The Omaha Automobile Show will be held at the Auditorium from February 21st to 26th, inclusive

There are now in Omaha and Council Bluffs more than 40 automobile dealers and accessory men, and about all of the well known factories are represented here.

Preparation for the greatest show ever held in this part of the country is being made. Not only will local people be deeply interested in the show, but the farmers of Nebraska, Iowa and the Dakotas are rapidly becoming automobile owners and will carefully inspect this season's crop of new cars.

The Omaha Bee will issue its fourth automobile number Sunday, February 20th. This will embrace all possible information about automobiles. It will be embellished with appropriate illustrations and items of interest to dealers, to owners and to prospective buyers.

1910 will be a big year for the automobile industry in Nebraska and western Iowa. Many present owners will want new cars, and business prosperity has made it possible for many people who have never before owned automobiles to become purchasers this year. The local market as well as the country market dependent upon Omaha, was never in such promising condition, and automobile manufacturers who take advantage of the situation have the biggest opportunity in their history to increase the sale of their cars. It is a splendid time for new cars of merit to be introduced here.

Practically every man and woman in Nebraska and Iowa who will buy automobiles this year reads The Bee. The Bee's automobile advertising increases are not forced by schemes. Consistent advertising has sold the cars. Every line of The Bee's automobile advertising is paid for at its regular rates. There are no exchange deals. It supplements its advertising with interesting automobile pages and while it does not follow the usual publicity copy, it prints everything it knows about the local dealers and their cars in its own way. The Bee endeavors to make automobile news interesting locally to both dealers, owners and prospective buyers.

And it has succeeded. The Bee's automobile advertising appears in its daily and Sunday issues throughout the year. Week in and week out the automobile manufacturer guided by his own experience and by the experience of his Omaha agent, who knows the territory and the paper's prestige, prints his selling talk in The Bee, because he knows that it pays him.

The Omaha Bee has kept pace with the growth of the automobile business in this part of the world. It is in the forefront. It printed three times as much automobile advertising in 1909 as in 1908. And for the last six months, including January, 1910, the record stands:

The Omaha Bee 8,199 inches.

The World-Herald 5,633 inches.

The Bee leads by 2,566 inches.

JURY OUT TWO NIGHTS AND DAY

Returns Verdict Against Dr. Duncan Turner, Suing for Insurance.

FAVORS COLUMBIA INSURANCE
Takes 105 Ballots Before It Can Decide the Suit for $2,500 for Loss in Fire Over Which There Was Suspicion.

The Duncan Turner jury reported a verdict in favor of the Columbia Fire Insurance company at 8:45 Wednesday morning, after a debate which began Monday at 5 p. m., and which lasted all that night, through Tuesday and Tuesday night, and reached its climax Wednesday morning at 9:15, just before the verdict was attained. One hundred and five ballots were taken.

For a long time at least no jury in a civil case has fought so hard as this one. On the first ballot there was an even break, six jurors voted to return a verdict for the defendant and six wanted to give Dr. Turner something on his claim of $2,500 against the fire insurance company.

Fifty ballots were taken before there was a change and then the half dozen for the defendant won over two of the opposition. They stood eight to four when the jury men came in Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock asking further instructions. Back to the room they went for half an hour without change, but about 8:30 Tuesday night two men came over to the majority.

The other two held out valiantly and neither changed until after breakfast Wednesday, when the seventh acquiesced in a verdict for the defendant, the twelfth giving up without a struggle.

The jury was in charge of Balliff John Norberg, who allowed them after midnight of the last night to occupy court room No. 1, the original trial room. Here the twelve men freed from the narrow confines of the regular jury room sprawled luxuriously over the floor. For several hours during the night they slept thus.

Dr. Turner surprised a number of people in the court room by shaking hands with half of the jury when they were dismissed. Whether he picked the right six is uncertain.

Turner then walked up to one of counsel for the Columbia company and remarked: "I'm glad it came out this way. Glad it did. Next time it will come out differently."

By "next time" Dr. Turner had reference to a motion he filed for a new trial.

A jury was once out six days and six nights in the district court of Douglas county. This was nineteen years ago in a criminal case, that of Tom Frank, tried for killing a peddler. This jury never did agree and was discharged by Judge Hopewell. The jury room struggle was marked by a fight under a table by two of the jurors. The jury was in charge of the same balliff who had the Turner jury under his eye.

Brandeis Theater Opens in March

Matter of Securing Attraction is Now the Only Point to Be Decided.

The new Brandeis theater will be opened the first week in March. This decision was reached yesterday afternoon and will be adhered to without swerving. There is no uncertainty that the theater will be ready by that time. What attraction will open the playhouse will be determined within a day or two.

A conference was held yesterday afternoon between W. J. Burgess and O. D. Woodward, the lessees, and A. D. Brandeis and Emil Brandeis of the building company, and the vote that the theater ought to be opened during this theatrical year was unanimous.

It is now simply a question of securing the opening attraction and the wires are being kept hot over the matter. The date of opening will depend upon this consideration, but it is certain that it will be between March 1 and 15.

"The contracting company assures us without the least qualification that the theater will be ready March 1," said Mr. Burgess last evening. "Everything is done except part of the decorating and the installing of the seats. The latter have been shipped and the decorators are only twenty days away."

The decision not to wait until fall to open the theater was reached because it was felt that the public has been expecting to have the new playhouse open this theatrical year and would be disappointed if this is not the case.

"GIVE ME TWO MILLION, YOU"

Demand is Thrust at Teller of First National Bank.

"YOU'VE GOT $18,000,000 OF MINE"
W. H. Sterling Throws a Little Life Into Bankers for a Few Minutes Till Police Take Him in Charge.

"I want about $2,000,000 from you today," demanded a mid-mannered man of a teller of the First National bank after closing hours.

The teller glanced and surveyed the questioner at the window in amazement, all the time hesitating with the coin.

"You've got my money there. I can see you counting it right now," said the stranger. "You've got $18,000,000 of my money, but $2,000,000 will do me for today, I guess."

While the teller played for time other officials in the bank got busy with the telephone and summoned the police.

"Your name, please?" said the clerk.

"I'm Mr. Sterling—W. H. Sterling of 1820 Sherman avenue—and I work for the Union Pacific Railroad company."

"I'm rich, too," he continued. "Right here in your bank I've $18,000,000, and you know it. You just got through counting it."

The stranger's demeanor bore more the air of conviction than audacity. He went further into his history by stating that he came to Omaha from Oskaloosa, Ia.

When Sergeant Sigwart of the police department reached the bank the stranger was still conversing with the employes and insisting that his money was being kept from him.

Relatives of the man were notified of his condition. A son called at the police station and stated that he believed that his father had suddenly lost his mind and that he would place him in a hospital for treatment.

Dr. B. Smith of the Union Pacific hospital was called to care for the patient. The doctor stated that the man is suffering slight mental aberration.

CITY GARBAGE COLLECTORS ARE GIVEN THEIR LICENSES

Will Be Held Strictly to Terms of Their Bids by the Health Commissioner.

Licenses have now been issued to the Omaha Rendering and Feed company and to James Whalen as authorized garbage collectors of the city. Their bonds were approved by the city council Tuesday evening, and Wednesday the wagons of the licensed collectors were abroad in the city.

Health Commissioner Connell wants it understood that if the garbage is not properly collected citizens can notify his office and have their complaints attended to at once. "These licenses are under bond to do their work properly," says the commissioner, "and to charge only what their bids call for. We propose to see that they live up to every requirement so far as we can."

Talking further of the work of his department the health commissioner said that his inspectors served written notices to the number of 39 during the month of January, in addition to 66 verbal notices. The latter method of getting action is followed in cases where there is no disposition evident to ignore the orders of the inspectors, or where the trouble complained of is not serious. In every case where it is considered advisable to make a record for future action written notices are served.

Five Towns Ready for State League

Prospect Excellent for Base Ball Organization in Western and Central Nebraska.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Feb. 2.—(Special Telegram.)—Word has already been received from five towns, including this city, that they will be represented at the meeting called here for the evening of February 3, for the organization of a state league of base ball clubs.

These five are Hastings, Fremont, Superior, Red Cloud and Grand Island. So promising are the replies to invitations received that the local fans at an adjourned meeting tonight decided to appoint a committee to solicit stock for the local organization, subject to the organization of a state league.

While Fremont is the only town in the eastern part of the state, which has declared that it will be represented at the Grand Island meeting, it is believed south Omaha and Columbus and possibly Nebraska City will be in line. While not yet heard from Kearney, is also said to be anxious for a league, though the prospect there is not as good as in the other cities.

"I'm rich, too," he continued. "Right here in your bank I've $18,000,000, and you know it. You just got through counting it."

JACK JOHNSON SPURNS WRIT IN TWENTY THOUSAND CASE

Champ Throws Papers on Floor, but Lawyers Pick Them Up—Pleads Not Guilty.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—The "golden smile" was in evidence today as Jack Johnson, the heavyweight pugilist, pleaded not guilty to the assault indictment against him. Johnson appeared in the general sessions court wearing his big fur-lined overcoat and a profusion of jewelry and surrounded by a crowd of admirers. He was summoned to answer the charge of Norman Pinder, who accused Johnson of assaulting him in an uptown hotel.

Counsel for Pinder asked that the bail be raised from $500 to $10,000. Pinder was badly injured, the lawyer claimed. Johnson's attorney said that the information had from a physician did not sustain this claim.

"Why, judge," said the heavyweight, "I came all the way from Buffalo just as soon as I heard of this indictment against me."

"Well," said the court, "you go back to Buffalo. I will fix the bail at $2,500."

Johnson, as he left the court room, was served with papers in a civil action by Pinder for $20,000. He threw the papers on the floor, but his counsel picked them up and announced that he accepted service for the pugilist.

Fast Game Ends in Victory for the Soldiers, 25 to 23.

PORT DODGE, Ia., Feb. 2.—(Special Telegram.)—In an exceedingly fast game Fort Dodge's Company G team defeated Nebraska Wesleyan, 25 to 23. The game started swiftly. In the first half neither team let up until the final whistle. The fine, large floor handicapped Wesleyan somewhat in the first half, Fort Dodge winning this session, 13 to 12. Wesleyan came back strong in the second half, becoming acquainted with the floor, and defeated Company G in this half, 10 to 7. The work of Barton for Fort Dodge was easily the feature of the game. Meyer and Simmonds were at all times in the game for Wesleyan. Beck played a good game, with Lehman coming very strong in the second half. Final score: Fort Dodge, 25; Wesleyan, 22. Lineup:

S.S.S. THE REMEDY FOR SORES AND ULCERS

There is but one way to cure an old sore or chronic ulcer, and that is to remove the cause that produces and keeps it open. No matter where located, any sore that remains until it becomes chronic does so because of impure blood; the circulation constantly discharges its polluted matter into the place and it is impossible for nature to heal the sore. S.S.S. heals sores and ulcers by purifying the blood. It removes every trace of taint or impurity from the circulation, and thus completely does away with the cause. No local application reaches below the infected flesh at the spot, and for this reason can have no curative effect on a sore or ulcer; while such treatment is being used alone, the germs and impurities are constantly increasing in the blood and the sore is bound to grow worse. When S.S.S. has cleansed the blood and enriched and purified the circulation the place begins to take on a more healthy appearance, the different symptoms show improvement, the flesh around the ulcer gets firm, new skin and tissues are formed, and aided by pure, rich blood, nature provides a perfect and lasting cure. Under the tonic and blood-purifying effects of S.S.S., the system is built up, and those whose health has been impaired by the drain and worry of an old sore will be greatly benefited by its use.
