the underlying reason for the desperate efforts being made to have Governor Shallenberger call an extra session of the state legislature. They have finally figured it out that the move is in the interest of Shallenberger's own candidacy for re-nomination and election.

"Some of our friends in different parts of the state have signed the petition," said a warm supporter of the mayor, "evidently without giving it much consideration. The extra session boosters insist they desire only to have the party pass the initiative and referendum law. In the natural course of events the enactment of that law would very well be left for the next regular session of the legislature.

CREDITORS WILL CONTEST HANSON POLICY TO BANK

Men Who Advanced Money to Restaurant Want to Get In on That Insurance.

BEEF TRUST PROSECUTION MAY HAVE INNING HERE

Likely to Give Some Work to Omaha Officials of Department of Justice.

Although no specific instructions have been received at the office of the United States district attorney in Omaha, relative to the proceedings to be instituted against the beef trust to ascertain if it is responsible for the maintenance of the present high prices of fresh meats, the Omaha branch of the Department of Justice expects to take some part in the investigations, as it did in the beef trust cases a few years ago, when a great mass of testimony was taken here by the government and submitted in Chicago.

The gist of the testimony secured before the grand jury in Omaha three years ago was in relation to the attempts of the beef trust to stifle competition by freezing out the smaller meat retailers, and witnesses appeared before the grand jury from all parts of the state. Managers of the several packing houses of South Omaha were also haled before the grand jury. The hearings at Omaha ranked second in importance to those at Chicago.

HEIRS ALL OMAHA BANK ONE

The $75,000 which is left for the heirs will be divided among fifteen men and women, who are these:

John D. Creighton, Martha C. Itinny, Katherine C. McGinn, Catherine M. Puray, Ellen M. Cannon, James H. McShane, John A. McShane, Felix J. McShane, James H. McCreary, Charles F. McCreary, Wallace W. McCreary, John A. McCreary, Emmet McCreary, Mary M. Daxon and Mary C. Shelly. All of these live in Omaha except Mrs. Shelly, who is a resident of Neigh. The decision does not wholly please either side and it will probably be fought through the supreme court.

CREIGHTON WILL ADJUSTED

Girls' Home Gets $85,000 and Heirs Will Cut Up $75,000.

THREE JUDGES GIVE DECISION

Bequest for Working Girls Institution is Valid, Says Court, and Home Must Share in Division of Residue of Estate.

By decree of district court the heirs of Count John A. Creighton are to receive $75,000 of the $100,000 residue of the estate and the working girls' home is to get $85,000.

The three judges of the court who gave the decision Saturday morning held, first, that the tenth paragraph of the will, which makes a $50,000 bequest for the working girls' home, is valid. It was contended for the heirs that this clause of the will is vague, indefinite and uncertain, leaving a doubt as to the whole intent of the testator, particularly as to who the beneficiaries should be.

LETTER CARRIER WANTS DIVORCE

Charles E. A. Johnson is suing for divorce in district court from Emma H. G. Johnson. The plaintiff is a letter carrier.

CRITICISM OF A 'FAT' STORY

We are criticized for telling fat people to "render" seventy-five cents to the drugist for a large case of Marmol Tablets. Several wrote in saying the use of the word "render" was incorrect, the "tender" in such a connection raised the impression the drugist might refuse seventy-five cents as insufficient.

Beckman. Desertion for the last two years and non-support for ten years is the ground. Addie C. Strang is given a decree from George H.

Church Not to Blame for Storm

Ordinary prudences could scarcely foresee the effects of the great storm of January 23, '08," said Judge Leslie in county court ruling against the plaintiffs in two damages suits. They were the claims for damages brought against the First Swedish Methodist Episcopal church by May McCormack and Michael Sulley. Each asked $100. The Sulley house, where Miss McCormack lived, was next door to the church, and the wind, which blew sixty-five miles an hour that night, toppled a brick chimney into the house, injuring Miss McCormack and doing some damage to the residence. Judge Leslie held that the chimney was well constructed and the church in no wise liable for the accident.

County Board Will Look After Lake

The Board of County Commissioners has promised to see in a body early next week to Florence to see what there is in the lake that the city is about to go on the rampage in the direction of Florence lake. The special committee of the city council, including Councilmen Sheldon, Berks and Brucker, appeared before the board Saturday morning. E. P. Borryman also urged the board to go to Florence.

Burglar-Proof Lock Plans Coming

The Dayton Keyless Lock company is looking for a location in Omaha. This company has a lock which is being put on some of the new homes of Omaha. It is entirely burglar-proof and is worked without a key. It has a combination which may be worked in the dark. The new lock is endorsed by the Anti-Saloon league, and it will be absolutely necessary for a man to be able to remember a combination before he may gain entrance to his home.

Heavy Fine, Caustic Comment

William Jawson, charged with being a party to the bomb at Addie Bennett's place on Capitol avenue in which E. B. Downer was beaten, was fined $100 and costs by Judge Dryce Crawford in police court. The judge made cutting remarks about men who lived about such places and did no work.
