Shakeup Occurs in Commercial League During Week.

OMAHA BIKES GET INTO LEAD

Glendales Now Third and Willow Springs Second, with Drebush Five Coming Fast—Standings of Various Leagues.

A shakeup occurred in the Commercial league last week. The Glendales, who have been holding first place for some time, met their Waterloo Thursday night at the hands of the Omaha Bikes, and this, combined with the three-game victory of the Willow Springs over the Monte Christi team, places the Glendales third, Willow Springs second and the Bikes in first place with a comfortable margin. The Drebush Kandy Kids, who also moved up a notch by not rolling, are spilling to get into some of the top-notchers and take a hand in deciding the race.

Anderson is still leading among the individuals while Hull and Stanenhorst have both passed Klauk and are now tied for second honors. Zarp rolled the high three-game total last week, bowling them over for a match total of 68.
