His Property, the Largest of Kind in State, Burns and He Will Rebuild Plant in the Metropolia.

Ed S. Miller of Beatrice, proprietor of the Beatrice Corn Products mills that was reently destroyed by fire in that city, is in Omaha negotiating with the Commercial club, with a view to the removal of his plant to Omaha. The Beatrice Corn Products mills was the largest establishment of its kind in the state, as well as one of the most sucessful in the country. Mr. Miller had orked up an immense trade and it is his purpose to rehabilitate his establishment at as early a date as possible.

The matter of locating the concern in Omaha has been under the consideration of the Commercial club ever since the destruction of the Beatrice plant a few months ago. Mr. Miller was somewhat averse to removing from Beatrice, which is in the heart of the Nebraska corn producing territory, but the matter of freights of the firemen's order.
