Heavy Receipts Cause Heavy Selling and Values Ease Off, Following the General Stampede-Valnes Cut for Cleanup.

The wheat market took a decided turn flownward. Prices graved lower on the weak liverpeal cables and fraders became as bearish as thus were bullish last week licevy receipts at primary points was a weakening factor.

The corn was a donicate of the wreat market and lastri receipts caused a stampade of selling and values eased off stoadly throughout the day.

Wheat weakings darly on the lower cables, and beavy blineapells receipts started local sailing, which resulted in a decline of a full cent, both for the cash and future deliweries.

The very lically receipts were solded in a decline of a full cent, both for the cash and future deliweries.

The very lically receipts which were as large as any previous day's record for consigned corn, was the main feature of today's corn market and values were sleed in order to cleasi up the exceedingly boavy offerings.

Primary wheat receipts were 1,23,000 bu, and shipments were 200,000 bu, against receipts last year of 194,000 bu, and shipments were 400,000 bu, against receipts last year of 194,000 bu, and shipments were followed to decide to the constant of the

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24—Large arrivals of grain today caused a falling off in prices, which was helped along by the increased protest against high cost of living. Wheat declined from 1%c to 1%c below Saturday's final figures, corn and oats falling off in less degree. Provisions experienced a decided alump, the agitation against high food prices being directly reflected in a 90c decline in January pork. decline in January pork.

Wheat was on a down grade throughout the semsion. The main factor in the decline, which carried wheat to a point 1%c to 1%c lower than Saturday, was the large to lace lower than Saturday, was the large arrivals at the main grain centers, demonstrating that the large runs last week were not of delayed train loads. May moved from S.11% to $1.6%, and closed at the low point, 15.61% lower than Saturday's final figures. A light demand for cash corn coupled with larger arrivals caused the market to sag, the decline ranging at the close from it to lace have them Saturday's final quotations. All the fatures closed at the low point for the day, with May at 67c, 1\(\frac{1}{2}\)\text{Epi}\(\frac{1}{2}\)\color lower.

Trade in oats reflected the course of other grains. Liquidating sales and a silm demand for cash oats forced prices down over a range from \(\frac{1}{2}\)\color to \(\frac{1}{2}\)\color lower than Saturday's final figures. The close was nearly at the low points, with May at 47\(\frac{1}{2}\)\color lower.

The greatest excitement in the day was in provisions, where selling orders were in provisions, where selling orders were flung by the longs, taking the backbone out of the pork market and weakening other products. The basic cause of the decline was the increasing public protest against high prices for food, which figured heavily scaling buying sentiment. January heavily against buying sentiment. January pork closed 90c lower. May and July pork fell off to a close 75c and 70c, respectively, below. Lard and ribs also declined, the final figures being from 21/20 slow in going out into the yards, being dis-posed to await later advices from other selling points before transacting very much business.

There seemed to be a fair demand for beef steers and as receipts were very light, the market was not in such bad shape as might have been expected, considering the unfavorable news from other selling points. Still the trade was slow and anywhere from weak to as much as 10e fower. Cows and helfers were slow, and while some of the most desirable grades that were wanted to fill some special orders did not show yery much charge the grades. were wanted to fill some special orders did not show very much change, the general stendency on the market was downward.

There were very few stockers and feeders in sight, and for that reason buyers were forced to pay stronger prices for the few that they wanted. It must be understood, however, that the demand was very limited, and had there been anything like liberal receipts, the trade would undoubtedly have been both duil and weak.

did change hands were sold at prices that were unevenly lower as compared with last week's close.

The estimate for today called for 15,000 head and a good portion of the run had been yarded by 2:30 a. m. Receipts a week ago. It will be remembered, totaled 7,000 head and offerings for the same day last year numbered 2:300 head.

The quality of the big bulk of early supplies was very fair on an average, but even the best kinds of sheep and lambs met with a rather indifferent demand and moved slowly. Unevenly lower and dull at the decline would be the safest and briefest way of describing the market as a whole. Lambs, perhaps, suffered more than good sheep, one or two odd strings selling early at figures all the way from 15c to 25c lower than last Friday. Several bands of fat sheep were weighed up at prices possibly no worse than 16gibc lower. Lambs sold at 25.5, wethers at 8.50 and ewes at 25.56.
