make an affidavit, as he had been advised against it by Judge Ballinger.

"Do you know of any reason why Davis should not come here and testify first hand?" asked a member of the committee.

"No sir," replied Glavis, "except that he is one of the claimants."

This called out a laugh.

Glavis said that Davis made this statement to him the first time he met him.

Burdens of Proof.

During the discussion of the testimony as to young Davis' statement an interesting and perhaps significant colloquy occurred between Senator Nelson and Representative Graham, one of the democratic members.

Senator Nelson sought to draw from the witness and his counsel the statement that he had no knowledge that Mr. Ballinger had some letters addressed to the commissioner of the land office and that this mail may have gone to other persons.

Representative Graham interrupted with the remark that he thought the burden of proof would be upon Mr. Ballinger in this connection. He thought that in an important matter like this the commissioner of the land office ought to know all that was going on, or to issue orders that he should know what was going on.

"The burden is on him," concluded Representative Graham, "to show that he did not know what was in these letters."

Senator Nelson, in announcing an adjournment at 5:05 p. m., endeavored to get permission to resume the sitting tomorrow afternoon, but several of the members of the committee said they had other duties and the resumption of the inquiry was set for 10 a. m. Friday, when Glavis will continue his testimony.

TRIP OF JACK BALLINGER

Dennett Says Detailing of Clerks for Special Duty Common

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Commissioner Dennett of the general land office today explained to the house committee on expenditures in the interior department the circumstances under which J. D. Ballinger, a relative of the secretary of the interior, was employed as confidential clerk to Mr. Ballinger when the latter was commissioner of the land office.

On July 5, according to Mr. Dennett, Jack Ballinger left Washington on a detail as inspector of land offices with a per diem and expenses and resigned on September 14, after he had taken about a month's leave of absence and after he had reached his announced destination—Seattle.

Mr. Dennett explained that the detailing of clerks for special duty was a common practice and that in the case of Jack Ballinger he had submitted numerous reports of inspections made in the course of this trip west.

FLOOD LAYS SIEGE TO PARIS

vegetables is falling and prices are soaring to famine figures. Some avocados which were attempted to double the price of bread were roughly handled today and two of them were thrown into the Seine at Charlevoix.

Details from the flooded regions of the provinces are harrowing in their monotony of broken dykes in the canals and the inundation of villages. The rivers in the southwest were rising rapidly today. The swollen Loire has caused heavy damage in the province of Anjou.

The immense losses in every branch of industry were reflected on the Bourse, where a bad slump in industrials and railroad stocks occurred.

Deneen Defends Water Power Plan

He Declares Electricity Generated Could Be Disposed of Easily.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 26.—Governor Deneen today sent a special message to the legislature declaring there were certain influences at work seeking to nullify the expressed will of the people as to a construction of a lake to the Gulf deep water way. He takes up the objections to the proposed plan and answers them.

The message says in part: "It has been claimed that the water power created would find no market. The answer to this claim is found in the fact that at present power can be electrically transmitted to great distances from the point where it is generated and with little loss."

"Two hundred thousand electrical horse power is to be generated at a dam under construction at Keokuk, Ia. The opportunities for disposing of such a large amount of water power from the Keokuk plant are not to be compared with those afforded power plants located between Lockport and Utica."

The message was referred to the waterways committee.

MAN FOR BOARD OF CONTROL

FORREST S. TREAT, secretary of the State Board of Control, may be appointed on the board. He has been secretary for ten years and is more familiar with every institution than any member of the board. It is understood that a boom has been started for him by his friends at the institutions if he is appointed he would succeed Charles Cowles next April.

CORPORATIONS IN PENALTIES

The secretary of state has now collected about $7,200 under the new law requiring an annual report from every corporation in the state. Of this sum $1,800 is in the form of penalties for failure to report on time. There are still about 200 corporations which have reported, but in all probably the majority of them have gone out of business.

VIOLATES ILLINOIS PAROLE.

A requisition was issued today to take back to Illinois from Iowa, one William Jackson, under arrest at Davenport, accused of violating a parole. He had received sentence for robbery in Chicago.

WOULD AVOID IOWA FOOD LAW.

The executive council at a meeting today considered the application of the National Stock Food company for permission to sell its products in Iowa without tagging the packages, giving merely the ingredients without the quantity. A case is pending in federal court to have the Iowa law declared invalid, and the company desires to continue business pending this decision and cannot comply with the Iowa law without disclosing valuable secrets.

NEW LABOR LAWS.

Bills for new laws relative to labor will be formulated Saturday and Sunday by the members of the executive committee of the State Federation of Labor, who will meet here in special session. The formulation of these bills will be in conformity with the report of the legislative committee at the last convention of the federation in Dubuque. This committee will probably not formulate bills for all the laws suggested by the convention, but will canvass the situation and determine which special bills the efforts of the organization shall be centered upon.

CREAMERY COMPANY OFFICERS.

Stockholders of the Beatrice Creamery company met in Des Moines today in parlor I at the Savery hotel for the annual election of directors and business. The directors elected today are: A. E. Wilkenson of Lincoln, Neb.; Claus Frahm of Hastings, Neb.; Morris Friend of Lincoln, Neb.; J. R. Mulvane of Topeka, Kan.; G. E. Haskell of Lincoln, Neb.; and J. T. Dorgan of Lincoln, Neb.

EDITORS OF JUNIOR ANNUAL.

IOWA CITY, Ia., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—Editor-in-chief of the legislative committee of the Junior Annual in the University of Iowa, has announced the following appointments: Associate editors, E. F. Dugan of Valley Junction, E. F. McKillip of Beresford, S. D.; Paul Abrams of Iowa City and L. W. Powers of Farr. Other editors: William Jennings, editor; Merle Alderman of Marion, athletic editor; Clifford Hakes of Creston, pathologist editor; Edgar A. Ashton of Iowa City, forensic editor; Mabel Buckley of Washington, alumni editor; Frank Callender of Des Moines, music editor; J. Robert Cornell of Winterset, civics editor.

BUSINESS CHANGES AT GLENWOOD.

GLENWOOD, Ia., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—On February 1, Ironmonger & Phillips of M. P. Pleasant and St. Louis will open a general dry goods store in the Lamb building on the west side.

March 15, R. L. Price of Cedar Rapids will put in a novelty store in the building to be vacated by Swartz & Vinton, who will consolidate the Nebe shoe stock with theirs and occupy the Nebe building on the south side.

The ownership of the Glenwood opera house has passed into the hands of the independent Order of Odd Fellows' lodge. This change makes Glenwood lodge one of the strongest in the state and will be one greatly appreciated by the amusement loving people of this community, as the auditorium will be improved and beneficial changes made in many ways.

DENTISTRY COLLEGE CLINIC.

IOWA CITY, Ia., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—Alumni of the College of dentistry in the University of Iowa will hold their annual clinic in Iowa City on March 3 and 4. The feature of the clinic will be the address by Dr. E. C. Kirk of the University of Pennsylvania. The executive committee which has charge of the event is as follows:

MARKET HOUSE LIVE ISSUE

Des Moines Politicians Take Sides on Meat Crusade.

COAL OPERATORS KICK ON RATES

Petition Filed with Interstate Commerce Commission for Reduction—Case of Council Cloud Creates Interest.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—The movement to head off the meat dealers and to bring down the price of meat came up to the matter of providing a site for the proposed market house and public meat market house, and the matter will go to the city council. Just as much as the city election is not far off advantage of the who's controversy is being taken by candidates and a political issue may be formed. In the meantime the price of meat declined again today and the association to boycott the meat trade continued to grow.

Want Lower Coal Rates.

A petition was filed with the State Railroad commission today by the Iowa Association of Commercial Coal Operators asking for a reduction in the Iowa rates on coal. It is stated that there has been no reduction for twenty years and that the interstate rates now give the eastern coal dealer an advantage in Iowa over the local operator and miner. It is also stated that in some cases the railroad give lower rates than the local rates in Iowa.

Viaduct Ordered.

Final notice was served on the railroad passing through Des Moines today to begin construction of the viaduct which has been ordered. The viaduct proposal has been pending many years and it is now believed it will result in a viaduct.

Case of Council Cloud.

Much interest is taken here in the case of Council Cloud, who has been recalled from Mulden, China, to answer charges. He formerly lived in Des Moines and was vice consul at Hangehou under ex-Secretary Dobson, who is now county treasurer, and who says that Cloud was causing dissatisfaction several years ago.

Activity of Candidates.

Speaker Guy A. Peely of the Iowa house, spent the day in Des Moines and Senator George Cooney of Cedar Rapids, where he spoke Sunday evening in church. They are the two leading candidates for the republican nomination for attorney general of Iowa, and both insist that they are greatly encouraged in the campaign.

Man for Board of Control.

FORREST S. TREAT, secretary of the State Board of Control, may be appointed on the board. He has been secretary for ten years and is more familiar with every institution than any member of the board. It is understood that a boom has been started for him by his friends at the institutions if he is appointed he would succeed Charles Cowles next April.

Four More Suits Over Corporation Tax Added to List

New Litigation is Brought by Corporations Having Millions of Dollars' Income.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—With the fight over the constitutionality of the corporation tax provision of the Payne tariff act inaugurated last week, four more suits involving the same point were enrolled on the docket of the supreme court of the United States today. All the suits today involve big corporations with millions of capital.

Wyckoff Vanderhoef, a stockholder of the Coney Island and Brooklyn Railroad company of New York, asked that its directors be restricted from the payment of the corporation tax on the ground that it was unconstitutional. Francis L. Hine brought suit for similar relief against the Home Insurance company of New York. The case of Fred W. Smith against the Northern Trust company and that of William H. Miner, against the Corn Exchange National bank of Chicago were docketed from the United States circuit court of the northern district of Illinois.

All hope of the parties directly interested in procuring a decision from the supreme court before March 1, the date by which corporations must have made their income returns, has been abandoned.

There is hope that the question may be determined before the close of the period for the payment of the tax, June 30.

Advocates of congressional legislation to postpone the date of the provisions becoming effective urge that similar action was taken in regard to the time when the income tax law was operative.

Omaha Man to Address Editors

F. J. Elicke Will Talk at Coming Meeting of South Dakota Association.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—Newspaper men of the state already are commencing to gather here to attend the annual mid-winter meeting of the South Dakota Press association, which will convene at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon and continue until Friday afternoon.

A feature of the meeting will be an address to be made Friday afternoon by F. J. Elicke of Omaha, on the topic of "Does Printing Cost Anything to Produce?"

Another feature will be the annual address of Charles M. Day of Sioux Falls, president of the association. This will be delivered Thursday afternoon. Mr. Day is the editor of the Sioux Falls Daily Argus-Leader, and has made a fine record as president of the association.

Various prominent newspaper men of the state are scheduled for addresses on topics of deep interest to newspaper men in general. The program will be made during the meeting by Mrs. Christina S. Thorp of Britton, T. W. Taubman, Plankinton Herald; Harry Wentz, Pukwana Press-Reporter; H. A. Sturgeon, Bereford Republic, while others will be called upon for remarks upon the topics discussed and others of interest to the men of the press.

Letter Writer in Liquor Fight.

PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—Port Pierre is a "dry" town and recent prosecutions of parties, who were detected while disposing of liquor, created a great deal of ill-feeling between those who wish to see no license strictly enforced and those who seem disposed to wink at violations of the no-license system. Fuel has been added to the flames by the appearance in the field of an anonymous letter writer.

An interesting feature of the matter is that the letter writer has been identified by a woman, who evidently sympathizes with those who would sanction the illegal sale of liquor. Recipients of the letters have been State's Attorney Johnson, ex-State Senator Warren Young and Fred A. Mink, editor of the Fort Pierre Fairplay.

It is reported that the letter writer has details of arrests of prominent citizens on the charge of selling liquor unlawfully. The letters are abusive in character and condemn, in unmeasured terms, the activity of the recipients of the epistles in discouraging the illegal sale of liquor, and in exposing those guilty of violating the law.

Bids for State Fire Tournament.

MITCHELL, S. D., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—The state board of control of the firemen's association of the state will meet at Chamberlain this week to decide upon the location for the 1910 tournament. The towns are very active in trying to secure the feature and they are willing to bid high for entertaining the firemen. The tournament is usually put up to sealed bids among the towns, and the fight is on between Chamberlain and Huron this year.

Winning bids will be received by the board of trustees is able to secure a pastor to fill the pulpit. Mr. Bowditch gave as his reason for resigning that he desires to take some special work in a theological institute for the new year, beginning with the fall term.

Mr. Bowditch, as the last year's work of his pastorate, was successful in building a new church, which cost about $25,000, and it was dedicated a year ago.

Children Like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

ANACONDA COMPANY TO INCREASE CAPITAL

Move to Increase Stock Five Times Present Amount to Acquire Other Properties.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—It was officially announced this afternoon that a special meeting of stockholders of the Anaconda Mining company will be held on March 25 to vote upon a proposition to increase the capital stock of the company from 1,500,000 to 5,000,000 shares of $5 par value. The additional stock issue is for the acquisition of property of other companies located in the Butte district, the official statement says.

Medal for Bryan in Peru

Lima Authorities Also Give Diamond-Studded Ornament to Mrs. Bryan and to Daughter.

LIMA, Peru, Jan. 25.—The municipality today presented William Jennings Bryan with a gold medal and gave Mrs. Bryan a medal studded with diamonds and rubies and their daughter a similar, though smaller, token of regard. The ball given by the National club in honor of Mr. Bryan was a splendid function. President Leguia was present.

Writes on Wyoming Irrigation.

GRAND ENCAMPMENT, Wyo., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—A. Decker, an eastern writer on matters of irrigation and reclamation, has just completed an exhaustive investigation of a number of irrigation and colonization projects in this section for eastern publications. He has studied over the prospects of the "Flax" valley and predicts a great future for southern Wyoming and northern Colorado.

Harben Denies the Charges

Referee Will Be Appointed by Court to Take Displacement Testimony.

PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—No appearance was made by George H. Harben, personally, in the disbarment proceedings brought against him today. His attorneys filed an answer which is a general denial to all the charges made in the complaint and the court will at a later date announce the name of a referee to take testimony, and the appointment of an attorney to represent the court. The referee will, at some time in the future, take testimony and report to the court.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 25.—Claiming that submission to the rule of the United States would mean that the operating expenses of the road would be increased more than 100 per cent, the Baltimore & Ohio railroad has rejected the demands of the trainmen for higher wages.

Stocks Rush Up at Market Opening

Scramble of Shorts to Cover Causes Sensational Spurts in Many Issues.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The volatile uprush of prices of stocks when the market opened today caused a sensational sequel to the demoralized fall in prices yesterday. Such of yesterday's sellers as did not have stocks in their possession for delivery found themselves embarrassed this morning, with prices of Americans in London showing advances of 1 to 4 points over the last prices of yesterday in New York.

The scramble of shorts to cover made a wild opening and forced prices from 1 to 5 points above the closing level of yesterday. The most sensational gains were:

Utah-Copper 4, Chesapeake & Ohio and Amalgamated Copper 3 1/2, Reading 2 1/2, Southern Pacific and Northern Pacific 2, American Sugar and American Cane 2, and Union Pacific, Great Northern preferred, New York Central and Denver & Rio Grande 2. United States Steel sold at 87 1/2 for 100 shares, but there were running sales of 14,000 shares at 84 1/2 to 84 3/4, compared with 82 1/2 yesterday. The opening brought out selling orders, which carried prices backward and the excitement died down. Columbus and Hoeking Coal and Iron sold at 17, compared with 21 last night, on the appointment of receivers for the company.

Range Losses Are Serious

Twenty Per Cent to Date, is Estimated, but Another Snow Would Be Fatal.

LANDER, Wyo., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—Although the weather has moderated in central Wyoming, range conditions continue unfavorable. Sheep and cattle have been able to graze a portion of each day on the high divides from which the wind of the last ten days has removed all snow, but the animals, owing to the extremely cold weather of December and the first two weeks of January, are thin and not strong enough to rustle feed as is their custom at this season of the year. Practically all stock has been on feed where owners could get hay and grain to the animals, and as they have come to expect this treatment, they reluctantly push out into the hills for grass.

The losses to date will not exceed 30 per cent, but unless the supplies of hay and grain are delivered this week, stockmen say the losses will be heavy.

Sheridan, Wyo., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—Reports of stock losses in this section have been greatly exaggerated, according to Charles R. Massey, cashier of the Sheridan Bank of Commerce, who is in as close touch with the wool and cattle industry as any man in northern Wyoming. Mr. Massey is in constant communication with men in every district where losses are said to have reached alarming proportions, and based on the most reliable authority, he declares that the reports are greatly at variance with the real situation.

"I have within the last ten days seen practically every large range cattle man and flockmaster in this territory," says Mr. Massey, "and such gentlemen as E. L. Decker of Parkman, J. B. Kendrick of Sheridan and Doc Spear of the Spear Bros. Cattle company, say that the loss so far this winter among their cattle has not been above normal, while among sheepmen E. L. Jackson of the Empire Sheep company of Moorcroft, T. A. Stout of the American Sheep company of Gillette and J. B. Massey of Sheridan estimate the loss in sheep at from 3 to 5 per cent, surely not an alarming figure considering the severity of the winter thus far."
