Activities and Views of Progressive Women in Various Walks of Life

Richest Woman in World.

of the famous railroad mag- with it is dying polygamy.

writer anyar Mrs. E. H. Harriman is above average der. widening of the lips.

on the mountain top at Arden will become and maintain their rights, associated with Mrs. Harriman (or Mrs.

given all the advantages of education.

Aside from the fact of horses innumerable and land almost without end, there was no evidence of wealth. They kept American-wood, frons, glass, rugs, furniture and skins. There was one piece in it that came from Honolulu, but Mrs. Harriman said that she would not have had it in that room before the annexation of Hawall to the United States.

That Mrs. Harriman was the only person in the world supposed to be entirely in Mr. Harriman's confidence is well known. The will conferred upon Mrs. Harriman $149,000,000.

That a greater master of complicated finance like Mr. Harriman should have turned his whole fortune over to his wife seemed to the public a curious thing. It hands of trustees. Such guesses, however, were evidently made without adequate one of which is remarkable personal sim-

Genture Gave Her Away.

Brown casually.

Brown laughed a little confusedly, relates the New York Press. "I just guessed mind that type is fair and large."

'Oh," answered Brown, who had by this merchants. time recovered his assurance, "I am well "The girl made a house-to-house canvass some, loathly things. One sighs for spring an inconsiderate remark."

"Nearly got my foot in it, didn't 1?" said and poured it so that bubbles formed in the chasing agent and got her chance." cup. She got that gesture from pouring beer, or seeing it poured, so as to get a Load. That made me think she was a German. Of course she might have been year. From today's indications in the bussome other nationality, but the Germans do it most artistically, so-

But his wife interrupted him, "How does it happen," she demanded, "that you know so much about the art of pouring beer?" And though she continued to question him all the way home and for a considerable time after they arrived home, she did not get what she considered a satisfactory ex-

Bantshing the darem in Asia. revolting against being penned up in harems, reports the Travel Magazine.

The word harem is Arable, and means privacy, seclusion. The contining of New York women today. women in harems, that is to say, secluding talking with or coming in contact with men, excepting their husbands or nearest male relatives, is a Mahomedan custom, and havems are to be found existing in every country where the influence of the Moslem has been dominant. The downfall

DR. BENJ PBAREY SANATORIUM Loncoln Mak

This institution is the only one in the central west with separate buildings situated in their own amule grounds, yet entirely distinet and rendering It possible to classify cases. The one building being fitted for and devoted to the treatment of noncontagious and nonmental diseases, no others being admitted. The other. Rest Cottage, being designed for and devoted to the exclusive treatment of select mental cases, requiring for a time watchful care and spe-of the harem is the greatest good that thing is a case of dull carved or filigree down upon the men 'engrossed. RS. E. H. HARRIMAN, widow modernism is accomplishing in Asia, and metal inlaid, or rather incrusted, with call it, 'in money-making.

nate, is the subject of a sketch. A new order of womanhood is springing in the American Magazine, into being in all quarters of the Orient, cases, one for cigarettes and one for same that nothing can unbalance them, but wherein she is rated the richest Masses of Oriental women are willing, nay matches, and especially smart is a new this was the tendency of college for many woman in the world. Concern- eager, to share the responsibilities of pub- design just over from Berlin showing the of us and this is my quarrel with educaing her personality and home life, the lic life with men. Morover, they are will- head of the kalser's own proud eagle, sharp tion as it exists. Education ought to edu-height, very slight of figure, with a charm- In every Asiatic country you see the cigarettes and smaller matches. ing expression of face-kind, frank eyes, "new" woman conducting special schools. What is the reason for the astonishing and a smile that is far more than a more for girls and neighboring centers for increase of the smoking habit among New women of comparatively advanced ages. York women? Simply this: They took it women," and one's first thought of her is the present and rising generations of same way that a small boy takes his first in her own house, before her own fire-in women to properly discharge their various smoke. In much the same way, too, it the big American room of the old house in duties. In these schools Oriental girls and has grown on them, until now they are Arden (a suburb of Nev. York), surrounded women are taught what constitutes their wrecking their nerves with nicotine, to by her children and her children's friends, real rights. Here they are also inspired to say nothing of squandering great sums of In time, doubtless, the new palace built unflinchingly and steadily labor to obtain money. It is no longer a fad with women, Harriman will become associated with 10), favored and successful manner in which must have her breakfast. Sometimes she but the old house-a low, rambling farm the Oriental women carries on her propo- can get along without the food much more house with additions and outbuildings ganda work is through the channels of the easily than without her cigarette. Thouthat were added as they were needed-was newspapers and even magazines. In sands of women in New York smoke from far more in keeping with Mrs. Harriman's various parts of Asia, especially in China, fifteen to twenty cigarettes a day. personality. She is old-fashioned in her India and Japan, women are conducting Those most alarmed by conditions do not supervision of household and family. She publications to further the cause. In claim that there is anything definitely imbrought her children up in Spartan sim. Japan the Twentieth Century Woman, a moral about the habit, but from a hygienic plicity. They were put on ponies as soon radical monthly magazine, is edited by a standpoint it has reached such a stage toas they could toddle. They were taught woman and many of her contributors are day that physicians have begun to look all open air sports and given the freedom women. China has three flourishing publi- upon it as a positive menace to the future of farmers' children. They ran perfectly cations edited by and for women. In of their women patients. In this fact lies wild outdoors; in fact, they were brought Hindostan is also a magazine for women. the death knell of the habit, in all probup exactly as the average well-to-do farm. It is printed in English, and, started some ability, er's children might be, if they later were two years ago, it has a large and growing circulation.

Strike Mania. The passion for striking seems to have Companion, a college woman says, "The taken deep root in the female breast girls that I met then and that I still meet ity, but it was all done in the simplest within the last few months. The shirtwaist seem to me emotionally little hard buds they have chaperons. makers of New York set the example, 9,000 long beyond the time when their minds and of them striking for better conditions and a bodies are both matured, and I cannot but room at Arden. Everything in it was living wage. This was the first time that think that it is as disastrous to have this young women. women had had a strike all to themselves, emotional immaturity' prolonged beyond and it seems to have inspired other women measure at it is to have it awakened too to do the same. The shirtwaist makers in soon. Quick sympathies and a warm, lov-Philadelphia immediately followed the ex- ing heart make for happiness anywhere, ample of their New York sisters, and, as and all the critical knowledge of Shake-In the latter city, are relying upon the speare in the world never yet helped a moral support at least of the prominent woman to rest a tired man or to hold a society women of the city. The last addi- child more lovingly in her arms. tion to the striking members are the women cigar makers of Cincinnati. There seems to get back to my college life. I lived to be some ground for the feeling that the utterly apart from my family and made no strike is to become general all over the effort to understand the lives of my country. The exhibit of the Consumers' brothers and sisters. The little help I gave league in New York, in which was shown at home was done willingly enough, but the poor prices paid women who make lace without interest-a duty to be accomseemed to the public a curious thing. It and crocheted goods, has not done anyhad been quite naturally supposed by businoss men that the will would disclose the property lodged for administration in the hands of trustees. Such guesses, however,

Small Enterprises That Paid.

gathered and washed feathers and down all of us had windy ideas about independplicity as contrasted with the extravagance for a whole year, says Anna Steese-Rich- ence and careers. I was among the most of most New York society women. She im- ardson in Woman's Home Companion for favored of them, I think,, in that I had evening. presses one as being independent of foot- February. "The next summer she made after all an end in view and that my work man and lady's maid alike-naturalness it up into pillows, using attractive ticking was destined to make me self-supporting. and simplicity are her chief notes. Her and chints, and sold them to guests at a It gave me at least a profession which is children were brought up without ever mountain resort eight miles away. She a very great thing, but many girls have suspecting that their father was even a offered the pillows at a trifle less than left college at 22 no more able to earn a the price asked in the city shops, but the penny than the day on which they entered In the house, now, Mrs. Harriman wears appeal to city folk lay in the fact that it-alienate from their home people on white always. Mr. Harriman distiked they were real feather pillows from the one hand, worshiping things of the

"A girl who lived in New Jersey, within "I see your wife is a German," remarked a hotbed raising fresh lettuce and radishes. commuting distance of New York, started These she boldly carried to New York in a Robinson looked up in surprise. "Why," suitcase and sold to other people working he said, "how did you guess that? She in the office where she was employed. Towas born in this country, and has neither day that girl has a good sized truck farm, smploys several hands and does not have to work in a city office.

"Away out in Nebraska a farmer's it," he answered. "It was-well, maybe it daughter tried to do the same thing, bewas that I thought she had teutonic fea- lieving that she could induce the green grocers in the nearest town to handle her Robinson looked first at his wife and fresh lettuce and radishes rather than then at Brown. "That is curious," he those shipped in by commission merchants, average woman has gradually developed a "She is more often taken for a per- The dealers were afraid to give her any conviction that it is the early bird that son of French extraction. Her people are encouragement. Her supply might not be gets the most satisfaction out of the spring from the Rhine district, you know, and, up to the standard. She might not raise tailored suit. as she is dark and slight, very few would enough to supply them and then they It is such solid comfort to have a trig. think she was German. In the popular would not know how much to expect from fresh, lightweight suit in readiness when her and how much from the commission the first warm days arrive. Winter ciothes acquainted with many types of German, among housewives and offered them raiment and regrets that one did not order That is probably how I came to make such freshly picked vegetables at the same a spring suit weeks before. price they had been paying for the hot- Then when the suit does at last come Mrs. Robinson laughed lightly. "I'm house supply shipped in. She was just home from the tailor's summer is so close proud of my Germanic origin," she said, brave enough not to cut under the prices at hand that linens and tussors begin to "But it has never happened before that of the local grocers. Her list of customers seem more interesting than woolens, and any one guessed it so accurately as you grew. She came to town three times a unless one is of the lucky clan who spend Then the conversation drifted to other she was cutting into their trade. They serge or homespun or tweed is likely to matters. But Mrs. Brown remembered, capitulated. Today she supplies them all, get little wear before fall. and on the way home she said to her hus- sends hothouse products to town three band: "How did you guess Mrs. Robinson times a week in winter, and garden truck one's tallor suit as soon as the New Year her husband, throwing out his chest a plant was told by the guide of the poor tative spring models. Of course, one canlittle. "But it was claver detective work quality of aprons furnished the butchers. on my part. Did you see how she poured She boldly offered to provide aprons of t.a? Au? Weil, she lifted the pot high better material and appealed to the pur-

Cigaretes and Women. New York women burned $500,000 last iness world they will burn even moretake most care in pouring their beer, and in fact a great deal more-in the year 1910. Furthermore, the word "burn" is used literally, because these fair New Yorkers actually hold the fuel between thumb and forefinger and set a match to it. Not that the money is in the form of bills from the United States treasury. Nay, it is in the form of cigarettes.

Half a million is a snug sum for women to send up in smoke. The figures are furnished by dealers, and conservative dealers at that. Three of them cater partic-Oriental women are casting aside their ularly to women. One of them seeks no vells. Even the rank and file of them are other trade. To this naif million add money spent by women cigarette faddists for smart accessories and one has a fair idea of what the cigarette habit costs

Come from Central park down Fifth avethem and denying them the privilege of nue for a spin and see. First, smuggled among the conservative brownstone mansions, which once echoed the gentle laughter of the old Knickerbocker aristocracy, one comes upon the atelier of a one-time insist upon having a lightweight, line twill state order, but with a weave suggesting can afford to put a frock aside later, prosocial figure now an important modiste. serge or similar materials. These materials that one has made a poor Early New Yorkers would have called it a rough cloth season, and in hot weather ing shades and weaves of ross, mauve, guess. a dressmaker's shop. Now it is an atelier, one finds them less oppressive and trying biscuit, gold and lime green are on the A good many models on Russian lines little place for the matches is a dear, are attractive enough to justify continued there is variety even among the severest Ye-es, I'll take it." Ask any gown importer whose atelier can boast a cabinet of odd jaweiry and ings are shown, supplying a welcome the shawl or notched collar runs down, trinkets where lie the best profits and she change after the unusually somber lines of will answer, "In the fads of the cigarette

Time was that a single gold or silver gems to match the gown.

this smoking-a woman must have her Paradoxical as it may seem the most after breakfast pull just as much as she College Girl's Question.

In speaking of the influences of a college week. education for girls in the Woman's Home

"My summers were periods of waiting our various towns with reports of the meagerness of life; all of us were disconknowledge of Mrs. Harriman's qualities, "A Pennsylvania girl writes me that she tented with the conditions we found there; intellect and with an inclination to look

EW YORK, Jan. 29.-The first item of the spring wardrobe to interest women is usually the tailored trotting suit. Whatever else one may need or desire,

Sometimes they come in pairs, these girls. There are women so womanly and so ing to work with them shoulder to shoul- beak and gleaming eye, opening at the cate for something; it should help a woman top to display tiny compartments for small to lead her life of a woman or else it should fit her to earn her living."

Social Uplift in Oklahoma. The conference of the deans of women She belongs to the type of "home These institutions are designed to educate up because it looks "smart," in much the of the state universities has been in executive session at Chicago. Fortunately Miss Lucille Dore, "Its chief exponent," has told a reporter of the Chicago News something of "the work she has already accomplished in uplifting Oklahoma society and of the still greater work she is about to launch." She is "dean of the women at the young, but thriving University of Oklahoma," and thus speaks with authority. It is not she, but the reporter, however, who talks about "uplifting Okiahoma." the uplifter of us all. That mother of constitutions is now mothering etiquette. The "one phrase on very girl's tongue in Oklahoma is, 'Is it good Out of the strong has com-To populism succeeds prosweetness.

> Here is what has been done in the un versity town of Norman: "Except for public entertainments, such as receptions, balls and theaters, young women do not accept evening engagements with men, save at the end of the "All calls are concluded at 10:30 p. m. "When young men entertain young

"Young men do not smoke in public cafes which they attend in the company of "All parties of young men and women are properly chaperoned and end at mid-Engagements are not "recognized officially" by the university authorities. The season is upon us.

"girls are pushing the campaign of etiquete themselves." Why, the reporter saked with inscient eastern ignorance, are social customs "so free and easy in the Biouses of chiffon to match the suits

Li is quite evident that a big velvet a woman clerk of the water works department, much to the indignation of a number of men who wanted the position. She has had ten years' experience in the office and will have charge of all the business connected with it. challenge to the aristocracy of Europe:

been received into full membership of the suits are in full vogue again.

Striped flannel, linen and madras are used for morning shirt walsts.

Striped flannel, linen and madras are used for morning shirt walsts.

The answer is, in fact, a brave hallenge to the aristocracy of Europe:

"Well, it is virgin soil. The people there used for morning shirt walsts.

The ago. Under those conditions a free bid fair to develop into capes.

Three yards is the regulation length of the chiffon or net evening scarf.

Parls milliners are now experimenting must necessarily be crude. Horseback with medium-sized picture-effect hats.

The frock of chantilly lace is an oldtime

Biouses of chiffon to match the suits are in full vogue again.

Striped flannel, linen and madras are used into full membership of the six Nations. She has devoted the last four teen years to study and research regarding the requirement of the chiffon or net evening scarf.

Three yards is the regulation length of the chiffon or net evening scarf.

Parls milliners are now experimenting compiling a lexicon of the language of the match the suits are in full vogue again.

Striped flannel, linen and madras are used for morning shirt walsts.

The every manner of the suits are in full vogue again.

Striped flannel, linen and madras are used for morning shirt walsts.

The received into full membership of the six Nations. She has devoted the last four teen years to study and research regarding the requirement of the suits are in full vogue again.

Striped flannel, linen and madras are used for morning shirt walsts.

The received into full membership of the six Nations. She has devoted the last four teen years to study and research regarding the requirement of the suits are in full vogue again.

Striped flannel, linen and madras are used for morning shirt walsts.

The received into full membership of the six Nations. She has devoted the last four teen years to study and research regarding the requirement of the language of the six Nations.

Six Nations of Auburn, N. Y were living a pioneer life only a short time ago. Under those conditions a free social code is inevitable. Social life is so hampered by distance and thin population that calls must necessarily be long; dances must necessarily be crude. Horseback rides and shooting parties don't develop the best etiquette, you know."

Leaves From Fashion's Notebook. Velvet shopping bags are returning to White suede gloves are most popular for lar than now.

a plait or gather.

A favorite pattern in the silk mufflers is The turban fad shows indications of be-

Tailored Suit Most Needed Item in Spring Wardrobe light colored to becoming as a w.

ored suit is not so one, no matter how severely it is many.

Where this is the sober dark blue or other dark hue.

We make a special offer to the readers of this paper, so that you may know more about

ED. PINAUD'S HAIR TONIC

(Eau de Quinine)

Let us send you a trial bottle-WRITE US TO-DAY, giving your name and address (enclosing 5c. to pay packing and mailing) and we will. at once forward you a liberal sample.

We know so well what ED. PINAUD'S HAIR TONIC will do for your hair. It revives the shrivelled roots, gives vigor to the follicles, stimulates the sebaceous glands and gently coaxes the hair to renewed growth and youthful lustre in the most natural way. Try this sample note its refreshing effect on your scalp, the silky feeling it gives your hair. Then get a larger bottle of it from your dealer, massage it into the scalp every day, use

You should also try ED. PINAUD'S LILAC VEGETAL-a remarkable perfume for the handkerchief, atomizer and bath. For men, after shaving, it brings comfort to the face. We will send you a sample bottle of this delightful toilet water for 5c.

THE SPECIAL OFFER For 10c. we will send you samples of the above preparations and also a sample tube of ED. PINAUD'S VIOLETTE REINE perfume. These samples will convince you of the superlative merit of ED. PINAUD'S preparations. Write to-day, and ask for offer No. 31.

PARFUMERIE ED. PINAUD, Dept. 281 ED. PINAUD BLDG.

it faithfully, and watch the results.

NEW YORK.

women in their fraternity or club houses plentiful. The dots are large and ing overdone, and it is being eschewed by Ermine is being more used than for many A bandeau of silve baroque pearls, is am

Everything that is offered in Irish lace Some of the new satin and lace jabots edged with six or eight inch silk fringe, are very large.

Fashlon is evidently trending toward very full sleeves.

west?" The answer is, in fact, a brave Biouses of chiffon to match the suits challenge to the aristography of Europe.

The frock of chantilly lace is an oldtime favorite that is again to the forc. The natural color chamois glove is having a considerable favor for street wear. Large handbaga are now out of style. The newest are small and made of undressed kid.

Crystal and gold bugles are used for outlining designs in lace of many handsome gowns. Turbans of fur, with dull gold trimmings Petticoats and princess slips are being made of the thinnest materials and without to some of the handsome evening scarfs of messaline.

Scalskin in combination with the soft. Tiny pink satin roses, with rose leaves, shades of panne velvet is seen in many a too, are to be had in the shops for trimming evening gowns.

A bandeau of silver or gold, set with aroque pearls, is among the most striking ornaments for the coiffure. Stole and muff sets for dressy wear ar Chat About Women.

not tolerate osculation, but this box pialt back or inverted plait back is Both the paying and the receiving teller very frequently seen on good models. There of the Maiden Lane Savings bank of New are yoke skirts, too, but one sees less of York are young women. In a circular rethem in the severe tailor modes since the cently issued the officials of the bank commended these two women for their afficiency, accuracy and the general excellence of their work. Since they have been in the models reproduced for this page is interesting, and it is in such details as signatures and are investigated.

No Longer Papooses

The teacher had been telling the children of the North American Indian, and during the course of her remarks stated that an outfits of well Indian's wife is called a "squaw."

More extreme lines

The teacher had been telling the children of the North American Indian, and during the course of her remarks stated that an Indian mamma is called a "squaw," what do you think they call the lines the continued. More extreme lines you think they call the little Indian have been followed bables?" A sober youth in the rear of the room replied:
"If the mammas are called squaws, 1 guess they call the bables squaw-kers."— Judge.

Physicians Say: "Don't Use Poisonous Depilatories."

The extravagant claims recently made by un-scrupulous manufacturers of hair removers in senscrupulous manufacturers of hair removers in sch-sational advertisements unquestionably justify phy-sicians in cautioning the public against the use of this class of deplistories. How many people have been entitled into using these daugerous prepara-tions with consequent injury to themselves cannot be settingted but only sussed at the property.

been received into full membership of the six Nations. She has devoted the last four-teen years to study and research regarding the Iroquois traditions. The membership which has just been conferred on her will materially assist her in her work with the assistance of Mrs. Thomas, an educated Onondaga woman, she is now compiling a lexicon of the language of the Six Nations.

Miss Anna C. Hedger recently resigned the principalehip of the Hebrew Technical School for Girls in New York to become the head of the new department of house-hold economics in the University of New Zealand. She was chosen for this work by a special envoy following an investigation of the Work of leading instructors in domestic economics in England, Canada and the United States.

With $10,000 on hand, Miss Esther Erwin, as Hattle Creek (Mich.) nurse, does not know what to de with it. Temporarily, at least, she is too dazed to look into the fugite. Miss Erwin was graduated from the Lansing hospital and served as mirke only and was assigned to J. Von Kelcher, a westerner, who was very ill. Just before Christmas she received the $10,000 check Von Kelcher having died.

Miss Ellen M. La Motte of Baltimore is the name of a young woman who has started a new crusade against kissing should be discouraged, to say the least. Babies that have never been kiesed may grow into men and women who will not tolerate osculation, but this generation is not likely to be much influenced by such crusades.

$25.00 a Week

An opportunity is offered to young women who wish to become trained nurses to enter one of the best Training Schools in Unicess. Registered nurses receive $65.00 a week. Graduates of this school are eighble to membership in State and National Associations of Nurses. The course comprises a years of training in practical and theoretical nursing and is therough in all branches of the work. Tuition, board and laundry free and sucil summersation after second month. The physical, moral and social welfare of students are carefully guarded. For particulars, address MISS CAROLINE SOELLNER, SUPT. Lakes!de Hospital Training School for Nurses, 614T LAKE AVENUE, CHICAGO, ILL.

Sold by Myers-Dillon Drug Co., Beaton Drug Co., The Bell Drug Co., Haines Drug Co., Omaha; Clark Drug Co., Council Bluffs-

Fat is fatal to Health, Comfort, Happiness and often fatal to Life.

Let me send you a trial treatment FREE OF CHARGE. You can get rid of your fat safely, surely and quickly.

What my treatment has accomplished in hundreds of cases. It will help you! Try it! B. A. Richards, Mayor of Holly Hill. Fia., says: Your treatment cured me permanently, that been two years since I stopped taking it and have not regained a pound.

Rev. Mary Kimball, 112 So. Jackson St., Janesville, Wis., says: Have tested and moven the merits of your reduction remedies, none of my garments lit me; they seem made SPECIAL 1 have had such wonderful success with my method of reducing superfluous fat that I have decided to offer for a limited time—free trial treatments. Hundreds of testimonials on file show that my treatment takes off fat at the rate of 5 to return when the treatment is finished. No person is so fat but what it will have the desired effect, no matter where the excess fat is located-stomach, bust, hips, cheeks, neck-it will quickly vanish without starving, exercising or in any way interfering with your customary habits. My freatment is endorsed by physicians, because of its easy, natural elimination of abnormal flesh and its beneficial effect on the whole system. Perfectly harmless; easy and quick results. Rheumatism, Asthma, Kidney and Heart Troubles leave Don't take my word for this; I will prove it at my own expense. Write to-day for free trial treatment and illustrated booklet on the subject; it costs you nothing. Address Dr. J. Spillenger, Dept. 970 E. 41 West 25th Street, New York City.

case, and it is the tase far more often than women realize, by all means throttle your longings for spring gayety and cling t. Blue is to be much worn as usual and Some delightful lighter blues of soft, SUITS insist upon having a lightweight, fine twill stuff of the same soft, loose, rough sur- but this is hazardous business unless one and its patrons always are addressed as than the wooller weaves, even when the counters and have a fresh springlike look, have been made up, and some of them They are charming when made up with are excedingly good looking and modish, mer is well begun, but I advise leaving "The Russian coat, severe and simple, is trying to the average figure. It is essentailor modes, the number of the buttons tially youthful, and it is bound to be a depending chiefly upon the depth to which passing fad much overdone. Have your general utility tailored suit severe and Skirts are fitted smoothly over the hips conventional, with just the materials and and often simply gored, but more often some little details to stamp it as this week. The green grocers discovered that jong summers in cool lands, the suit of "Another girl visiting a meat packing bring out the new stuffs and a few tenand the demands of southward bound folk not know then just what the last word of spring fashion will be, but one doesn't need such information for the tailored suft as one does for frocks and more elaborate costumes. The tailors are always able to make a fair guess at what conservative, severe modes for the spring trotting suit will demand, and, after all, the more severe this first suit is the better, provided always that its cut is impeccable and its material and color modish. There is another item in this early order problem which is worthy of consideration where one must count the dollars. Even the best of the fashionable tailors in order to bridge over the gap between winter making and the spring rush, is willing to make substantial concessions in price upon upon orders placed in January or early in February. So order your tailored suit early, madam, but give earnest consideration to your needs is always a safe investment, since, probefore you order it. If you expect to wear vided it is really dark and not of a very it in a warm climate during the summer vivid or purlish tone, it is almost uni, e. and will not be able to have linen or silk saily becoming and is the con-est looking coat and skirt suits to substitute for it then of the Gark colors. or trig frocks and dust coats to use for summer traveling, shopping, etc., by all dull silvery shades mixed with white are means pass the rough and somewhat heavy among the homespuns and two.de, and woolens by, even though salesmen assure these same tones appear, too, in 1.o.e you that they are to be the only wear and woven rough diagonals and in the smart in many of the Riviera tailored costumes latter are loose woven and light. Today "madame" is being fitted with a If, however, spring wear is the chief con- the utinost severity, and the three models but one of New York's most fashionable wonderful frock of smoldering grayish rose sideration or a cool climate is to make illustrated here are good examples of the tailors, in discussing the question of the silk, with amethyst lights. From a cab- homespun and tweed endurable, a slightly lines along which the tailors are mashed first tailored suit, summed up the situation inet in the corner a tactful saleswoman rough material is probably the wise choice up these loose woven light hued could, this way: brings a slender chain of beaten silver, this season. The early showing of suitings and the darker ones as well, though it "We are making Russian coats and we from which depends a quaint case, all indicates a strong feeling for light weight happens that the original models in this shall make more. In fact, I believe we studded with amethysts. "Madame" seizes and light colored version of the rough, loose three cases were all in the rough, light will all be three of them by the time sumit with eager hands. Dull silver and gems woven stuffs so popular last season, and all stuffs. blend perfectly with the oddly tinted gown. the prettiest things so far are in these. The coats, as will be seen from the Russian lines for linens and tussors "How much? A hundred? Why, the materials. Smoother, lighter woolens may sketches, are shortened, though not to an that you won't want to wear in the fall gown is only $175. Yes. I know-it simply come along later, but it seems safe to as-extreme degree; the low cut collar is and for dressy, soft stuffs that will stand makes the costume perfect. But I've half sume that the rougher stuffs will be good retained; the costs are but little cut away, artistic fullness and trimming. a dozen elgarette cases already. Yes, that style throughout the setson. Certainly they if at all. In the matter of the buttoning

Success. Many light or comparatively light colorthe winter season, but sight here is a pit-

all ready for many a feminine foot. and orten simply gored, but more orten season's.

The light colored tweeds and homespuns the bettern or down the full length of the "Then you can wear it for apring and fall ready for many a feminine foot. Time was that a single gold or silver the light colored tweeds and homespuns the bottom or down the full length of the probably lay it aside for midsummer and thatelains sufficed for even the most constant cigarette amoker, but today the gold or silver. The light colored tweeds and homespuns the bottom or down the full length of the probably lay it aside for midsummer and the fall when you stant cigarette amoker, but today the gold or silver. The light colored tweeds and homespuns the bottom or down the full length of the probably lay it aside for midsummer and the fall when you stant cigarette amoker, but today the gold or silver. Then you can wear it for spring and from the fall when you stant cigarette amoker, but today the gold or silver. case is considered "loud" and the correct spite their light colorings, but the fact group of plaits below the knees and asso-back to town."

clated with plain sides and a full length is not likely to be much influenced by