THE OLDEST NATIONAL BANK IN NEBRASKA Established in 1857 as Kountze Bros. Nationalized in 1863, Charter No. 209 THIS BANK IS of the people. This confidence is still evidenced by the daily opening of new accounts and the constantly increasing volume of business Your account is invited. Pirst National Bankof Omaha

HOLDS CONTRACT BY WRIT

Work on Theater.

When Secured from Interference by Thompson-Starrett Company, Labor Union Gets Into Fuss, Defeating Restraining Order.

Robert L. Carter, sub-contractor on the Brandels theater building for sneet metal work, has filed suit in district court for ar injunction against Thompson-Starrett ecmpany, builders, to prevent them from dispossessing him of his contract because of a labor dispute. Fred Whitton, vice president, and W. B. Weston, manager, are also defendants.

Carter works under "open shop" rules, employing nonunion men. He alleges that he is convinced that the Thompson-Starrett company will attempt to take his job away from him acting under a clause in his contract stipulating that he must employ satisfactory help.

Carter asks for a temporary injunction secure his rights.

$4.187. His contract calls for the installa- for his clothes. tion of all sheet metal work, fire doors and fire-proof window castings.

Judge Sears granted a restraining order Kennedy and Isaac Congdon visited the of- auspices of the Elks. fice of the district clerk soon after the restraining order had been granted and discuss the suit. Union Stops the Work.

Work under Mr. Carter's contract stopped Friday morning soon after the filing of to stop or look for trouble. They came in here and told my 'Get off or we'll knock you off the building." said Mr. Carter. "So my men through the press dispatches. gult to avoid trouble and violence. It is but a repetition of the trouble we had over at the Morris theater. When the rest of the workmen on the Morris theater are throug we shall go back and finish our job."

H. H. Farmer of the Omaha union, who building, refused to discuss the matter. In W. B. Weston, manager of the Thompson-Starrett company, had given him permismion to go on the building and demand that the non-union men working for the subcontractor leave.

"I was not down to the building until after the matter came up and certainly gave no one such permission," said Mr. Weston "We have nothing to do with the the restraining order on Mr. Carter's suit

Up to noon the sheet metal workers employed by Carter had not returned to work.

$16,000 for Walking Anken Into Cont Hole.

Frank Dresp put both feet in a coal hole while carrying a heavy case of beer. He King's New Life Pills cure headache, smashed up two ribs and became unable to work as a deliverer of beer for a brewery sale by Beaton Drug Co.

agency. Wherefore he asks $16,000 damages in district court John J. Novak is the alleged owner of the coal hole at 1232 South Thirteenth Robert Carter Invokes Court to Keep street and is made the defendant in the suft which is in district court.

WORKMEN TAKEN OFF THE JOB FORMER Omahan Kills Himself of love, of endeavor, of sacrifice, of triumph. Barbara Randolph, from Vir-

Once in Grain Business Here, Dead at Butte. BUTTE, Mont., Feb. 4.-(Special Tele-final abnegation, we see exemplified the gram.)-C. W. Cockrell, a prominent com- wonderful reverence for country that is to

C. W. Cockrell, Brother of Judge and mission man committed suicide here yes- be seen nowhere else in the world. The terday by taking enough carbolic acid plot is big, and it moves logically through to kill a dozen men. For nearly two years he has been in financial difficulties, although previously he had been in a prosperous condition. His THE UPGRADE, by Wilder Goodwin. 321 condition was brought about by heavy pp.; $1.50; Little, Brown & Company. losses in mining stocks. Since that he has been drinking, and this, coupled with the for its theme man's regeneration from fact that he and his wife frequently quar- weakness and failure. Stephen Loring, who reled led to the deed. His wife had sold has thrown away every advantage of birth, the house a week ago and on the day of the education and friends, is started on the suicide started proceedings for legal sep- upgrade by his love for the daughter of at once, and that it be made permanent to aration, and also got an order restraining the manager of the San Quentin mines, him from visiting the home. In the after- and how he finally wins his way to the top Carter alleges that his contract is worth noon of that day he went there and asked is related in a succession of dramatic in-

After packing them in a suit case he went to the woodshed, and after bidding goodbye to his little daughter, drank the to the petitioner and made it returnable contents of a bottle of acid. The funeral before Judge Estelle Tuesday. John L. will be held tomorrow morning under the

Charles W. Cockrell was a brother of read over the petition. They declined to Judge George C. Cockrell of Omaha. He health, and found it. It shows two manly lived in Omaha from 1887 up to about judge, in the brokerage business in Omaha. the suit, when a delegation from the local He came to this city from Jerseyville, Ill. union of sheet metal workers warned them, He was a life member of the local lodge of Elks, which wired to Butte for detailed information on learning of his suicide, Judge Cockrell's first information came years. Until recently his younger brother. William, had been associated with him in business headed the delegation to the Brandels WILL DOUBLE MILL OUTPUT SCIENTIFIC LIVING FOR PROLONG-ING THE TERM OF HUMAN LIFE. By Laura Nettleton Brown. 284 pp.; $1.00; The Health-Culture company. a conversation with Mr. Carter he said that Updike's Flouring Plant to Be Increased in Capacity to Thousand Barrels Daily.

The Updike Milling company has completed plans for doubling the capacity of ganic and food values are destroyed. This the Omaha mill, changing from a capacity of 500 barrels a day to 1.000 n day. In claimed by the author that when generally making the change the company has declded to change the plant from a steam rolling mill to an electrically driven mill and woman from the slavery of the cook stove matter now, I was served with notice of has arranged to secure its power from the and become a large factor in the solution Omaha Electric Light and Power com- of the servant problem. pany. This change will save the enlargement of the power plant when the rest of the plant is doubled in size.

BROKE TWO RIBS, HE SUES Milling company, said the demand for ful not only to busy housekeepers, but Nels B. Updike, president of the Updike flour had increased at such a rate that also to all persons who desire to get the treats of Lamb's life, interests, and per-tionate disposition, and be fairly liberal W. J. Burgess of the Burgess & Woodward treats of Lamb's life, interests, and per-tionate disposition, and be fairly liberal w. J. Burgess of the Burgess & Woodward Company's Deliveryman his company had decided to have a mill greatest benefit and fullest enjoyment sonal traits, with special reference to their of 1,000 barrel capacity instead of 500.

A Serious Breakdown results from chronic constipation. stomach, liver and bowel trouble. 25c. For

Special Announcement Big Linoleum Sale

Monday, February 17th

A carload of remnants and short lengths, consisting of the various grades of printed and inlaid goods-Also Nairns and German Inlaid; in pieces from 3 to 40 yards

See window display and ad in Sunday paper for full particulars.

Sale Comences Monday Morning, February 7, 8 O'clock, Second Floor.

Orchard & Wilhelm 414-16-18 South 16th St.

Alteration Sale

Silk Waists—Beautiful black in | $2.50 grade of Union Suits $188 newest designs, $6.50 CAOR all wool, tomorrow $188 $8 black silk waists for $5.98 spring, tomorrow only Flannel Gowns-Regular $1.00 grade of outing flannel gowns. well made, tomorrow, 75c

$1.25 grade, tomorrow 98c UNION SUITS

$2.00 ladies' union suits, all wool, big values, tomorrow. $1.48 $7.00 colored Silk Waists, newest disigns and big se-$4.98 HANDKERCHIEFS

Slightly soiled from being in row, at 122c 35c grade for 19c; 50c grade 29c.

Aprens Solled from Ladies' Exclusive Furnishers.

New Books

PASSERS-BY, by Anthony Partridge. 321 pp.; $1.50; Little, Brown & Company.

The heroine is a street singer, Christine.

who comes to London accompanied by Ambrose Drake, a hunchback, with a plane and a monkey. The fortunes of these two are strangely linked with those of an English statesman, the marquis of Ellingham, who in his youth has led a wild and criminal career in Paris as the leader of a band of thieves and gamblers, the Black Foxes. Here is the material for a thrilling tale in which mystery breeds adventure and cul-The first chapter plunges the reader into an interest-compelling maze of events, and the attention is held to the end by a series of dramatic situations and surprises.

THE KINGDOM OF SLENDER SWORDS, by Hallie Erminic Rives, 434 pp.; $1.50; Bobbs-Merrill company.

The scene of this story is laid in Japan and whichever side one's sympathies were on in the Russo-Japanese war, we must all agree that brave, blossomy, little Japan is a country of extraordinary interest and ex-

Of all this charm and beauty the author, whose husband is attached to the American embassy at Tokyo, writes from a full heart.

She has inhaled the fragrance of the lotus flower, and is content to remain in lotusland. So broadly inclusive are the pictures that she has drawn and colored of Japan and the Japanese that one feels the book may easily find large numbers of this important point of view, it is still first and foremost a story. It is a story of love, of endeavor, of sacrifice, of ginia, is the leading lady, but little Haru.

her maid, whose name means spring, who wears a butterfly in her hair, speaks with 'Prayer-to-the-Gods," is the heroine. In her stient devotion, her humiliation, her a succession of situations of close dramatic

A striking story of the southwest, having vigorous story that pulsates with life.

Miscellaneous

cooking the organic elements become inor-known and made practical it will restore

The author enters into the practical de-recipes and menus are numerous and en-

A most interesting and "practical feachosen for this volume from among the six they embody Dr. Devine's social beliefs foreseen and prevented, the nearest approach to equality of opportunity assured, and the individual re-discovered under con-greatest usefulness to his fellows and for the highest development of all his powers."

ng-in all that makes a busy home.

Dr. Reeder discusses the education of he whole child, not one or two sections of him. The book makes in reality a summary of his ten years' observation and experience with two hundred youngsters, not five hours a day for five days a week in the more or less repressed atnosphere of the school room, not morn-

from the daily meals.

factors than diet.

delightful quaintness, and lives in the street readers for its scenic descriptions. But excellently done as the story is from traordinary charm.

our Final Suit Sale.

This is

DOUGLAS

Sale Starts Saturday Morning Promptly at 8 O'clock.

FINAL and GREATEST SALE

OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF Tailored Suits $9.75

Sold up to $35, on sale Saturday, at....

Think of what this wonderful sale means, the greatest exclusive cloak and suit house in the middle west offers the unrestricted choice of all $25.00, $27.50, $30.00, $32.50 and $35.00 suits for $9.75. We are compelled to make this astonishing offer which will be the talk of Omaha. In order to make a clean sweep of everything in our stock.

Please bear in mind that Orkin Bros.' styles are always newer, smarter, and in many instances one season in advance from those shown elsewhere. And every suit in this great sale will be good for spring wear.

This will be our final sale and every tailored suit in our great stock that sold up to $35.00 is included-There are all colors and all sizes to choose from; the materials are fine broadcloths, all wool worsteds, diagonals, men's suitings and all wool serges-ALL OUR SUITS THAT SOLD AT $25.00, $27:50, $29.75, $32.50 and $35.00-

On Sale Saturday, at.....

playground, with the whole child-physical WHAT A HUSBAND OUGHT intellectual, social, industrial, moral and cidents and striking situations, which, with religious-twenty-four hours a day, seven the charming love interest, make a spirited, days a week, fifty-two weeks a year.

VISITING NURSES IN THE UNITED STATES. By Yssabelle Waters. 357 pp.; $1.25; Charities Publication Committee. THE PRIDE OF THE RANCHO. By Henry E. Smith. 190 pp., $1.00; J. S. Ogilvie Publishing company. This novel is founded on the play of the same name. The scene is laid in the west, where Just fifty years ago the first visiting nurse started her ministrations to the sick poor two college men have gone in quest of in Liverpool, England. The growth of the movement has been remarkable. In the who want good helpmates, but do not seem United States alone there are now 506 visit- able to cut them out from the bunch of unselfish characters. The author, himself twelve years ago, when he went to Butte. thoroughly familiar through personal ac-He was engaged with his brother, the quaintance with the Indian character, en. of 1.413 nurses. In the last year 112 new the streets of the city morning and even organizations were formed. deavors to show that the world-at-large

Among the interesting features of the is in error in looking upon the American Indian, as it often does, only in the light of a savage. He declares that most of the visiting nurse's bag invented at the ployed in the city hall, who shall here rethe Indians, if fairly treated, have good honest hearts like other good white men. A pretty remance is weven into the nar- and educating in their homes some of to put down their views concerning pros-Charles Cockrell was about 50 years of rative, portraying the personal charms and the sick who will not or cannot go to the pective husbands. Following are the views age and had been married a few clever attractiveness of the western girl, hospitals. Miss Waters brought to her on the kind of husband they would like, even though the daughter of a ranchbook not only the scientific judgment of as written by themselves:

the trained nurse, but the breadth of Number 1.—My husband n as a settlement worker on the East Side of New York.

A great truth is emphasized in this book, namely, that in the ordinary processes of cooking the organic elements becomes of the company.

LAME'S SELECTED ESSAYS OF ELIA. Edited by John F. Genung. 264 pp.; 40c; American Book company.

This, the most recent addition to the a sinsy (with "not" underscored.) Gateway Series of English Texts for College Entrance Requirements, contains fif- 5 feet, 11 inches, with broad shoulders and Woodward. dietetic idea is most important, and it is the racial vigor as nothing else can, free in the essay itself, and in what the author and must not be a "cheap skate." monstration of the new way; food tables, ture of this work is the clear and dis-criminating instructions given for the ap-plication of heat in preparing food. From plication of heat in preparing food. From company. This pupil's text-book chooses for study the author's point of view it becomes evisuch subjects as naturally fall within the dent that the present mode of preparing school environment. These are presented food is not only unnecessarily laborious, but that it involves great waste of the to the scholars through their own investiraw material and puts a severe tax upon gations and experiments, the text being the digestive organs of the consumer. The in the form of questions depending upon best thing about the new way to many the knowledge already accumulated, or minds, however, will be that it greatly en- upon the scholars' power of observation. hances the appetizing qualities of the Earth, air, water, fire, plants, animals, viands. It treats of the chemistry of food birds, insects, minerals, and many other n a way that is easily understood and subjects, are interestingly and helpfully made practical. The concluding chapter of discussed; so that the pupil gains an intimate understanding and appreciation of the book deals with "Associate Influences" and gives sound advice upon other health the world of nature. By means of the simple illustrations, directions, and experiments under the guidance of the tea-SOCIAL FORCES. By Edward T. Decher, the abstract consideration of a subject inc. 225 pp; $1.25; Charities Publication is immediately made concrete, and its connection with the practical activities of Twenty-five editorials which discuss sublife established. jects of permanent interest have been score or more written under the head-ing Social Forces in The Survey. Together pp.: 75: American Book company.

The songs in this volume are intended n a most impressive way, and the book for mixed voices, and are notable for becomes a formulation of that "new view" their great variety, their musical arrangeof which Dr. Devine has long been both ment of parts, and their adaptability to exponent and advocate, and which sums all school occasions, such as commence up as "the new view, prophetic though it ment, festivals, national celebrations, etc. be, of a social order in which ancient In all there are ninety-seven compositions. wrongs shall be righted, new corruptions consisting of folk songs, college songs, operatic and national songs, and miscellaneous choruses.

ditions vastly more favogable for his CITY NATIONAL WORKMAN HURT P. Swinsky, Carpenter's Helper, is Bruised by a Falling Beam.

TWO HUNDRED CHILDREN AND LEARN. By Rudolph R. 27 pp.; $1.25; Charities Publica-ommittee. P. Swinsky, a carpenter's, helper, who lives at 2400 Hickory street, was injured on the right arm and hip by a falling beam To Dr. Rudolph R. Reeder, superintendnt of the New York Orphan Asylum at at the new building, being erected for the Hastings-on-Hudson, came the unique op- City National bank at Sixteenth and Harrtunity of moving his great family of ney streets. He was taken to St. Joseph's two hundred boys and girls out of an hospital, where Dr. Allison found that old-fashioned "barracks" orphanage in Swinsky had sustained some slight bruises. The beam formed a portion of a platform New York City to a beautiful rural home at Hastings-on-Hudson, where the youngbeing used in connection with the raising sters live in small groups or families, each of an elevator. Part of it gave way and self-dependent in bread-making and dish- the beam hit Swinsky, while he was workwashing, in vegetable and flower gardening on the first floor.

There is no danger from croup when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used.

HYMENEAL

Holbroyd-Coleman May Coleman and Walter Holroyd, both of Council Bluffs, were married by Rev. ings and evenings and Saturdays and Sun- Charles W. Savidge Thursday evening at days as in the home; but in both school the Midland hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Holroyd and home, in shop and garden and on the will make their home at Grand Island.

TO BE-BY THREE GIRLS

Trio of Young Women Draw Up Specifications of Kind of Men They Would Marry.

City License Inspector Schneider sympathizes with the men of the west who need wives, also with the single men of Omaha Schneider was giving voice to his ideas book are pictures and a full description of in the presence of three young women em-Hennry Street Settlement. The book main nameless, when the girls took up forms a convincing argument for nursing his suggestion with approval and proceeded view and clear appreciation of social build the fires, but he must not dictate leading roles. Company and production values which come from long experience how I do my work. He must be able to supare the original Frohman one, and the play port me well, and must treat me with the will be seen here exactly as in New York He must be able to stay at home at least few successes of the theatrical year. one evening a week, and must not chew to- It is also officially announced that two son of Thomas J. Carmody, 3714 South Sixteen of Lamb's best essays, including those well built. He should have blue eyes, dark March 3 comes on a Thursday night and he was returning from school at 4 o'clock of Poor Relation, Old China, Grace Be- hair, slightly tinged with gray. He must be the seat sale for the opening and following Without a word, the man caught him and fore Meat, and the celebrated Disserta- a man that makes an honest living, and performances will begin four days pre- pulled him along with him until they got tion upon Roast Pig. The appended notes make enough to keep a wife comfortably. vious. There will be no increase of prices serve to promote the student's interest He also must be of an affectionate nature, for the first performance in the new over an hour. The only description he has at heart, rather than in mere dry Number 3-The ideal man for me ought tained at the Hudson theater in New York shabbily dressed, thin, had about two or history; they will, therefore, inspire have dark eyes and hair; do not object being ordered for the performances here. the wish to know more of this delightful, to a gray tinge. He must be able to make "I am giad we have secured a first-class was not injured in any way. essayist and his work. The Introduction a good living, and should have an affec- play and not a musical comedy," declared in his ideas of the cost of keeping up a

Two of the girls are of Irish-American tock, while the name of the other would seem to indicate that her paternal ances tors were French. They are held in high esteem as to character and accomplish ments, and Mr. Schneider believes they ould mage most excellent wives. He will endeavor to bring them into touch with men needing wives who measure up to the qualifications set forth in their descriptions "They den't want much," says Schneider and they deserve the very best of mates."

BRANDEIS OPENING MARCH First Performance at New Theater Will Be "Arsene Lupin," the Detective-Thief Drama.

The Brandels theater is to have its first performance March 3, and the opening attalked of detective-thief drams, with Wilsame respect he would any other woman. and Chicago, where it has been one of the near Fifteenth and the boulevard by an unbacco, and must be a thorough man, not days later, or March 5, the Boyd will see teenth street, when he got home Wednesthe regular performances of stock by a day evening at 6 o'clock. Number 2-My husband must be at least company now being engaged by O. D.

"A theater is primarily intended for drama and it seems fitting that the opening attraction of a theater should be a dramatic work."

Ryan Jewelry Co.,

traction will be "Arsene Lupin," the much BOY TELLS TALE OF ASSAULT liam Courtenay and Doris Keans in the Lad Says Strange Man Dragged Him Into Woods-Escaped Un-

That he had been dragged to the woods identified man was the story told by the park at Fifteenth and Vinton streets as to the woods, where he detained him for theater, the regular scale which has ob- could give of the man was that he was and dead details of grammar or philology to be of medium height and well built, and Powers' in Chicago for the same play weeks' growth of beard, was about 30 years old and wore a light slouch hat. The boy

Bee Want Ads produce results.

The Food Problem Solved A Month's Supply for a Big Family, Only $1.95

Prices of most foods are outrageously high-so high you're beginning to wonder if they can really go any higher. Just watch 'em! Note what you are paying today. The whole American public is protesting. It isn't surprising that legislatures are investigating.

But while others protest and statesmen investigate you can keep calm and unworried and well-fed if today-right away-you'll order from your grocer

A Mother's Kit

18 Packages, 8 Different Cereals All for $1.95

A Mother's Kit contains a complete assortment of the most delicious cereal foods, made from the big, fat, sun-ripened kernels of selected crops. Eighteen packages, every perfect product of wheat, oats and corn, all packed in sanitary, sealed, weather-proof packages. A different nourishing, pleasing food for every palate and every meal, and enough to last a big family one month.

Here's good food that every member of your family will like. It's so good that you'll forget all about meat being high priced-so good you won't miss the meat. A Mother's Kit contains—

8 packages of Mother's Oats (standard size) 2 packages of Mother's Yellow Corn Meal 1 package of Mother's White Corn Meal package of Mother's Wheat Hearts (the Cream of the Wheat)

1 package of Mother's Corn Flakes (Toasted) 1 package of Mother's Old-Fashioned Steel Cut Oatmeal 2 packages of Mother's Grits (Granulated Hominy) 2 packages of Mother's Pearl Hominy (Coarse)

Cut Down Your Fuel Bill, Too.

Not as a "premium," but because we want you to have the best way to cook the best cereals, we give away a splendid $3.75 fireless cooker free for 125 of the coupons in every package of Mother's Cereals. If you prefer not to wait to save the coupons, buy a Mother's Kit, take the special fireless cooker certificate and the 18 package coupons to your grocer, with only 89c, and get your fireless cooker right away. It cooks things better, saves hours of work and worry, and saves 80% of the fuel bill. All the best grocers sell Mother's Oats and other Mother's Cereals. If your grocer does not, send us his name and yours and we will send you a useful souvenir free. But buy a Mother's Kit today from some grocer.

THE GREAT WESTERN CEREAL COMPANY Railway Exchange Bldg., Chicago.